Summer 2016, American Library Association Units

After ALA Annual 2016, Keith Michael Fiels (ALA Executive Director), Mary Ghikas (ALA Associate Executive Director), and Jody Gray (ALA Director, Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services) reviewed the recommendations and came up with a preliminary plan for addressing the recommendations. All the recommendations remain, but a couple of the recommendations were broken down further, bringing the total up to 61. A few changes were made to the list of referrals. One example of referral changes is the 21 recommendations assigned to the Committee on Diversity (COD). 15 of the recommendations fit better with the Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS) Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee did not exist when the recommendations were being developed. Overall, there were few changes to the referrals.

The original timeline in the TF-EDI Final Report reflected a 3-year turnaround. It is recommended that the time frame change to a scale (easy, medium, and hard) to reflect the complexity of the variables that impact each of the recommendations. For example, more than half of the recommendations were referred to the Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS). Logistically, it was not reasonable to implement that many recommendations in the three-year time period for one office. In addition, recommendations might be impacted by one another. We also want to make sure that the Association can be responsive to new initiatives and issues that may arise.

The recommendations were then shared and accepted with the ALA unit managers in August 2016. From this point, the units began to address various parts of the recommendations. This report will provide the progress that has been made from the period of June 2016 through December 2016.

NOTE

THE RECOMMENDATIONS DO NOT LIVE IN A VACUUM AND MAY RELATE TO PARTS OF THE ASSOCIATION DIFFERENTLY. THERE MAY BE OPPORTUNITIES TO ADDRESS ONE RECOMMENDATION FROM MANY ANGLES. WE WILL BE DOING ALL WE CAN TO MAKE SURE THAT THE PROGRESS IS SHARED WITH OUR MEMBERSHIP AND ENCOURAGE MEMBERS TO USE THESE RECOMMENDATIONS IN THEIR FUTURE PLANNING ACTIVITIES.

- ACRL Diversity Alliance <http://www.ala.org/acrl/diversityalliance>
 - The ACRL Diversity Alliance program unites academic libraries who share a commitment to increase the hiring pipeline of qualified, talented individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups. By thinking bigger and broader, across all academic libraries, we will introduce and welcome to the job market underrepresented racial and ethnic groups with work experiences that advance academic/research libraries.
 - The commitment of each library leader to create one or more residency positions will increase the numbers of opportunities for professionally underrepresented racial and ethnic groups to gain the knowledge, skills and competencies to thrive in an academic context. Participation in the ACRL Diversity Alliance requires a deep commitment on the part of library leaders to open doors, share their networks, connect people at conferences, etc., to facilitate deeper understanding of the profession and prepare them to participate in the wider higher education community and for success in scholarship, professional service, and leadership. In addition to the network of library leaders, residents will have access to a cohort and/or network that allows for sharing of ideas, resources, best practices, etc.

Appendix A: Committee on Diversity (COD) Report

Originally, the Task Force on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (TF-EDI) identified 21 recommendations for the Committee on Diversity. After reviewing the recommendations with ALA Staff (Executive Director, Associate Executive Director, Director of the Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS) and staff of (ODLOS)) the list was reduced to six different areas.

Many of the recommendations that were assigned to COD would really fit better going to the ODLOS Advisory Committee. This committee did not exist when the recommendations were being developed. The ODLOS Advisory Committee works directly with the ODLOS and it also has representation from affiliate groups. We also wanted to be conscious of the fact that the Committee on Diversity is a Committee of the Council. The role of COD is to be more nimble and respond to events that are occurring in real time (i.e. the gun resolution) and be the voice of advocacy for EDI to the Council.

The six items do not live in a vacuum and do relate to some other recommendations on the list or may need collaboration with other groups that have not been identified. That being said, we will be doing all we can to make sure that the progress is shared and the chair of COD has a spot on the ODLOS Advisory Committee. I feel confident that this is a good place for the COD to begin their work.

Below are two tables. The first is the six areas of focus for COD. The second is a list of the original recommendations (with the six highlighted in green). We can discuss if you feel that there should be any from the original that COD should take the lead on.

Appendix C: ODLOS Advisory Committee (ODLOS-AC) Report

Originally, the Task Force on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (TF-EDI) identified 21 recommendations for the Committee on Diversity (COD). The ALA staff recommends that 9 of these recommendations be referred to the ODLOS Advisory Committee.

These recommendations do not live in a vacuum and some relate to other recommendations or may need collaboration with other groups. We will be doing all that we can to ensure the progress is shared widely.
