

Summary of ALA Membership Dues and Member Types 2012-2013

Dues	Type of Member	Description
$33	Student Members	Individuals enrolled in a program for certificate or degree in library and information studies. Limited to five total years.
$46	Non-Salaried Members	Librarians earning less than $25,000 per year or not currently employed.
$46	Retired Members	Those who have retired from library and information services or related activities.
$46	Library Support Staff Members	Others employed in library and information services or related activities.
$59	Trustee Members	Those not employed in library and information services or related activities who, through their personal commitment and support, promote library and information services as members of governing boards, advisory groups, etc.
$59	Friends	Individual Friends of Libraries and members of special caucuses interested in participating in association work.
$59	Associate Members	Those not employed in library and information services or related activities who, through their personal commitment and support, promote library and information services.
$78	International Members	Librarians who do not hold U.S. citizenship and who are not employed in the U.S. or U.S. Possessions, regardless of salary level.
$65	First Year Regular Members	Regular member include librarians as well as others employed in library and information services or related activities in positions that: (a) require a masters degree; or (b) require a state level certification; or (c) are managerial.
$98	Second Year Regular Members
$130	Third and Later Years Regular Members

-.

-.