This meeting is a Zoom-only (webinar-style) public event. Please register here to obtain the Zoom link for the June 14 meeting and add it to your calendar: https://ala-events.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_DLFDTVrsRV-zUuazLVIXqA. The June meeting is a public event, so please feel free to invite non-members. A recording of the session along with presentation slides will be available after the fact on the CCDO community page on ALA Connect.

AGENDA

1. Welcome and CCDO officer introductions (5 minutes)

We welcome Elizabeth Lightfoot, Collections Strategist at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Libraries, as 2023/24 Incoming Chair; Elizabeth was this year's sole nominee and has agreed to serve in this role. Dracine Hodges (Duke) will transition from Incoming Chair to Chair and current Chair, Kizer Walker (Cornell) will transition to Past Chair. Current Past Chair, Mihoko Hosoi (Penn State) rotates off -- with many thanks for her service to the community in the CCDO roles.

2. Institutional costs of the Open Access transition

Presentations (45 minutes):

- Chris Palazzolo (Emory University): "Navigating (Gold) OA funding support at Emory Libraries: Approaches, Policies, and Ongoing Discussions"
- Holly Zerbe (University of Pennsylvania): "Quantifying Penn's Federally Funded Research, Publications and APCs"
- Miranda Bennett (California Digital Library): "OA Value and OA Values at the University of California"

Discussion (25 minutes)

3. CCDO business. The role of Interest Groups in ALA Core (15 minutes)
