
The World Bank Group is pleased to invite you to a Library Tour and Seminar at the World Bank!

Wednesday, March 22, 2017, 12:00pm to 4:00pm

Photo: © Deborah W. Campos / World Bank

Participants of the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) Conference are invited to attend a free tour of the World Bank Group's Library and Archives of Development. Participants will learn about our wide offering of content and resources available to researchers. While the tour is open to all, the program will be of particular interest to government, political science, international studies, data, reference, business, and economics librarians.

Join Us for:

- A Welcome Reception
- New Open Archives and Oral History Programs
- Demos of the latest features in the World Bank eLibrary
- Tour of the World Bank Group Library & Archives of Development

Register at bit.ly/WBGTour - More details to follow!

A complimentary shuttle bus to and from the World Bank Group Headquarters in Washington, DC, to the Baltimore Convention Center will be provided.

For more information, contact Devika Levy at dlevy@worldbankgroup.org or Shana Waggoner at swaggoner@worldbankgroup.org.

Sponsored by the  WORLD BANK GROUP