Q1 Which projects/actions do you think the State and Local Documents Task Force should focus on in the next five years? (Select 5)

Answered: 48   Skipped: 0

Answer Choices	Responses
Have representatives at other ALA wide meetings like GIS and LEG and Leg. Assembly to promote state and local government information.	16.67%	8
Update projects listed on the wiki page	37.50%	18

Identify opportunities and support some of the legislative work being done by state library associations	22.92%	11
Connect with the e-gov subcommittee of LEG for webinar possibilities	10.42%	5
More virtual meetings during the year focused on specific issues like managing born digital materials/produce more webinars focused on state and local issues	58.33%	28
Create a list of listservs related to state/local documents on the wiki	27.08%	13
Create a listserv for state and local documents discussion	37.50%	18
Identify organizations, inside or outside of ALA, who would be good partners	37.50%	18
Identify who might have interests in state and local government information besides government documents librarians.	45.83%	22
Hold a Summer Institute for State and Local Gov Info (something along the lines of the Winter Institute for Statistical Literacy for Librarians but for state and local gov info collection development, public service, etc.)	35.42%	17
Sharing best practices through webinars – similar to Accidental Government Librarian series only specific to state and local	64.58%	31
Find ways to encourage those who teach gov docs courses at LIS programs to include more on state and local	20.83%	10
Identify webinar topics through needs assessment	29.17%	14
Conduct a periodic survey of state documents programs throughout the country (what they are doing and problems they are having) and publish the results.	45.83%	22
Total Respondents: 48		