Introductions: President Vivian Wynn called the meeting to order at 8:30 a.m. She welcomed everyone. Members and guests introduced themselves.

ALA Executive Board Liaison: Rob Banks reported that ALA membership is up, especially student and Midwinter registration also is up. He discussed Libraries Transform campaign.

Rob stated that ALA thrust is for every trustee become member. There are 3,000 trustees from United for Libraries. Carolyn Caywood inquired if RMRT could give one year free membership or reduced rate to continuing members of ALA? This would encourage retirees to stay active in ALA. Rob will get a definitive statement.

Minutes: Judy Jeng served as Acting Secretary at San Francisco ALA. Ma'lis Wendt moved to accept the minutes and Jennifer seconded the motion. Minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Pat Hogan reported balance as of October 2015 is $11,572. RMRT membership is 211 (189 are personal members).

Discussion included sending message to ALA membership about the value of round tables, providing better job descriptions of offices, redoing brochure to reflect positive reasons to belong to round tables, having employers support going to conferences, and having joint round tables happy hour.

Small Round Table Councilor: Jennifer Jung Gallant stated the Council was remarkably quiet. Council Caucus will meet tonight and will focus on resolution on how to get things done. Minority Caucus will consider combining Office of Diversity and Office for Outreach & Literacy Services. ALA is tweaking contract language for articles to be published in American Libraries.

President's Program in Orlando: Vivian Wynn stated that program will be on advocacy. Speakers will be Emily Sheketoff, ALA Washington Office and Marci Merola, Office for Advocacy and a third person. Update of the Bylaws: Ma'lis Wendt stated that bylaws will be reviewed at Midwinter. Bylaws are working well. Election cycle is now in order. If changes are needed, they will be on spring ballot.

Program and Meeting Times at Annual: Vivian Wynn will request Saturday, 8:30 – 10:00 a.m. time slot with the book discussion group. 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

President-Elect Ma'lis Wendt

Treasurer Pat Hogan

Directors Naomi Angier and Ann Marie Pipkin

Smaller RT Councilor Jennifer Gallant

V. Treasurer's Report – Jennifer Gallant

ALA is planning a webinar for its financial systems.

RMRT is currently OK in its budget. But looking to the future, it is important to expand membership and plan activities to build a fund balance which would allow more freedom to support programs and speakers. To do this, there is a need to tap into the list of the ALA members who receive free memberships, typically from long-time membership in ALA. We can ask Keith Fiels to include a message about RMRT in the welcome letter they get from ALA. One issue that will be evergreen is that the contact information ALA has for the members is often tied to the place of employment. And which then may not be either current or useful. AASL received the list for their group and made personal calls to invite members to its retired members group. State associations may also be a link. But, the state liaisons were contacted recently and asked about their local or state retiree associations. However, because some retirees relocate after retirement, they may not have ties to the new state's association.

VI. ALA Executive Board –

Although unable to attend the Board meeting, J Linda Williams sent a draft of the ALA Executive Board Talking Points to the membership by email earlier.

VII. Round Table Coordinating Assembly – Carolyn Caywood

The meeting time was spent entirely on introductions so nothing to report.

VIII. Freedom to Read Foundation – Carolyn Caywood

Moved that RMRT pay for a group membership in the Freedom to Read Foundation. Round table price is $50. Passed.

IX. Membership and Membership Committee – Ann Marie Pipkin

Ann Marie reported that she opted not to staff the booth on Monday due to likely low turnout based on last year's numbers. Materials, including ribbons will be sent back with ALA Office. At the booth, the regular membership form was offered with RMRT circled.

A member commented that she never got a 'welcome' from RMRT after joining. It was noted that everyone who joins RMRT is automatically added to the email member list. However, some RMRT members will not have email. Can we set up a mechanism for welcoming new members by phone or letter? – Carolyn will contact Danielle about new members who do not have email. And will there be a 'welcome' email for those who do?

Ann Marie would like the list of the people who have the 25-year memberships so she can contact about RMRT. It is important to know that life members and free ALA members cannot pay for round tables or divisions or any other unit online. RMRT will want to include that information in its contacts with those potential members. In addition, people who join as a retiree may not know about RMRT.

In another membership outreach initiative, Ann Marie will be sending an email to groups saying 'do you want to form a retiree group?' This will be facilitated by working with Don Wood of Chapter Relations. And perhaps an ALA Connect note. She will ask Don to mention the RMRT in all the state newsletters.

There was support for a note on ALA Connect that says : "If you want to honor a retiree consider a donation to RMRT.

The RMRT Program was listed in Cognotes. Cognotes is an important link to the general ALA attendees. Someone from the 2014 program should be sure to provide that information in Las Vegas.

X. Council Activities and Hot Topics

At the Membership meeting, which had a quorum, a resolution calling Edward Snowden a 'whistle blower' passed and was automatically put on the agenda for Council I, bypassing the usual route for resolutions to come to Council. It was a surprise item and the Council passed it. The Intellectual Freedom Committee is teaming up with the Legislation Committee to bring a resolution to Council in support of transparency in government rather than Mr. Snowden's activities.

XI. Committee Charges and Appointments – Carolyn Caywood

Here are the committees (& charges) plus other appointments:

Horrocks Award: Barbara Mates BarbaraMates@cox.net, Jim Rettig jimrettig.gm@gmail.com, Denise E Botto DeniseEBotto@aol.com, need to choose chair The committee publicizes the Norman Horrocks - Scarecrow Press Annual Conference Award to attract nominations and to honor the winner and the memory of Norman Horrocks. Working with our staff liaison, the committee reviews applications, selects the year's winner, notifies all the applicants, and creates certificate for presentation.

Membership: Chair, Ann Marie Pipkin apipkin1@bellsouth.net, Naomi Angier naomiangier@comcast.net, Marcella Stark mstark@mail.smu.edu, Sharon Lawler smclawler@gmail.com The committee explores ways to recruit new members, both retirees and working library workers. It schedules greeters at the RMRT booth and oversees brochure, ribbons, and program fliers for distribution at the booth.

Nominating: 2014 ballot – Joan Larson jblarson@gctel.net, Krista Taracuk ktaracuk@columbus.rr.com, Sue Kamm chair suekamm@mindspring.com Therese Bigelow tbigelow1@me.com The committee proposes officers for the 2014 ballot: president-elect, treasurer-elect, secretary (2 years), 2 directors (2 years)

Program planning: (Las Vegas) Carolyn Caywood cacaywood@cox.net, Nicholas Spillios nikosharik@gmail.com , Linda Friel lafriel@comcast.net, Jennifer Gallant j.j.gallant@prodigy.net The Program Committee is responsible for planning the 2014 Membership & President's Program.

Social events committee: Pam Klipsch pklipsch@jeffcolib.org, chair, Jennifer Gallant j.j.gallant@prodigy.net, Henry J. DuBois Henry.DuBois@csulb.edu, The Social Committee is responsible for the Conference dinner. Other social events, such as tours will be handled by a temporary 'local' committee to be designated for each conference.

Website administrator: Gayle Keresey gaylek@ec.rr.com

Secretary 2014: Rheda Epstein Rheda001@aol.com

XII. Legislative Committee Needed

Therese moved to establish a Legislative Committee to address the needs of the membership to keep up with legislation on the national and state level. The charge will be written by Carolyn and Ma'Lis. Motion carried.

XIII. Philadelphia 2014 MidWinter Conference – Carolyn Caywood

RMRT Dinner - Pam Klipsch has volunteered to find a restaurant for the RMRT Friday night dinner. Suggestions are most welcome.

RMRT Board Meeting – Finding a conflict free meeting time is difficult. The skeleton schedule for MidWinter is not yet available. A Monday morning meeting at 10:30 is likely to conflict with Council. A Saturday morning meeting at 8:30 is a fallback possibility.

XIV. Las Vegas Annual Conference 2014 – Carolyn Caywood

Carolyn proposed not having the RMRT Board meet physically in Las Vegas. She proposed that the Board meet virtually in June. Carolyn commits to planning and prepping and communicating the meeting to the members well in advance. Carolyn also committed to setting up a small, short meeting time and place at Conference. A motion to approve the virtual meeting of the Board for 2014 passed.

RMRT will be exploring the possibilities of an outing in the Las Vegas area in association with the conference. It could be a fund raising activity or not, depending on the possibilities. Pairing up with other units in this will also be explored. There is a need for a "local activities" person or group to investigate and report back to Board.

Secretary for 2014. Rheda Epstein has agreed to finish Kathleen Kluegel's term as Secretary. Congratulations to Rheda!!

President's Program and Membership Meeting for 2014 – Carolyn Caywood

Possible topics include mentoring, civic engagement, a panel of retirees speaking of 'life after work'. This could include an outside speaker for seeing a second life for retirees. Exploring the possibilities for a co-sponsor is on the agenda

XV. Fundraising

As noted in the Treasurer's Report, RMRT needs to increase its funds in order to do outreach, program support, and publications. For Philadelphia, perhaps RMRT could link up with the Chinese American Librarians Association for dinner or tours in Chinatown. For Annual Conference, some possibilities would be an excursion in Las Vegas to Red Rock Desert or a trip to Hoover Dam. The Hoover Dam trip is a longer excursion and may be more difficult to integrate into a busy conference schedule. Co-sponsoring with another group would likely increase participation and visibility for RMRT.

Another possible service activity for RMRT would be to create a template for business cards for retirees.

RMRT Brochure is in need of updating. It needs (or wants) a logo. Revising the text of the brochure is part of the Membership Committee tasks. Ann Marie will work with Carolyn on revising the text. Exploration continues for a new logo.

Mary Ghikas is looking into bringing other groups as communities of interest. The Canadian Library Association has a retiree group. Who else?

Members of RMRT should take opportunities to write articles about RMRT and retired life in general. ALA Think Tank is a group on Facebook and serves as a locale for sharing ideas and information. RMRT has a Facebook page and Carolyn will send a link to members.

Housing at Conference: Some RMRT members wish to share housing with other members to reduce the costs of coming to conference. There are issues of smoking / gender / and background checks to be negotiated. There are liability concerns which would need to be explored and resolved. Naomi offered to coordinate the roommate match process.

Joan Larson and Jennifer Gallant were thanked for their service to RMRT.

b. American Library Association Midwinter Meeting, Seattle Saturday, January 26 2013 8-10am

I. Welcome and Introductions: Therese Bigelow

II. Treasurer's Report: Jennifer Gallant

The budget is spent almost entirely on operations. We should look at fundraising to support a larger program or project. The December renewals are not reflected in the current income.

III. Nominating Committee Report: Jennifer Gallant

Vice-President/President-Elect – Ma'Lis Wendt

Assistant Treasurer - Pat Hogan

Directors - Naomi Angier

Ann Marie Pipkin

RMRT member Jennifer Gallant is a candidate for Small Round Table Councilor

The Board receives the report with gratitude to the committee and to the candidates.

IV. Report from Executive Board Liaison - Linda Williams

Registration for Midwinter and Annual are both up.

ALA supported the School Libraries Task Force. School libraries are not mandated by Federal or state boards. So they are vulnerable to cuts. School libraries are associated with improved reading scores.

Discussion on dues revision:

Kathleen Kluegel proposed CPI ceilings and benchmarks for success.

Carolyn Caywood proposed a sunset provision

Setting dues by salary levels has been suggested. All evidence to date agrees that setting dues by salary is extremely complicated. Whatever dues structure ALA uses or adopts has to be at least revenue neutral

V. Update on the By-Laws

The by-laws as amended will be on the spring ballot. They will be sent out on the listserv as they are. There are elements in the by-laws that are 'standing in waiting' until the by-laws are approved and structures in place to accomplish.

VI. Round Table Coordinating Assembly - Ma'Lis Wendt reported on the Round Table Coordinating Assembly. The group heard from the following people.

ALA is in the midst of a redesign of the ALA Home Page. The Round Table button has been moved to a more prominent place on the Home Page. AL Connect is being upgrade to Drupal 7—it should work for the user in the same fashion, but let her know about problems. The Search function on the ALA home page is being worked on.

Refreshing information from AL Connect to the ALA website takes 30 days. Each unit has an IMIS number [RMRT officers should have access to that number]. To make the Scheduler as efficient tool, but sure and fill out all fields on the meeting room request form and don't use acronyms. The ALA Scheduler for Annual Conference is already open with an end of February deadline for any preliminary program information.

Molly Raphael ALA Executive Board rep to RTCA reported the following: The School Library Public Awareness Campaign Task Force will be asking units for input. She discussed the ALA dues proposal. The Digital Content Working Group continues to communicate with publishers. There is a new Diversity Officer/OLOS Director. The Planned Giving campaign is moving ahead nicely.

Jim Neal ALA Treasurer: reported the following: FY2012 report. Membership continues to be solid. Publishing is still strong, but didn't meet its budget due to the postponement of several products. Last year's conferences were not as successful as projected, but this year's are already ahead of budget. ALA had a $1.3 million deficit which was paid for from the Emergency Expenses Fund. The endowment is now $31 million and still has a strong performance record. The ALA Brand is very popular internationally. The Planned Giving Campaign is hoping to raise $15 million by 2015.

ALA Presidential and Treasurer Candidates spoke

Danielle Alderson is the RTCA Staff Liaison. A new Round Table Liaison to the ALA Conference Committee and chair of the RTCA is needed for a 2 year term. Round Tables can nominate members and the Round Table Presidents will vote on the new appointment.

RCTA Webinar report: The RCTA held a successful webinar in the fall "Going Virtual" with 23 participants. It is now available for view from the RTCA webpage. There was a spirited discussion on planning for the Spring webinar. The focus will be on newly elected Round Table leaders. There may be four sessions: Budget process with BARC; ALA scheduling and the conference process; how to manage meetings; ALA timeline for Round Tables.

Mary Ghikas, Senior Associate Executive Director, ALA Member Programs and Services: ALA is trying to digitize all programs at Annual Conference—so they will all be scheduled at the McCormick Convention Center. Units may not get their preferred time slot for each program. Conference Services is now scheduling programs for Annual. There was another spirited discussion on whether Discussion Group meetings could be made virtual for more member participation. ALA is investigating, but it's probably too expensive.

VII. BARC Pam Klipsch attended the meeting and reported the following:

Financial best practices. - Financial reporting guidelines. Webinars are produced and planned. 3 budgets are in use at a time: Current fiscal (reports from ALA finance) Monthly. 2 - Revenue goals and estimates for next FY. DUE Feb 12. 3 - Final audit and report on previous years budget.

Overhead is now 10% of dues. BARC liaison and help available at ALA finances.

Jim Neal - Planned Giving and establishing an endowment fund.

VIII. Future Planning and news of RMRT

Annual Program - We are cosponsoring a session with ASCLA "Boomers to Seniors Library Models" and will also have a joint membership meeting and program on Saturday from 10:30 - 11:30 with Marci Alboher author of the Encore Career Handbook entitled "Retired from your job but not your profession."

Annual Meeting time for the board. - Monday 8:30 - 11:30 a.m..

Social Committee – Kathleen Kluegel presented the Springfield trip outline and it was approved. Kathleen will explore the mechanics and policies of the trip and send out a final version as soon as possible. – Post meeting note: Due to scheduling conflicts, there was not a day that would work for attendees. For consideration next time, perhaps RMRT could select an activity that follows conference rather than precedes it. Or select a half-day in the afternoon to allow participation without an extra hotel night. The mechanism for setting up a fund raising activity is straightforward and Danielle and the ALA staff would be able to do it.

Dinner was fine. -- Pam Klipsch will send a note to RMRT for suggestions of restaurants in Chicago

Membership Pavilion in Chicago. – It is not clear if it will be staffed. What its hours of operation will/might be. If it is to be scheduled and staffed, RMRT members will need to know how to participate. It is also unknown if Ann Marie Pipkin would be willing and able to coordinate if needed.

Brochure - Carolyn Caywood offered to review the brochure to see if it needs updating or if we need to print more.

Price for ribbons – Kathleen Kluegel is getting that information and will send it on as soon as it is known. Along with deadlines for ordering.

A question was asked if there are there efforts to have RMRT representatives at State Library Association conferences? - Does this need to be coordinated with ALA? Further discussion is needed on this.

The baseball game will take place this afternoon.

RMRT had a very robust experience at the Membership Pavilion. RMRT volunteers fielded many requests for information about the group. The fans were VERY popular!!

Committees

The RMRT Board established the Membership Committee. Ann Marie Pipkin agreed to serve as chair.

The RMRT Board established the Social Committee. Pam Klipsch agreed to serve as chair. The Social Committee is responsible for the Conference dinner. Other social events, such as tours will be handled by a temporary 'local' committee to be designated for each conference.

The RMRT Board established the Awards Committee. It will serve as the judging committee for the Scarecrow Press Award and the Norman Horrocks Award. Barbara Mates will be asked to continue as chair. Carolyn Caywood and Jim Rettig will continue as members.

RMRT By-Laws:

The RMRT Board reviewed the Draft By-Laws and made several revisions.

Section IV. Insert IV.E. Executive Board will review the By-Laws at MidWinter

Section V.B. [corrected a typo]: The President shall appoint the Nominating Committee, to be chaired by the Immediate Past President, for the next election cycle.

Section VIII.A. delete "and in the same locality."

Section VIII.C. Delete in its entirety and re-letter the following sections.

Section X.C. Replace "to be conducted by mail ballot." with "to be conducted according to standard ALA procedures."

Revisions were approved by the Board and will be placed on the ballot.

[Secretary Note: Post-Conference revisions to the By-Laws were proposed and discussed online.]

2013 Conference Social Activities:

Possible social activities for MidWinter meeting in Seattle:

Harbor Boat Tour

Bainbridge Island Tour

Possible social activities associated with the Annual Conference in Chicago.

Architectural Boat Tour

Art Institute

Fundraising Activities:

Kathleen Kluegel reported that Jim Neal came to RTCA and discussed the need for round tables to host fundraising activities. Some ideas for outings that have potential for this include post-Conference daytrips:

Train trip to Springfield for a Lincoln-focused activities

Frank Lloyd Wright architectural tour – Springfield’s Robie House or Oak Park’s many FLW buildings.

Kathleen Kluegel and Ann Marie Pipkin will investigate the possibilities and report back to the Board by MidWinter. They will coordinate plans with Pam Klipsch for dinner.

Program Planning:

The Board discussed the question: Does RMRT need to produce a program at ALA Annual Conferences or is it better to do other things?

Generally, the points in favor of an annual program related to improved visibility of the group; establishing and maintaining credibility of the group as more than just a social committee; providing opportunities to partner with other groups; providing value to members. Given the tight timeframes of the program planning process, Therese will proceed to appoint a program committee to work on the program for 2013 in Chicago.

There were several ideas discussed at the meeting. Most focused on some form of mentoring new members. Therese will look into partnering with New Members Round Table on a program on ‘how to make ALA work for you.’ Therese will welcome other ideas to be kept in a pool for future years.

Seattle Meeting:

Therese will book a meeting space for 8am Saturday for MidWinter. Carolyn will post a request to all RMRT membership for a website administrator. Kathleen will develop a committee interest application form for members.

Respectfully submitted by Kathleen Kluegel, Secretary.
