Publishing Committee Accomplishments, January–June 2022

- Submitted a proposal to revise the committee charge, which ALA Council approved in January 2022.
- Awarded the Carnegie-Whitney grants.
- Began work to update the Carnegie-Whitney guidelines in time for the next round of applications.
- Created an orientation document for new committee members, which will be shared with incoming members this summer.
- Created "How to get published in ALA publications and media" document, now available under Popular Resources at <https://www.ala.org/aboutala/offices/publishing>
- Discussed ways to improve awareness of ALA Publishing & Media products. Committee suggestions for improving product awareness or feedback about specific products will be a standing agenda item each meeting.
- Wrote a legacy statement to reflect the committee's accomplishments, to be discussed at the ALA Annual Conference meeting and shared with incoming committee members.
