Strategic Goal Areas

Value of Academic Libraries

Goal: Academic libraries demonstrate alignment with, and impact on, institutional outcomes.

Objective 1: Cultivate research opportunities that communicate the impact of academic and research libraries in the higher education environment.

Objective 2: Promote the impact and value of academic and research libraries to the higher education community.

- A working group comprised of members from the NRCL and VAL continues working to create an Academic Library Workers Advocacy Toolkit, with guidance from ACRL VP/President Elect Erin Ellis and staff liaisons Kara Malenfant and Erin Nevius.
- The University of Alberta licensed and offered the virtual workshop “Putting the Standards for Libraries in Higher Education into Action,” April 27-29, 2022. The VAL committee has oversight of this workshop.
- Georgia Gwinnett College licensed and offered the virtual workshop “Assessment in Action: Demonstrating and Communicating Library Contributions to Student Learning and Success,” May 16-17, 2022. The VAL committee has oversight of this workshop.
- A working group comprised of members from the NRCL and VAL committees has been formed to create an Academic Library Workers Advocacy Toolkit, designed to help librarians and library workers advocate for themselves, the profession, and the necessity of academic libraries. An interim report will be due in June 2022, with project completion slated for January 2023.
- In March 2022, ACRL signed a letter of support for an IMLS grant proposal that seeks to pilot the integration of library data in institutional learning analytics, center student voices in this emerging use of data, and develop shareable models for academic librarians preparing to engage these practices to increase data-informed decision-making in libraries.

- The University of Wisconsin La Crosse licensed the virtual workshop “Putting the Standards for Libraries in Higher Education into Action.” 24 individuals participated in the Off-RoadShow offered February 11 and February 25, 2022.
- The University of Alberta licensed the virtual workshop “Putting the Standards for Libraries in Higher Education into Action,” April 27-29, 2022. The VAL committee has oversight of this workshop.
- Georgia Gwinnett College licensed the virtual workshop “Assessment in Action: Demonstrating and Communicating Library Contributions to Student Learning and Success,” May 16-17, 2022. The VAL committee has oversight of this workshop.
- The Value of Academic Libraries committee continues its efforts to refocus attention on using data to support data-driven decision making and making sure academic libraries have a place at the table at the larger institutional level so that the work of libraries is not just recognized but understood to be a critical component of the student experience.
- The Northeast Florida Library Information Network licensed the virtual workshop “Putting the Standards for Libraries in Higher Education into Action,” March 24-25, 2022. The VAL committee has oversight of this workshop.

Objective 3: Expand professional development opportunities for assessment and advocacy of the contributions towards impact of academic libraries.

- ACRL Benchmark: Library Metrics and Trends provides visualizations mapped to the performance indicators in the ACRL Standards for Libraries in Higher Education making it easier for libraries to demonstrate impact and performance. One library school is interested in using ACRL Benchmark to provide students with opportunities to strengthen their capacity for data analysis and sharing those assignments with other interested library schools.
- A working group of VAL & Professional Values has organized and is offering the free ACRL Presents webinar Ethical Engagement in Learning Analytics: Lessons Learned by Campus Colleagues (Friday, July 22, 2022, 1:00PM-2:00PM Central Time) to help libraries considering, initiating, or already engaging with campus partners in institutional learning analytics efforts. A panel of higher education experts in learning analytics, data governance, data privacy, data security, and assessment have addressed many of the questions libraries are currently grappling with and are now engaging in learning analytics and assessment with and on behalf of their students. This is part of the committee's effort to refocus attention on using data to support data-driven decision making and making sure academic libraries have a place at the table at the larger institutional level.
- VAL committee chair Becky Croxton gave an interview on ACRL's behalf to Library Journal for a report they issued in late April with EBSCO "Analytics Play a Key Role in Campus Library Operations." She discussed the importance of gathering user data in an ethical manner so we know if library programs and services are making an impact on users.
- Project Outcome for Academic Libraries has 4,284 users as of May 20, 2022. To date, 737 academic libraries have created surveys and collected 112,047 responses. On April 18, 2022, we hosted the webinar “Project Outcome: Evaluating Library Instruction at 2-year and 4-Year Institutions,” which 305 people registered for, 110 of which attended live. Additionally, we hosted a private, paid introductory webinar for ARL members.

- A working group of ACRL VAL & Professional Values Committees is working to repurpose an ALA AC proposal on Ethical Engagement in Learning Analytics: Lessons Learned by Campus Colleagues, which was not accepted, into an ACRL Presents webinar over the summer. The webinar will feature panelists outside libraries with deep experience in data analytics, data analysis, and data cyberinfrastructure. This is part of the committee's effort to refocus attention on using data to support data-driven decision making and making sure academic libraries have a place at the table at the larger institutional level.
- A VAL subcommittee is planning an April 8 online panel about assessment and Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice.
- A VAL subcommittee is planning a mid-May online panel about the Value of Libraries during the COVID-19 Disruption.
- Project Outcome for Academic Libraries has 4,194 users as of March 15, 2022. To date, 720 academic libraries have created surveys and collected 104,462 responses. On January 14, 2022, we hosted the webinar “Closing the Loop: Using Project Outcome to Assess and Improve a First-Year English Composition Information Literacy Program,” which 272 people registered for, 103 of which attended live. To celebrate International Love Data Week, we co-hosted a “Project Outcome 101” webinar with PLA, which 758 people registered for, 368 of which attended live.
- A VAL subcommittee on learning analytics/privacy discussed the possibility of forming an Interest Group and will continue to explore this idea and whether to move forward with gathering at least 75 digital signatures.
- Project Outcome (PO) for Academic Libraries has 4,032 users as of December 31, 2021. To date, 684 academic libraries have created surveys and collected 94,157 responses. This fall, Project Outcome partnered with the ALA Public Programs Office to create tutorials and resources for Libraries Transform grant recipients who wish to use the toolkit. Project Outcome for Academic Libraries also presented a workshop at the Sharjah Library Conference in the United Arab Emirate.

Objective 4: Support libraries in articulating their role in advancing issues of equity, access, diversity, and inclusion in higher education.

- *A subcommittee of VAL has organized and is offering the free ACRL webinar Beyond Words: Initiating, Implementing and Sustaining Change (Friday, April 8, 2022, 1:00 – 2:00 PM Central) to explore what it means to integrate equity and social justice into practice and assessment in libraries. The panelists are librarians profiled on the ACRL Insider blog as part of the VAL Spotlight Series: Practices of Equity & Social Justice,*
- A working group of VAL, with representation from the EDI committee, continues to work on updating the ACRL Proficiencies for Assessment Librarians & Coordinators. They have recommended several additional appointments to the committee for people who can focus on this work in the coming year. They also secured expressions of interest from higher education assessment leaders for participation in interviews and focus groups and/or to give comments on drafts once writing is in progress.

- A working group of VAL, with representation from the EDI committee, continues work to update the ACRL Proficiencies for Assessment Librarians & Coordinators, brainstorming possible outside experts to consult as well as assessment librarians to involve.
- The Value of Academic Libraries committee observed that the ACRL Proficiencies for Assessment Librarians and Coordinators (approved by the ACRL Board of Directors in January 2017), for which they are the originating body, do not include EDI perspectives and proficiencies that should be there. At the same time, ACRL's EDI Committee has been seeking to design a process for reviewing ACRL's standards, guidelines, and frameworks with an equitable lens, in concert with the Standards Committee. On November 18, members of all three groups met to begin planning how best to update these proficiencies and discuss ways in which this process could be replicated by other groups in the future.

Student Learning

Goal: Advance equitable and inclusive pedagogical practices and environments for libraries to support student learning.

Subsequently they checked in with past ReSEC member leaders at the time the research agenda was issued to solicit their involvement, securing several prospective developmental editors and a prospective special issue editor. The three prospective special issue editors (Amanda Nichols Hess, Nathan Hall and Kara Malenfant) wrote a follow-up memo to Totleben in mid-May with full details on the proposal and a timeline. If accepted, the special issue of the journal would come out in January 2024.*

program, where diversity residents will learn more about the onboarding process, the residency cohort experience, mentoring, leadership, and hear from former residents as they discuss how they used the residency experience to prepare them to be competitive when entering the job market.

- The ACRL 2023 Conference Call for Proposals included the following Equity Statement: “In the spirit of equity, ACRL seeks to provide opportunity to underrepresented groups that have been historically marginalized or excluded due to race, ethnicity, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, economic background, age, and/or disability. We also seek participants from all types of libraries, positions, and experiences, including nonlibrary faculty, staff, and administrators. Individuals are encouraged to address how their proposed sessions and their personal and professional experiences will advance these goals, promote equity and inclusion, and broaden the perspectives of conference attendees.” Additionally, participation limits were implemented to allow as many individuals as possible to participate as conference presenters, an individual may submit (or be included as a co-presenter on) a maximum of two proposals for the spring deadline (June 3, 2022) and a maximum of two proposals for the fall deadline (October 14, 2022).

As the comment period closed on March 2 for the first draft, the Comment Review Working Group will be reviewing feedback in March/April. Depending on the amount of feedback, it is expected that a final draft will be sent to the four organizations for adoption by June 2022. For ACRL, the final document will go through the ACRL standards process, with review by the ACRL Standards Committee before being submitted to the ACRL Board.*

The regularly recurring operations relevant to the ability of ACRL to lead academic and research librarians and libraries in advancing learning and scholarship are reported below.

Advocacy

Strengthening partnerships with other organizations

- On April 29, 2022, ACRL joined 7 other members of the Open Access Working Group (representing national and regional library, publishing, funding, research and advocacy organizations) in a coalition letter urging Senator Cornyn to protect the provision ensuring that taxpayers are guaranteed timely, free access to the results of publicly funded research during conference negotiations between the Senate and House regarding the U.S. Innovation & Competition Act (USICA, S. 1260) and the America COMPETES Act. Protecting Section 2527 of USICA would accomplish the goals Sen. Cornyn set out in the FASTR Act.
- On March 31, 2022, ACRL joined 11 other members of the Open Access Working Group (representing national and regional library, publishing, funding, research and advocacy organizations) in a coalition letter asking Congressional leaders to retain language ensuring that taxpayers are guaranteed timely, free access to the results of publicly-funded research. This provision (Section 2527 in the U.S. Innovation and Competition Act, S.1260), should be retained during conference negotiations between the House and Senate.
- Together with ARL and ALA, as part of the Library Copyright Alliance, ACRL, on March 24, 2022, submitted a statement opposing enactment of the SMART Copyright Act, S. 3880, explaining that it is both unnecessary and premature.
- On March 10, 2022, ACRL joined with 13 others to support the Affordable College Textbook Act, reintroduced by U.S. Senate Majority Whip Dick Durbin (D-IL) and U.S. Senators Angus King (I-ME), Tina Smith (D-MN), and Kyrsten Sinema (D-AZ), along with U.S. Representative Joe Neguse (D-CO-02). The legislation is designed to help students manage costs by making high quality textbooks easily accessible to students, professors, and the public for free.
- On February 16, 2022, ACRL joined ALA, ARL, and the Library Futures Institute in an amicus brief by the Software Preservation Network in the case Apple Inc. v. Corellium LLC urging the circuit court to affirm that security research is a fair use. Corellium makes software that emulates the Apple operating system to facilitate security research. Apple sued for infringement, and the court found that Corellium's emulation software was a fair use.

Apple appealed to the 11th Circuit. The amicus brief has two basic parts: a legal argument that providing access to software for research can be (and often is) transformative fair use, and a policy argument that broad fair use rights are especially important for preserving digital cultural heritage. A fair use win at the appellate level would affirm that access for research is a protected fair use of software.

- *On January 19, 2022, ACRL joined ALA, ARL, and 15 other organizations and individuals who promote functional fair uses of copyrighted works and advocate for equitable access in signing onto an amicus brief in Green v. Department of Justice, an Electronic Frontier Foundation lawsuit which challenges Section 1201 of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act as an unconstitutional restraint on fair use. This amicus explains that the Copyright Office's triennial review has failed to adequately protect functional fair uses in the areas of accessibility for those with disabilities, security research, and right to repair and has imposed an unreasonably burdensome process on triennial review participants.*
- Together with ARL and ALA, as part of the Library Copyright Alliance, ACRL took the following actions:
  - On February 8, 2022, issued a statement of interest in participating in consultations concerning technical measures to the Copyright Office's notice of inquiry.
  - On January 24, 2022, submitted comments in response to the US Copyright Office's notice of inquiry concerning the merits of providing an option to defer examination of copyright registration application materials until a later request by the applicant. LCA opposed the creation of a deferred examination option.
  - On January 12, 2022, issued a position statement recommending a new approach to foreign commercial-scale infringement which supports balanced copyright frameworks overseas to improve the legitimacy of copyright law.
  - On January 12, 2022, issued a position statement opposing a proposal to establish the Copyright Office as an executive branch agency within the Department of Commerce, led by a presidentially appointed Register of Copyrights.
  - On January 5, 2022, submitted reply comments to the US Copyright Office on the Publishers' Protection Study after previously submitting comments on Nov 29.
- In a show of support for colleagues in the Ukraine, ACRL joined other AHA divisions in issuing a press release: ALA stands with Ukrainian library community | News and Press Center. Jay Malone monitored expressions of support in the academic community, e.g. Association for Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies, and shared these with ALA.
- On December 2, ACRL joined 13 other members of the Open Access Working Group (representing national and regional library, publishing, funding, research and advocacy organizations) in a statement applauding the ratification of UNESCO's Recommendation on Open Science during its 41st General Conference.
- On November 18, Mary Jane Petrowski and Kara Malenfant met with staff from the U.S. Census Bureau's Office of Strategic Alliances and the Economic Management Division at their invitation regarding the Census product Post-Secondary Employment Outcomes, experimental tabulations that highlight employment and earnings outcomes for college and university graduates.
- On October 28, 2021, ACRL joined an amicus brief by the Electronic Frontier Foundation (together with the American Library Association, the Association of Research Libraries, and the Freedom to Read Foundation among other public interest groups, small tech companies, and representatives of the start-up community) in support of a petition for rehearing in Hepp v. Facebook et al.

- On October 26, ACRL staff members Kara Malenfant and Erin Nevius joined ALA's Alan Inouye in a meeting with staff from Apple responsible for government relations, strategic initiatives, and sales to the higher education market. Apple invited the perspective of ALA and ACRL as they look to engage higher education, enhance digital learning resources and affordability, and better understand how librarians engage in the development of undergraduate curricular resources.
- Together with ARL and ALA, as part of the Library Copyright Alliance, ACRL took the following actions:
  - On November 29, LCA submitted comments regarding the compliance review by the Copyright Claims Attorney (CCA) of claims before the Copyright Claims Board under the Copyright Alternative in Small-Claims Enforcement Act. The comments address the uncertainty concerning whether the CCA should consult the opt-out list when performing a review of whether a claim complies with the statute's requirements.
  - On November 24, LCA responded to the Copyright Office Notice and Request for Comment about the current protections for local news publications, believing a press publisher's right is not warranted. Roundtables were held, and LCA planned to supply comments on January 5, 2022.
  - On October 27, LCA issued a statement welcoming new exemptions to Section 1201 which are necessary for libraries and their users to exercise their fair use rights.

CHOICE

March-May 2022

The good news for the third quarter here at Choice continues to be our advertising efforts. Details follow, but we're showing year-to-date growth over the same period last year and we expect to finish better overall this fiscal year versus FY21. The bad news: We said goodbye to our Editor and Publisher, Mark Cummings, who retired on April 2nd, after nine years at the helm of Choice. Rachel Hendrick, our director of operations, has taken his role on an interim basis.

During this reporting period we hosted twelve Authority File podcast episodes, produced four webinars, and added nine hundred and thirteen reviews to Choice Reviews. Taken as a whole, these months continue our audience's strong engagement with our content, as shown here in Table 1:

January–February 2022

With the new year comes new projects and new staff. In what has become customary for Choice at this time of the year, we're planning a significant product launch, work continues on large sponsorship projects, and we've debuted a new season of podcasts. Our operations team has filled an open position and the editorial team has launched searches for two staff members. Meanwhile, we continue to see year-over-year growth across key audience engagement categories.

For both our staff and our readers, the final two months of the year typically bring a burst of end-of-term activity followed by a lull stretching over the last weeks of December. Nonetheless, even during December, the quietest month of the year, Choice360, our content "hub," continued to draw strong engagement, particularly compared to the same period a year ago.

Toward Inclusive Excellence

In April we launched DEIA Resources for Higher Education: Winter 2022 Edition, this is the third installment of Choice/Toward Inclusive Excellence's rolling list of equity, diversity and inclusion resources created with the help of a number of Choice reviewers and their colleagues.

In mid-March a new TIE Podcast was launched, The TIE Podcast Spring Semester Preview: Maintaining Humanity at Work, with Univ. of Minnesota's Dr. Michelle Duffy. In this spring semester episode, Dr. Duffy joins Alexia Hudson-Ward, TIE's editor in chief, to discuss how team members at every level can work to ensure healthy workplace practices. Delving into the particular impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on employees' mental health, they consider how staff can maintain healthy and productive relationships in the midst of new working environments, stressful home lives, or even grief.

In April another TIE Podcast Spring Semester podcast was launched: Discussing Diverse Representation in Children's Books with Author Kaija Langley. This episode showcases the work of Kaija Langley, the NAACP Image Award–nominated author of the delightful children's book When Langston Dances. Her book tells the story of a young Black boy who is inspired to dance after seeing the Alvin Ailey Dance Company perform, and who is supported in his aspirations by his community.

Since its launch in March 2021 Toward Inclusive Excellence (TIE) our DEIA-focused content channel, continues to make great strides. The TIE team, consisting of Editor in Chief Alexia Hudson-Ward along with Choice editorial, marketing, and operations staff, have created a multi-channel presentation of topics important to the academic library community and beyond.

In January we launched A List of DEIA Resources for Higher Education – Winter 2022 Edition, this pdf is the second installment of Choice/Toward Inclusive Excellence's rolling list of equity, diversity, and inclusion resources created with the help of Association for College and Resource Librarians (ACRL) and a number of Choice reviewers. A third update to this list is planned for Spring 2022. To date we have had 200 downloads of this second list.

In late February a new TIE Podcast was launched, TIE Podcast Spring Semester: A Conversation with Deborah Caldwell-Stone. In this episode, host Alexia Hudson-Ward and Deborah Caldwell-Stone, Director of the American Library Association's Office for Intellectual Freedom and Executive Director of the Freedom to Read Foundation, discuss the drastic increase in book banning and challenges in recent years with.

We have many new ideas being fleshed out for 2022 including TIE's one-year celebration on social media, two new spring podcasts, and a Diversity Officer Round Table webinar and a white paper in the Fall.

Since its launch in March 2021 Toward Inclusive Excellence (TIE) our DEIA-focused content channel, continues to make great strides. The TIE team, consisting of Editor in Chief Alexia Hudson-Ward along with Choice editorial, marketing, and operations staff, have created a multi-channel presentation of topics important to the academic library community and beyond.

During the reporting period, in addition to our weekly blog posts, we published a List of DEIA Resources for Higher Education, the first of a planned series of recommended readings on equity, diversity and inclusion, to be published quarterly. To date we have had 507 downloads of this document, with a second installment set to publish in January. Download the resource list at <https://www.choice360.org/tie-post/a-list-of-deia-resources-for-higher-education/>

The launch of the Toward Inclusive Excellence content strand on Choice360.org has also created several new advertising and underwriting opportunities. Choice's careful oversight of advertising and sponsor messaging is especially important for TIE; consequently, we have developed a set of guidelines for language and visual placements used to describe and depict underwriters of TIE's blog, webinar, and podcast formats. These guidelines are intended to internally govern how CHOICE solicits and credits third-party financial support within the context of TIE.

Choice Bibliographic Essays

Our most recent essay is "The Historiography of Debsian Socialism: A Century of Interpretations, Parts 1 and 2," (April and May) authored by Edward Remus (Northeastern Illinois University). Part 1 examines the historiography of Debsian socialism and the Socialist Party of America (SPA) from a broad perspective. Part 2 focuses more narrowly on the SPA's activities in specific cities, states, and regions; its relationship to particular civil-social constituencies; and its significance in the lives of intellectuals, organizers, and officeholders who once championed the Party's politics. This and other of our over one hundred bibliographic essays can be accessed at <https://www.choice360.org/choice-picks/category/bibliographic-essays/> and are available as LibGuides at <https://ala-choice.libguides.com/>.

Our most recent essay is "Transgender Studies: Literature in an Evolving Field," authored Robert Ridinger (Northern Illinois University). It examines the patterns of monograph publication, archive creation, website use, and journal formation across the three decades of the evolution of transgender studies. This and other of our over one hundred bibliographic essays can be accessed at <https://www.choice360.org/choice-picks/category/bibliographic-essays/> and are available as LibGuides at <https://ala-choice.libguides.com/>.

Our most recent essay is “Histories of Women’s Reproduction in Latin America and the Caribbean,” coauthored by Bonnie Lucero (University of Houston-Downtown) and Elizabeth O’Brien (Johns Hopkins University). It exposes a growing body of scholarship on the history of women’s reproduction in Latin America and the Caribbean, scholarship growing out of a much longer tradition of feminist research on women’s history and, more recently, on gender and sexuality in the region. Although the primary focus is on English-language monographs and volumes, the essay also references important foreign-language texts, especially those on significant regions such as Brazil, Cuba, and Mexico.

Resources for College Libraries

RCL and RCL Career Resources subject editors added 92 titles to the database during this period (1 March – 5 May). In editorial news, annual revision materials were distributed to all subject editors; the project editor drafted and shared a deselection report; peer review recruiting for the twenty-three RCL social sciences and science and technology subjects began; and editors kicked off in a six-part discussion series. Three new editors joined the project: Erika Hosselkus (Latin American History, University of Notre Dame); Lisa Hooper (Music, Tulane University); and Jolene Manus (Native American Studies, University of New Mexico). In sales and marketing, we launched a campaign supporting the Bowker Book Analysis System and coordinated ongoing DEI outreach with ProQuest partners. In product development, ProQuest released an updated Browse page for the RCL user database with increased accessibility and subject refine filters.

*During this reporting period, RCL and RCL Career Resources subject editors added 602 titles to the database. The 18-month deselection project concluded with approximately 12,500 titles across RCL and RCL Career Resources subjects, bringing the total RCL Plus holdings down to 93,249. Seven new subject editors joined the project for the 2022 editorial year (as follows, with RCL/RCL Career Resources subject and institutional affiliation): Rachel Bohlmann (American Studies, University of Notre Dame); Betsy Young (Building and Construction Trades, Austin Community College); Eileen Kramer (Engineering and Technology, Georgia Perimeter College); Hélène Huet (French and Italian Languages and Literatures, University of Florida); Larissa Garcia (Graphic and Apparel Arts, Northern Illinois University); Sam Hansen (Mathematics, University of Michigan); and Kioumars Ghereghlou (Middle Eastern History, Languages, and Literatures, Stanford University). RCL and RCL Career Resources subject editors added 245 titles during this period (14 October – 31 December). As our ongoing database-wide deselection initiative enters its final phase, the RCL Plus database currently holds 94,302 titles in total. During this time, the project editor provided administrative support for the conclusion of the 2021 editorial calendar and beginning of the 2022 revision cycle, including: distributing editorial acknowledgment and honoraria payments, preparing 73 new edition reports, and sending new subject editor agreements to continuing subject editors. The RCL editorial board held its midyear meeting in early December, and recruiting began to fill editorial vacancies.

Operations

In early April our Editor and Publisher, Mark Cummings, retired after nine years of service. Rachel Hendrick, the Director of Operations, has stepped in as interim Editor and Publisher. Whitney Roberts, our new Library Technical Assistant, started in late March and is settling into her new role. She brings years of cataloging experience from both academic and public libraries. In May, Daniel Pfeiffer started as editor, social sciences, filling a position that’s been held open for several years. Daniel’s appointment means the editorial department is now fully staffed. Choice’s digital staff also grew in May when Ashley Roy joined us as digital media assistant. Ashley will be working closely with digital media producer Sabrina Cofer, supporting webinars, podcasts, social media, and newsletters.

We are in the process of applying for a trademark for our Outstanding Academic Titles brand as part of a larger effort to move distribution of the digital and physical seals to the ALA Store and Chicago Distribution Center.

After a lengthy interview process during the reporting period, the department will welcome our Library Technical Assistant (LTA), Whitney Roberts, in late March. Whitney previously worked in both public and academic libraries as an LTA and is excited to bring her talents to Choice. The hiring committee was impressed with her cataloging experience and her enthusiasm for working at the American Library Association. We feel lucky to have her and are very excited to introduce her to the rest of the Choice staff.

In November our long-serving Library Technical Assistant announced her retirement, giving us the opportunity to reimagine this position in the face of changing staffing needs at Choice. The new position will be full-time and will include more responsibility in the mailroom: sorting and delivery of books to editors as well as processing books to send to reviewers. This new position will free other staff members to take on more responsibility for new digital projects.

The subscription and customer service team continues to work with Omeda, our new subscription and fulfillment vendor, to fix issues left over from the data conversion in June. Now that we have more training, we're able to pull our own subscriber lists and have a clearer idea of which financial reports best satisfy the requirements both of Choice and ALA Finance.

Subscriptions & Fulfillment

Even though we have a regular renewal effort for all Choice products through Omeda, our fulfillment company, we occasionally do a fourth and fifth effort. The most recent fourth effort, sent via email in mid-April, went to ninety-five Choice Reviews subscribers who did not renew their subscription in 2021. We received thirteen renewals from this effort, a 14% response rate. The next effort, to be sent out mid-May, will go via USPS to those remaining eighty-two subscribers.

Advertising

The third quarter results for advertising sales continue to show growth over last year by 9%. During this period ProQuest delivered another outstanding event for the latest addition to their Academic Video Online product. First Wave, an inside look at the onset of the pandemic generated 1,932 registrations and $20,000 in advertising revenue.

The monthly sponsorship for Towards Inclusive Excellence continues to have great interest from supporters. Q3 underwriters included Rowman & Littlefield, Springer Nature & Accessible Archives and generated $15,000 in revenue.

The year-end outlook is on track to finish 7% better than FY21 with webinars as our leading product followed by e-Blasts and newsletters.

Second FY22 continues with webinars taking the lead in sales against all other advertising products, followed by sales from sponsored e-Blasts and e-newsletters. This period brought in (3) brand new webinar sponsors including Ithaka S+R, United Nations Publications, and SirsiDynix, which generated $25,000 in combined revenue. Overall, YTD new business has generated $80,000.

Enabling Programs and Services Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) Report Period: March 19, 2022 – May 20, 2022

\ Note: Section A: Membership Engagement includes data through December 2021. Typically, the Board would review data through April or May at their June meetings, but ALA is only able to provide membership reports through December 2021. Section B: Education has been updated through March 18, 2022.*

Enabling programs and services key performance indicators (KPI)

ACRL is committed to assessing progress in advancing the Plan for Excellence, but acknowledges that the entire plan does not need to be measured at one time. The following goals have been identified as the measurement focus for FY22 and the progress toward each to date is reported below.

Section A: Member Engagement

Goals: Maintain 80% (6,930) of ACRL's FY21 membership in FY22 and ensure that 52.3% of new members who joined ACRL between April 2020 – March 2021 renew their membership in FY22. The target retention rate is based on the average new member retention rate in the last 5 ACRL non-conference years.

KPIs	Data
1. Benchmark analysis of ACRL total membership number	ACRL membership has decreased 1.69% (147) since August 2021 when membership was 8,662.
		Dec FY22	Dec FY21	Dec FY20	Dec FY19	Dec FY18
	Total membership	8,515	8,888	10,005	10,576	10,384
	Change year over year	-4.20%	-11.16%	-5.39%	-0.29%	-2.43%
2. Continue to benchmark and analyze impact of new member outreach program	First-year member renewal rate: Non-conference years are shaded for comparison.
	Year	1 st Quarter	2 nd YTD Quarter	3 rd Quarter	4 th Quarter	Year to Date
	FY22	36.8%	38.3%			37.5%

	FY16	41.1%	53.2%	49.9%	47.7%	48.4%
	FY15	47.8%	52.3%	52.6%	48.6%	50.2%

FY12	56.8%	57.9%	54.0%	47.4%	53.5%
FY11	62.5%	60.1%	54.0%	50.6%	56.5%

**An analysis of 207 first-year members who did not renew as of December 2021 shows that 36.2% (75) were regular members, 53.1% (110) were students, and 7.7% (16) were non-salaried librarians. 77% of first-year members who dropped their ACRL membership also dropped their ALA membership (and 41% of those were regular members and 48% were students); 2% kept their ALA membership but dropped ACRL in favor of other division/roundtable affiliations (and 25% of those were regular members and 50% were student members); 21% dropped all division and roundtable membership but retained their ALA membership (and 73% were students). The conversion rate for student members in FY22 is 27.3% (meaning that first-year members renewed for a second year) compared with 38.3% of all first-year members.

3. Benchmark by continuous years of membership

ACRL personal membership distribution for FY22 is shown below. The average ACRL membership tenure is 3.89 years (and the median length of ACRL membership is 4 years).

FY22 Q2	%	Number	FY21 Q2	%	Number
<1 yr	7	587	<1 yr	11	923

*These numbers include only personal members. Reports were run on May 18, 2022, and May 27, 2021, and reflect total personal members as of those dates.

ACRL Membership Distribution: May 2009* vs. May 2022

Y axis: % of total membership

X axis: # of years of ACRL membership

*Based on survey data. 23.3% of ACRL members responded to the May 2009 membership survey (with a margin for error of +/- 1.74% at the 95% confidence level). Survey data is both statistically valid and representative of ACRL membership as a whole. Years of membership is not a proxy for workplace experience. While 57% of our members have been with us 5 years or less, only 41% are new (or relatively new) to the profession according to the 2018 membership survey.

Section B: Education

Goal: 85% or more of respondents rate the quality of ACRL professional development offerings as excellent or above average. 70% or more of respondents indicate at least a 20% higher confidence level in their knowledge of the topic.

- ACRL offered two e-Learning webinars, one three-part webinar series, and two online courses during the reporting period, with a total of 264 individuals participating.

Board of Directors Action Form

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: ACRL Statement on Academic Freedom

Submitted by: Lisa Broughman, ACRL Professional Values Committee Chair

Date submitted: May 12, 2022

Background

In early 2022, it was brought to the ACRL Board of Directors attention that the ACRL Statement on Academic Freedom, approved in 2015, was due for review and potential updating. The Board charged the ACRL Professional Values Committee, which developed the original version of the statement, with reviewing the document to determine if it was in need of revision, should be rescinded in favor of a unified voice with similar ALA-level documents, or should remain in force as originally approved.

In the original Board action approving the statement in 2015, the committee noted that the academic librarians face the same threat of curtailed academic freedom as our colleagues in the classroom. Existing ACRL and ALA policy statements are narrowly focused on either specific threats to academic freedom (e.g., the ALA resolution against the Academic Bill of Rights) or on specific roles of faculty librarians (i.e., teaching and research). As members of the academic community, librarians should show our support for the principles that are essential to all faculty. Therefore, the ACRL Professional Values Committee believes that our association should have a clear and unambiguous statement that supports academic freedom in general, as free expression is a central tenet of our profession.

The Professional Values Committee discussed the statement at their virtual meetings in March and April 2022. During these discussions, the committee decided that the current statement still has merit and should remain in force as originally written for the next five years, when it would be placed into the usual review process through the ACRL Standards Committee. The full committee endorsed this decision in a virtual vote through ALA Connect in May 2022.

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder in hard copy.

Actions Recommended

Board of Directors Action Form

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: ACRL Legislative Agenda 2022

Submitted by: Erik Nordberg, Chair, ACRL Government Relations Committee

Date submitted: 5/17/2022

Background

ACRL's Legislative Agenda provides information meant to guide legislative advocacy at the national level—specifically focusing on policy issues of concern to academic and research librarians. This year, the work of the Government Relations Committee (GRC) responded to the inconsistencies in federal legislative action due to divisive political wrangling in Washington, DC.

The proposed ACRL Legislative Agenda 2022 provides information on a variety of issues the U.S. Congress has taken action on recently, but for which satisfactory policy solutions have yet to be reached. The body of the document includes issues for which action is likely for the year ahead. Please note, there are several issues for which the GRC recommends ACRL develop an official position and/or public-facing advocacy statement. Several issues of concern lack pending legislation but are included so that ACRL may be aware of their importance to academic libraries. ACRL is active in advocating for policy and legislation through the ALA Washington Office, as well as through coalition work with groups such as the Open Access Working Group and the Library Copyright Alliance (LCA).

Stakeholders

The committee contacted, by email and through the ALA Connect forum, the ACRL Committee Chairs, ACRL Leaders, other ACRL committees, and individual members of ACRL and ALA. From this input, the GRC updated priorities from past cycles and incorporated new items including net neutrality, public access to federally funded research, and federal funding for libraries. In developing this year's Legislative Agenda and Watch List, the ALA Public Policy and Advocacy Office was a valuable source of information. Our staff liaison, Kara Malenfant, was invaluable throughout the entire process and staff from ALA's Public Policy and Advocacy office in Washington, D.C. reviewed preliminary drafts of the Legislative Agenda and provided helpful feedback and suggestions for improvement.

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder in hard copy.

Fiscal and Staffing Impact

If approved, staff will add the ACRL Legislative Agenda 2022 to the ACRL website and promote it through ACRL marketing channels.

Action Recommended

That the ACRL Board of Directors approves the ACRL Legislative Agenda 2022 before it concludes the current year's business.

Strategic Goal Area Supported

Please see the ACRL Strategic Plan, and select from the drop-down the goal area that will be affected most by this action.

ACRL Legislative Agenda 2022

The ACRL Legislative Agenda and the ALA Legislative Agenda list objectives for legislative action at the national level on issues that affect the welfare of libraries. ACRL's annual Legislative Agenda focuses on issues affecting academic and research libraries that the U.S. Congress has recently taken action on, or is expected to act on, in the year ahead. ACRL is active in advocating for policy and legislation through the ALA Public Policy and Advocacy Office, as well as through coalition work with groups such as the Open Access Working Group and the Library Copyright Alliance. The following list is in priority order and includes the issues that will be the focus of ACRL's advocacy in 2022:

1. Federal funding for libraries
2. Net neutrality
3. Affordable College Textbook Act
4. Consumer data privacy
5. Public access to federally funded research
6. Accessible Instructional Materials in Higher Education Act (AIM HIGH)
7. Federal funding for higher education
8. Environmental impact of data centers
9. Watchlist:
  - a. Changes to federal copyright laws (SMART Copyright Act of 2022)
  - b. Federal Depository Library Program (FDLP) Modernization Act
  - c. Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA)/Immigration Issues

1. Federal Funding for Libraries

Background

The Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) is the primary source of federal funding for libraries and is administered by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS). LSTA receives its funding through the annual appropriations process, with spending limits established each year through Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations Subcommittees in the U.S. House and U.S. Senate. In FY 2022, LSTA received $197.4 million. Most of this funding was allocated to states through the Grants to States formula funding program. Other LSTA programs are the National Leadership Grants for Libraries, the Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program, and Native American Library Services. Individual state priorities for the LSTA Grants to States program are reflected in each state's Five-Year Plan. The continuation of the COVID-19 pandemic has perpetuated considerable concern for libraries well into the new fiscal year.

In March 2022, Congress provided $197.4 million for LSTA, which was included in the $276.8 million for IMLS. In 2021, Congress included $200 million in emergency relief for libraries in the American Rescue Plan Act (P.L. 117-2) to assist libraries in responding to COVID-19.

Impact on Libraries

On August 5, 2021, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, in association with the American Library Association, the American Alliance of Museums, the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Association of Science and Technology Centers, announced an unprecedented partnership to increase awareness of vaccine safety in our communities across the country aptly titled Communities for Immunity. “Access to information about vaccines and trusted messengers to effectively convey it locally is a matter of life and death. America’s 117,000 libraries provide both, serving communities at greatest risk of contracting the coronavirus and those most hesitant to receive the vaccine,” said Patty Wong, ALA. “ALA is proud to join the Communities for Immunity initiative to offer resources and funding to supercharge the capacity of our nation’s second responders.”

On January 27, 2022, the FCC updated the definition of “library” in its E-Rate program to establish tribal libraries as candidates for affordable Internet. This program makes telecommunications services available to libraries at discounted levels. IMLS’s programs can provide the library infrastructure that supports both access to broadband and the resources and services needed for necessary digital inclusion. The Director of the IMLS, Crosby Kemper, applauded the FCC’s action. Kemper has made addressing the digital divide within under resourced communities a priority, as he recently cohosted the National Tribal Broadband Summit in collaboration with the White House Council for Native American affairs and several others, including the Department of Commerce and the Department of the Interior.

While IMLS is the primary federal funding agency that supports libraries, ACRL continues to monitor the budgets of other agencies that award grants in support of academic libraries, including the Library of Congress, National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC), and the grant-making division of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). ACRL members also benefit from the Federal Work-Study Program, funded through the Department of Education, which subsidizes the wages of student assistants in academic libraries across the country.

Current Status

On March 15, President Joe Biden signed the FY 2022 Consolidated Appropriations Act, which contained only flat funding for LSTA at $197.4 million. On March 28, the president submitted his FY 2023 budget request to Congress which included a $3.6 million increase for LSTA and an $8.8 million increase for IMLS. This is the first recommended presidential increase for LSTA in more than five years.

ACRL’s Position

College and university libraries are core to the academic mission of higher education, and strong libraries are key to an informed and civil society. ACRL and ALA continue the campaign to preserve and expand federal funding for libraries through IMLS and other federal agencies. ALA continues to work to protect vital programs and will continue to advocate to Congress to make federal funding for our nation’s libraries and museums a continuing priority.

2. Net Neutrality

Background

Network neutrality is the principle that Internet service providers should treat all data equally and should not discriminate or provide preference to any data regardless of its source, content, or destination. Whether legislation is needed to ensure this kind of access has become a focal point in the debate over telecommunications reform. Those opposed to access mandates claim that such action goes against the long-standing policy to keep the Internet as free as possible from regulation and note the state of the Internet before this attempted regulation has allowed for commercial innovation and growth. In 2015, the Obama Administration asked the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to rule in favor of net neutrality by reclassifying broadband as a common carrier under Title II of the Communications Act of 1934 and Section 706 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. In February 2015, the FCC approved reclassifying high-speed Internet as a telecommunications service rather than an information one, subjecting providers to regulation. In December 2017, the FCC voted in favor of repealing these policies, 3–2, along party lines. In a March 2017 letter to the FCC before the repeal vote, ACRL joined with several other associations in asserting that “preserving the unimpeded flow of information over the public Internet and ensuring equitable access for all people is critical to our nation’s social, cultural, educational, and economic well-being.” In February 2018, ALA again affirmed that “Net Neutrality is essential to the promotion and practice of intellectual freedom and the free exercise of democracy.” On October 1, 2019, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, upheld the government’s repeal of strict regulations for the companies that connect consumers to the Internet. However, the court also ruled the FCC had overstepped its legal authority when it declared that states cannot pass their own net neutrality laws and ordered the agency to review some aspects of its 2017 repeal of the rules, including public safety implications and how its decision will impact a government subsidy program for low-income users. In petitions filed in December 2019, tech and advocacy groups, along with 15 states that challenged the original decision, requested that the ruling be reconsidered. On February 7, 2020, the full U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia declined without comment to rehear the decision that upheld the repeal of net neutrality laws, as did the three-judge panel that issued the ruling in October 2019. The appeals court’s decision falls in favor of the current position held by the FCC, allowing for the repeal of net neutrality regulations put in place by the FCC in 2015. In September 2018, the California Internet Consumer Protection and Net Neutrality Act of 2018 was passed. This is the most notable of several state-level legislative actions in support of net neutrality. The California statute was challenged and preliminarily upheld in American Cable Association et al. v. Becerra, No 2:18-cv-02684 \(E.D. Cal.\). However, the Trump Department of Justice further challenged the California law, which led to a mutually agreed-upon delay of implementation for this statute.

Current Status

In early 2022, Senator Ed Markey (D-MA) indicated that he would introduce a bill to make net neutrality a federal law. Jessica Rosenworcel was confirmed by the Senate as chairwoman in December 2021 and has signaled renewed interest in the issue. On February 8, 2021, Public Knowledge petitioned the FCC to reconsider the Restoring Internet Freedom Order. This reintroduces the possibility that FCC regulators may again change the classification of broadband and reimpose net neutrality rules. On February 23, 2021, the U.S. Department of Justice voluntarily dropped its case against California's net neutrality law. While the industry-led challenges remained, a preliminary injunction to block the law was denied, with the presiding judge stating that the U.S. Congress should act to resolve the matter. Industry groups agreed, citing a piecemeal approach at the state level as an untenable solution to the question of net neutrality. On January 28, 2022, a U.S. Court of Appeals upheld California's net neutrality law, saying the 2017 decision by the FCC to reverse federal Internet protections could not bar state action. The FCC could take up net neutrality once a third Democratic commissioner is confirmed, but this nomination is currently stalled in Congress, and significant movement on this issue is not likely in 2022.

Impact on Libraries

Educational institutions, including libraries, rely on the high-bandwidth applications and services, which support access to resources, collaboration, content creation, and learning – activities core to their mission. The rollback of Obama-era net neutrality protections may lead to additional layers of economic influence making it more difficult for students and the public to access educational resources, with increased costs being passed on to both the consumer and educational institutions. Discriminatory network management practices by ISPs will inhibit the ability of colleges, universities, and libraries to be equal access providers of digital content and applications of all types via the Internet.

ACRL's Position

ACRL stands with ALA as advocates for equitable access to the Internet and for the network neutrality protections needed for libraries to fully serve their communities in the digital age. Without strong and clear net neutrality protections in place, there is nothing to stop Internet service providers from blocking or throttling legal Internet traffic or setting up commercial arrangements where certain traffic is prioritized. ACRL will continue to stand with ALA to advocate and defend the principles of net neutrality in support of equitable information access for all Americans.

3. Affordable College Textbook Act

Background

The Affordable College Textbook Act addresses a critical challenge to college affordability, expanding and updating provisions from Durbin's College Textbook Affordability Act contained in the 2008 Higher Education Opportunity Act. The increasing cost of textbooks has drawn the attention of students, parents, faculty, and institutions across the higher education sector. Textbooks are often overlooked costs for students and can ultimately be the deciding factor if students decide to go to college. As a result, legislation has been introduced to combat these rising costs and support the use of open textbooks. The bill was first introduced in the 113th, 114th, 115th and 116th Congress, but it did not advance.

According to SPARC, the Affordable College Textbook Act:

- creates a grant program to support pilot programs at colleges and universities to create and expand the use of open textbooks with priority for those programs that will achieve the highest savings for students;
- ensures that any open textbooks or educational materials created using program funds will be freely and easily accessible to the public;
- requires entities who receive funds to complete a report on the effectiveness of the program in achieving savings for students;
- improves existing requirements for publishers to make all textbooks and other educational materials available for sale individually rather than as a bundle; and
- requires the Government Accountability Office to provide an updated report on the price trends of college textbooks to Congress.

The Affordable College Textbook Act aims to permanently authorize funds for a grant program for the creation of Open Educational Resources (OER). The grant money can be used in some of the following ways: provide funding for professional development around the open textbook process; the creation or adaptation of open textbooks; the development of supplemental material; or research surrounding open textbooks and OER material correlated to student success and savings. On January 20, 2022, the U.S. Department of Education released new guidelines for use of COVID-19 relief funds related to OER initiatives. Institutions can now use their grant funds to create an OER library, program, or join a partnership of an existing OER project.

- Additionally, Congress has funded the intended pilot projects through the Open Textbook Pilot Grant Program, first funded in 2018. The Department of Education awarded $7 million to nine projects during the 2021 competition. Including funding in the FY 2022 Consolidated Appropriations Act, the total federal investment in the Open Textbooks Pilot is now $35 million.

These projects are estimated to provide about $220 million in savings to students.

The reintroduced Affordable College Textbook Act is supported by U.S. PIRG, Scholarly Publishing & Academic Resources Coalition (SPARC), National Association of College Stores, Young Invincibles, American Federation of Teachers, National Education Association, American Association of Community Colleges, Creative Commons, Association of Research Libraries, the Association of College & Research Libraries, Achieving the Dream, Washington Student Association, Open Oregon Educational Resources, and Institute for the Study of Knowledge Management in Education.

Current Status

On March 10, 2022, the Affordable Textbook Act was reintroduced in Congress. The Senate bill was introduced by Senate Majority Whip Dick Durbin (D-IL) with Senators Angus King (I-ME), Tina Smith (D-MN), and Kyrsten Sinema (D-AZ). The House companion was introduced by Representative Joe Neguse (D-CO-02).

Impact on Academic Libraries

Academic librarians are concerned for the affordability of higher education and the negative impact rising textbook costs have on students' success. Campus libraries are known for facilitating free access to information resources through curated print and digital collections, course materials that faculty make available through library reserve systems, and interlibrary loan services. Digital OER are part of a larger open access movement to expand free, public access to scholarly and learning resources. College and university campuses are key locations sharing this content, encouraging their adaption for coursework, and expanding the corpus of openly available course content. As part of the commitment to embed information literacy and access to quality resources into the student experience and strategies for teaching and learning, librarians are working with academic colleagues to create such resources and to offer them freely for adoption by others.

OER are a growing part of academic library programs that support new methods of scholarly communication, open access, library publishing, and digital scholarship. They also may be a component of implementing new open pedagogies and developing digital literacy for students and faculty. Open Educational Resources greatly reduce the cost of attendance for all students and can have a positive impact on the accessibility of higher education to individuals in stressed economic conditions, particularly those from under-represented groups. During the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic, the need for electronic, open educational resources became increasingly apparent as classes were moved online.

ACRL's Position

ACRL supports legislation that makes college textbooks affordable, having most recently joined with 13 other organizations in March 2022 to support the Affordable College Textbook Act upon its reintroduction to Congress. This legislation's aim at equity of access to higher education reflects ACRL's values. Under the aegis of the proposed legislation, ACRL also supports continued funding for the Open Textbook Pilot Program.

4. Consumer data privacy

Background

Consumer data privacy deals with the right of consumers to be aware and in control of how their personal data is being used and sold by online companies. Article VII of the Library Bill of Rights states “Libraries should advocate for, educate about, and protect people’s privacy, safeguarding all library use data, including personally identifiable information.” States have been working on consumer data privacy laws, such as Colorado, which passed Protections for Consumer Data Privacy, and California, which passed the California Consumer Privacy Act, and Virginia, which passed the Consumer Data Protection Act. The California Consumer Privacy Act requires companies to provide consumers with three primary rights: 1) A consumer has a right to know what information a business is collecting and selling, 2) Consumers have the right to opt out of the sale of consumer’s information, 3) In certain circumstances, gives consumers the right to request that a business delete their information.

Given the impetus of the California law, the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation, and due to recent data breaches, there has been a greater push to construct a U.S. federal consumer data privacy law (Ludas Orlofsky, March 2019). Bipartisan members of Congress have been working on legislation related to privacy in recent years with several bills introduced:

- The Data Care Act was introduced in the U.S. Senate December 2018 and imposes various duties on online service providers with respect to their handling of user data, including duties to 1) reasonably secure sensitive data from unauthorized access, 2) refrain from using such data in a way that will result in reasonably foreseeable harm to the end user, and 3) not disclose individual identifying data to another party unless that party is also bound by the duties established in this bill. The bill authorizes the Federal Trade Commission and specified state officials to take enforcement actions with respect to breaches of such duties.

- The American Data Dissemination \(ADD\) Act was introduced in the U.S. Senate January 2019 and requires the Federal Trade Commission to recommend legislative action to impose privacy requirements on providers of Internet services, such as restrict a provider from disclosing a user's records, provide a user with the right to access and correct records, establish practices for the collection and maintenance of records, and exempt certain small providers from regulations' requirements.
- Social Media Privacy Protection and Consumer Rights Act was introduced in the U.S. Senate January 2019 and is intended to protect the privacy of users of social media and online platforms.
- Protecting Consumer Information Act was introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives January 2019 and requires the Federal Trade Commission to review protections of customer information against cyber threats. The bill includes provisions related to investigations, enforcement, and regulations that apply to consumer reporting agencies.
- A bill to amend the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 to strengthen protections relating to the online collection, use, and disclosure of personal information of children and minors, and for other purposes, was introduced to the U.S. Senate March 2019.

Current Status

This initiative for federal consumer data privacy legislation is stalled in Congress. On November 27, 2019, a staff draft of the United States Consumer Data Privacy Act (USCDPA) was released. The draft is informed by over a year of bipartisan negotiations and feedback from consumer advocates, state and local governments, and a number of stakeholders representing many sectors of the economy.

USCDPA would:

- Establish a national standard for the protection of consumer data privacy, bringing the United States in line with the European Union and other nations with unified standards and giving consumers strong protections regardless of where in America they live, work, or engage in commerce, both online and offline.
- Give consumers control over their data with the ability to know what companies have collected about them and request that it be corrected, deleted, or made portable, and the right to consent to or opt out of data practices in a clear and consistent way.
- Protect the data of minors under the age of 16 by requiring the individual or the individual's parent or guardian to provide affirmative express consent (i.e., opt-in consent) before the minor's data can be transferred to a third-party.
- Require transparency and accountability on the part of companies who collect and process consumer data, including standards for privacy policies, internal privacy controls, the designation of privacy and data security officers, and a new data broker registry.
- Combat negative uses of data by setting standards for data security and supporting efforts to mitigate algorithm bias and digital content forgeries, such as "deep fakes."
- Provide the Federal Trade Commission with new resources and capabilities to enforce privacy protections, including targeted rulemaking authority on key issues, and by expanding the Commission's authority to cover nonprofits and common carriers.
- Allow states to protect their citizens by granting state attorneys general the authority to enforce the provisions of the federal law.

- Preserve existing federal privacy laws that have been effective in protecting certain types of consumer data, such as the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) (Pub. L. 104-191).

In March 2019, Vicky Ludas Orlofsky wrote on the ALA Intellectual Freedom Blog: “the issue of consumer data privacy is still very much in flux. While states continue to work independently, it remains to be seen whether a federal privacy bill will be passed this year and, if so, what it will look like.” Although this was written toward the beginning of 2019, it still very much applies in 2022.

Impact on Academic Libraries

Libraries retain and take careful steps to safeguard patron data, including circulation records, database searches, and Internet browsing usage histories. The protection of the patron’s right to privacy and freedom from monitoring of their selection and use of information sources is a core value of professional librarians. Students, faculty, researchers and other stakeholders often use third-party software when using library sources, such as resource management tools, readers, and other online service providers. Access to patron data by third parties essentially destroys assurance of privacy when using library resources.

When evaluating legislation, we must thoroughly understand legal, audit, and cost compliance that will impact academic institutions and its constituents. The EDUCAUSE Policy Advisory Committee delegated resources to evaluate the changes of the Safeguards Rule and CUI guidelines in 2019 and expressed, “Concern about the growing tendency of legislative and regulatory privacy proposals to emphasize perspective ‘checklists’ of requirement, as opposed to supporting compliance based on risk management.” These are valuable points to consider when reviewing legislation concerning data privacy. We must work with legislative representatives to address these policy issues, while maintaining patron privacy as a top priority.

ACRL’s Position

ACRL supports legislation that upholds the individual’s right to privacy, which has long been an issue of interest and advocacy for the library community because it values the principles of free speech, inquiry, personal rights, and open government. The ongoing concern over the erosion of individual privacy and predatory online data mining practices warrants attention, engagement, and advocacy for government protections of the individual’s right to privacy.

5. Public access to federally funded research

Background

Several federal agencies have established guidelines for increasing access to the results of research funded through their grant programs. These include the National Science Foundation Public Access Initiative and their current guidelines document outlining requirements of grant recipients for access, and also the National Institutes of Health Public Access Policy, which requires funded research to be placed into PubMed Central.

The Biden administration elevated the Director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) to a cabinet-level position. Biden has voiced strong support for open access and open data policy in the past, most notably at a 2016 address to the American Association for Cancer Research. A White House executive order mandating public access to federally funded research would be a significant development in making research open and accessible to all.

In February 2020, OSTP, in conjunction with the National Science and Technology Council's (NSTC) Subcommittee on Open Science (SOS), issued a Request for Information (RFI) from stakeholders to gather input on a potential executive order "ensuring broad public access to the peer-reviewed scholarly publications, data, and code that result from federally funded scientific research." In April 2020, ALA and ACRL issued a response to the OSTP RFI, which describes the current model of restricted access as the "most significant limitation to the effective communication of research outputs, which acts as a barrier to scientific advancement and inhibits U.S. global leadership." The response outlines ALA and ACRL's position that open access to publicly funded research should be immediate and permanent. The response states that providing immediate and permanent open access to publicly funded research is necessary to ensure that the United States "retains its place as a leader in scientific innovation and development." The response cites examples from the current COVID-19 pandemic and characterizes open access as necessary to "improve the responsiveness of the scientific community and reduce the consequences for all subsequent disease outbreaks." The response also discusses the economic impact of open access and cites European studies which find significant economic benefit to providing public access to new research. The ALA/ACRL response concludes, "To advance scientific progress, student learning, U.S. global leadership and competitiveness, and quick and informed response to health threats such as COVID-19, we urge the Administration to provide for immediate open access to taxpayer-funded research.

The Fair Access to Science and Technology Research Act \(FASTR\) was the last bill intended to create a comprehensive mandate for all federal agencies and departments to preserve and make publicly available publicly funded research. The Federal Research Public Access Act (FRPAA), the predecessor to FASTR, was first introduced in 2006 and reintroduced during several subsequent legislative sessions usually with strong bipartisan support. It also received widespread support among library, higher education, advocacy, and funding organizations with a commitment to increased openness to all results of sponsored research, including both published articles and research data.

New comprehensive legislation needs to cover both, with reuse rights and immediate access (no embargoes). In addition to data gathered during the research process, access should include any code, software, algorithms, and computational tools that were developed and are necessary to perform that validation.

Current Status

On January 26, 2022, the House released H.R. 4521, its version of the America COMPETES Act of 2022, with significant differences from the Senate-approved S. 1260, U.S. Innovation and Competition Act \(USICA\). While the Senate version includes a provision on public access to federally funded research, which would codify the OSTP order to extend NIH procedures to all agencies, the House bill does not. ACRL and ALA are monitoring this legislation through their membership in the Open Access Working Group \(OAWG\). The legislation was moved to conference committee, where differences are intended to be reconciled. On March 31, 2022, 12 members of OAWG, including ACRL and ALA, asked Congressional leaders to retain language ensuring that taxpayers are guaranteed timely, free access to the results of publicly funded research. The letter asks that this provision (Section 2527 in USICA) be retained during conference negotiations between the House and Senate.

Impact on Academic Libraries

Federal policy mandating open access for publicly funded research would require U.S. academic libraries to commit resources for faculty outreach and education. Librarians would likely play a large role in helping researchers understand the new requirements and their options for compliance. A federal open access policy could initiate the development of new approaches to the ways in which campuses track, manage, and report their research outputs and data. A mandate might also require institutions to commit new library resources or reshape existing resources if campuses see sharp increases in institutional repository submissions, find that researchers have new or rekindled interest in hosting open access publications, or find that there is a need for additional funds to pay article processing fees.

A mandate that federally funded research be made publicly available would expand public access to reliable information, provide opportunities for new economic growth, and increase the speed at which researchers respond to new health and environmental challenges. Such a mandate would require academic libraries to pivot human and financial resources in order to support their campus researchers seeking compliance and map out a way forward that accounts for this change in the scholarly publishing landscape.

ACRL's Position

ACRL supports legislation to expand public access to federally funded research. Specifically, ACRL notes the difference between public access, in which a copy of an article in any format might be made accessible, and open access, in which an article is made available in a machine-readable format so that it can be processed and can contribute to large data sets derived from many scholarly papers. ACRL is committed to open access to all research outputs consistent with policies of other countries and supports open data policies providing access to research data in its raw form.

ACRL also calls for published research to be made open access immediately and permanently. ACRL sees immediate open access as a crucial component for delivering the most current research to areas of study that change quickly and are on the cutting edge of scientific discovery. COVID-19 research serves as a glaring example of how important it is for new research to be made open access upon publication and not embargoed for months or years. Likewise, once made publicly available, publications should remain open and not be subject to removal from the public sphere at the behest of a publisher.

ACRL must take a proactive stance on pending federal legislation and, along with ALA and OAWG, engage with advocates in strategic states to speak with federal legislators in key offices and Congressional committees.

6. Accessible Instructional Materials in Higher Education Act (AIM HIGH)

Background

The Accessible Instructional Materials in Higher Education Act (AIM HIGH) seeks to create a commission to develop voluntary guidelines for postsecondary electronic instruction materials and related technologies. Coursework materials are increasingly delivered in digital forms with e-books, PDF articles, and interactive web content delivered from the learning management systems, databases, and the open web. Whereas traditional tangible print items present obstacles to students with disabilities, digital content offers opportunities to expand accessibility for these students.

AIM HIGH will establish an independent commission to:

- develop and issue voluntary accessibility guidelines for postsecondary electronic instructional materials and related technologies,
- develop a model framework for pilot testing such materials and technologies, and
- produce an annotated list of information technology standards.

The Department of Education will review and update the voluntary guidelines, pilot testing framework, and information technology standards every five years.

This legislation has its roots in the Technology, Equality, and Accessibility in College and Higher Education (TEACH) Act, introduced in Congress in November 2013. According to proceedings of a 2017 EDUCAUSE conference, that bill was intended to foster the development of voluntary accessibility guidelines for postsecondary electronic instructional materials and related technologies. Beginning in fall 2014, major higher education associations worked to develop a legislative proposal that could generate sustained progress in the accessibility of postsecondary electronic instructional materials. The result of this collaboration was AIM HIGH, introduced on September 27, 2016, and subsequently reintroduced in 2017 and 2019. The Act was included in versions of the 2018 Higher Education Act reauthorization bill, but substantive differences in the details proposed by the House and Senate were not addressed.

AIM HIGH is supported by the National Federation of the Blind (NFB), the Association of American Publishers (AAP), the Software and Information Industry Association (SIIA), the American Council on Education (ACE), EDUCAUSE, and other leading higher education associations, as well as groups such as the National Center for Learning Disabilities and the Association of University Centers on Disabilities.

On March 5, 2020, during the 116th Congress, Bill Cassidy (D-LA) reintroduced S. 3410, AIM HIGH Act. It had only one cosponsor, Bob Casey (D-PA). On December 5, 2019, David Roe (R-TN) reintroduced H.R. 5312, AIM HIGH Act. More than 40 cosponsors from both parties added their names to the bill but it did not advance. The bill would have created a commission to develop voluntary guidelines for postsecondary electronic instruction materials and related technologies. The Department of Education would review and update the voluntary guidelines, pilot testing framework, and information technology standards every five years.

Current Status

No legislation on accessible instructional materials has been introduced in the 117th Congress.

Impact on Academic Libraries

The ACRL Standards for Distance Learning Library Services specifically address the need for services, facilities, equipment, and technological infrastructures that provide equitable access to all researchers, including those with physical and cognitive disabilities.

The development of federal guidelines, as suggested in the AIM HIGH Act, will directly benefit academic libraries and their users because libraries create and provide access to expansive online materials that are considered “postsecondary electronic instruction materials.” The campus library is a central point of access for students in higher education, and academic libraries also provide direct instruction to students and create many instructional materials in digital formats. Therefore, these guidelines will help ensure that library instruction materials and resources are also accessible to all. This not only increases the accessibility of instructional materials for users with disabilities, but it also benefits all users by allowing them to access the information they need in the ways they need to, and that works best for them. Finally, while there are existing standards that this act will collate into an annotated list, new federal guidelines would help to situate accessibility best practices into the context of higher education instruction, which academic libraries play an integral part, and libraries could use them to increase and ensure the accessibility of our instruction services and resources.

ACRL’s position

ACRL is committed to open and equitable access to high-quality scholarly information resources, including accessibility by those with disabilities. Establishing guidelines to leverage technological tools to deliver digital content will ensure the accessibility of instructional materials to all user groups.

7. Federal funding for higher education

Background

There are two prominent areas of need/advocacy associated with the push for broader federal funding for higher education. One of these areas of need has emerged as a direct result of the COVID-19 pandemic and its effects on university budgets. Another relates to matters of equity, specifically in relation to the affordability of accessing higher education and the student debt crisis and has also been amplified by the pandemic.

In a 2020 letter to Congress, the American Council on Education (ACE) has identified no less than $120 billion in pandemic-related expenses and lost revenue impacting students and institutions of higher learning. Since the onset of the pandemic, enrollment has dropped 3.3% at four-year institutions, and as much as 9.5% in the community college sector. International student enrollment is down by 43%, and the wider economic consequences of the pandemic are disproportionately affecting low-income and traditionally marginalized communities, where enrollments are down as much as 16%.

In the face of decreased government funding in recent decades, institutions have passed the costs for education directly to students through higher tuition. The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) has noted that over 44 million Americans are directly impacted by student loan debt. Further, minority communities, and women of color in particular, are disproportionately represented within these figures. Research conducted by the Heller School of Social Policy and Management points out that the median black borrower still owes 95% of their debt, while the median white borrower has paid off 94% of their debt. ACE identifies long-standing disparities in median household income and net wealth, when comparing black and white households, as the most likely explanation for the disparities in student debt across racial lines. Under such circumstances, any positive movement on student debt reform or debt forgiveness will also further the cause of social equity in education.

As noted by ALA, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion are fundamental values of the association and its members. Similarly ACRL's core commitment creates diverse and inclusive communities in the Association and in academic and research libraries, as stated in ACRL's strategic plan.

Current status

Several new laws are providing COVID-19 relief to colleges and universities. On March 27, 2020, Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES), Public Law 116-136. This bill allotted $2.2 trillion to provide economic aid to Americans impacted by the pandemic. Of that $2.2 trillion, about $14 billion was given to the Office of Postsecondary Education to create the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF). This grant provided money to specific institutions that met certain requirements, such as participating Title IV schools, Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HCBUs), minority serving institutions, and others.

On December 27, 2020, additional funding was allocated to create the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II) through the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act 2021 (CRRSAA), Public Law 116-260. This provided an additional $81.88 billion to higher education systems and expanded the eligibility requirements to include additional categories for supporting student aid for public and nonprofit institutions.

On March 11, 2021, the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III) was authorized by the American Rescue Plan, Public Law 117-2, and was signed into effect providing $39.6 billion to support institutions in higher education. Details of the funding provide information on eligibility requirements, yet experts and higher education institutions reported that the aid fell short of actual need.

In response to the pandemic's exacerbating effects on the student debt crisis, President Biden extended a pause on all student debt payments and collections through August 31, 2022. Interest on these loans will also be held at 0% during this pause. Members of Congress have introduced several bills and resolutions in an effort to cut down on the amount of debt that Americans shoulder. Some of these include: V.E.T Student Loans Act (H.R. 5097), Student Loan Forgiveness for Frontline Health Workers Act (H.R. 2418), and Debt-Free College Act of 2021 (H.R. 2804). Most recently, a resolution was introduced to the House (H.R. 100) and Senate (S.R. 46) called on the President of the United States to take executive action to broadly cancel up to $50,000 in federal loan debt. Yet, the Biden Administration has only affected changes to programs for Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) and income-driven repayment plans (IDR), which affect specific populations with student loan debt.

Impact on academic libraries

Academic libraries are currently positioned to experience collateral fallout of the student loan crisis. With the multidecade downward trend of public funding for colleges and universities, these institutions are forced to rely increasingly on tuition dollars as their main source of funding. Experts note this has led to the rapidly increasing costs of higher education, which in turn feeds the student debt crisis. Taken as a whole, this system of educational finance is unsustainable. Further, with the compounding effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on student debt repayment, universities should expect continued downward trends in enrollment. As tuition revenues drop, libraries have traditionally shouldered a disproportionate burden of institutional funding cuts. Therefore, any governmental action on student debt forgiveness, or the expansion of funding for educational access, which can bolster enrollment will help libraries maintain funding. Importantly, libraries will want to remain active in these conversations, as any well-meaning legislation that seeks to limit tuition rates resulting in significant funding cuts for libraries.

ACRL's position

ACRL supports increased federal funding for higher education, seeing equitable access as foundational to the work of our association and its members. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically affected university operating budgets, often seeing libraries at the forefront of budget cuts. Any additional higher educational funding can help libraries expand new initiatives and purchase more diverse collections to support programs. ACRL also supports student loan debt forgiveness in order to create more equitable access to higher education.

8. Environmental impact of data centers

Background

As of 2020, data centers account for as much as 1% of global energy consumption (with the broader Internet sector comprising 2-4% of global consumption). This represents a doubling in the energy costs of these utilities since 2010, and some projections show these costs could increase three to fourfold by 2030. As increased Internet use and demand for cloud computing grows, technological efficiencies may help to decrease the energy needs of global data center infrastructure. Nevertheless, it is important that organizations that rely on and champion these technologies, such as academic libraries and their parent institutions, fully appreciate their potential adverse impacts on the environment.

The 117th Congress has not yet proposed any bill that would address the environmental impact of data centers in the United States. And while previous congressional movement on this issue has been limited, a few pieces of legislation are worth noting. The Energy Efficient Government Technology Act (H.R.1420) set forth requirements aimed at increasing the energy efficiency of information technologies and data centers within the federal government. In September 2019, this bill passed in the House and was routed to the Senate's Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, who recommended the legislation pass in the Senate without amendment via S. Rept. 116-145. While no further action was taken on this particular bill, minimal elements were incorporated into Division Z (Energy Act of 2020) of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 (H.R. 133) and signed into law by the President Trump in December 2020. It is important to note that these statutes only seek to establish energy efficiency standards for federally owned/operated data centers. The broader environment of privately operated data centers remains unaddressed by Congress.

Impact on academic libraries

While academic libraries support the expansion of data-intensive and technology-assisted research, it is also important to promote among library users a deeper understanding of the costs of this type of information access and use. Furthermore, it is imperative that libraries continue to review regulatory activities at the national level to ensure Internet and cloud-based technology infrastructures are made as energy efficient as possible.

ACRL's position

ACRL and its members are concerned about the environmental sustainability of Internet technologies, particularly significant energy inefficiencies of data center infrastructures and the negative impact they create through the use of nonrenewable energy sources.

9. Watchlist

There are additional policy issues of great concern to academic librarians that are not included above because there is no pending legislation, because new bills were introduced during the creation of this legislative agenda, or action is not likely in the current legislative session. Should issues on the watchlist become active, ACRL will advocate for the best interests of academic and research libraries by relying on past precedent and current analysis.

a. Changes to federal copyright laws (SMART Copyright Act of 2022)

Following earlier discussion drafts, on March 17, 2022, Senator Thom Tillis (R-NC), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee on Intellectual Property, introduced S. 3880, “Strengthening Measures to Advance Rights Technologies Copyright Act of 2022” or the “SMART Copyright Act of 2022.” The bill, cosponsored by Patrick Leahy (D-VT), suggests sweeping changes to the safe harbors for online service providers contained in the Section 512 of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. These changes would threaten libraries’ ability to provide Internet access and would lead to increased filtering, limiting free speech and fair use rights. The Library Copyright Alliance, a partnership between ACRL, ALA, and the Association of Research Libraries (ARL), opposes this legislation and issued a statement on March 24, 2022. The Author’s Alliance, which also opposes the bill, believes that “because 2022 is an election year, it has been speculated that the SMART Act of 2022 is unlikely to pass during this legislative session.” As Leahy is planning to retire, Tillis will need to find a new cosponsor to reintroduce the bill in a future legislative session.

b. Federal Depository Library Program (FDLP) Modernization Act

In March of 2018, the House filed H.R. 5305, the FDLP Modernization Act of 2018. The bill addressed many issues, including improved access to electronic resources, digitization of historical publications for public access, modernization of the online repository, free public access to GPO’s online repository, and improved access to cataloging data produced by SuDoc. The American Library Association (ALA), American Association of Law Libraries and the Association of Research Libraries cosigned a letter of support for H.R. 5305, while the GPO published a statement of its own. In April, amendments to H.R. 5305 were made available by the Committee on House Administration. The Congressional Budget Office (CBO) released their cost estimates for H.R. 5305 (the FDLP Modernization Act) on May 25, 2018. However, progress stalled, and H.R. 5305 died when the 115th Congress ended in January 2019. In July 2020, the GPO released a new set of legislative proposals that fall along the same lines as those changes outlined within the FDLP Modernization Act. This activity renews hope that Congress may pass legislation to update internal policies and operations at the GPO. As of February 2021, the GPO began soliciting feedback and comment on an updated version of proposed changes to Title 44 of the U.S. Code.

c. Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA)/Immigration Issues

The DACA program, put in place by the Obama Administration in 2012, protects individuals brought to the United States as children from deportation and is currently in litigation. In January 2018, a nationwide preliminary injunction was issued on the September 2017 rescission of the DACA program. In June 2018, the Memorandum from Secretary Kirstjen M. Nielsen agreed with the decision of Secretary Duke under the Duke Memorandum (set on September 5, 2017) to rescind the DACA policy. Despite the efforts of the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Trump Administration, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the nationwide preliminary injunction and required DHS to continue accepting renewal applications (National Law Review, November 12, 2018). The Supreme Court in 2019 decided to review the DACA issue during its October term, and a decision is anticipated sometime in 2020 (National Law Review, July 8, 2019). The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is not accepting requests from individuals who have never been granted deferred action under DACA, but due to ongoing court orders, USCIS continues to accept renewal requests.

With the culmination of the 2020 elections, a series of proposed bills was sent to the chambers regarding DACA and immigration policy in general. As recently as December 17, 2020, Senator Catherine Cortez Masto (D-NV) introduced S.5055, a Senate bill emphasizing among other things the protection of immigrant families and promotion of citizenship. On January 20, 2021, the White House released a Memorandum for the Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security, titled Preserving and Fortifying Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals \(DACA\). On March 3, 2021, Rep. Lucille Roybal-Allard (D-CA) introduced H.R. 6, The American Dream and Promise Act, a bill to provide certain undocumented noncitizens with a path to receive permanent resident status. This bill contains other provisions for immigrants, including the cancellation of removal policies and adjustment of status for certain noncitizens.

The ACRL Board of Directors has publicly recognized DACA students, faculty, and staff in higher education—many of whom also work in libraries—as important and valued members of the academic community. The loss of these groups who “contribute their unique perspectives” would “harm intellectual freedom by removing the voices of vulnerable groups from the scholarly discourse and would jeopardize the invaluable cultural enrichment brought to our campuses by immigrant students, faculty, and staff.”

Board of Directors Action Form Request to Establish an ACRL Task Force

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: Request to extend the ACRL/ALA/ARL IPEDS Advisory Task Force term and revised charge

Submitted by: Mary Jane Petrowski, ACRL Associate Director

Date submitted: May 18, 2022

Background

In 2015 ACRL, ALA, and ARL formed a joint advisory working group to advise the director of the IPEDS Academic Library Component regarding improvements to IPEDS definitions and to update the academic library community on changes. At that time ACRL President Karen Williams informed the Board of the creation of the informal working group. The initial working group developed many recommendations regarding definitional issues and responses to questions raised by the academic library community, all of which were accepted by IPEDS and implemented in the 2015 and 2016 survey cycles. Although the advisory working group completed its original charge as of July 28, 2016, the group identified additional issues requiring further deliberation including usage of electronic serials, shared collections, institutional repositories, and working with the Bureau of Labor Statistics to modify job categories for academic librarians. In November 2016 ARL and ACRL agreed that this informal group should keep working together to continue efforts to bring the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) Academic Libraries Component up to date and in line with current library practices. Representatives from ACRL, ALA, and ARL were asked to continue through 2019. As this group was informal, it is not transparent to the members that there was an official group, so the ACRL Board formally created this task force in FY17. Definitions for e-serials and e-serial usage were integrated into the 2019-2020 survey and changes were made to how librarians were counted, a significant improvement over past surveys.

The ACRL Board approved a two-year extension of the Task Force in April 2019 through 2022, to align with the OMB review cycle. The charge has been updated to reflect the new work of the Task Force as well as the time frame. Although there have been discussions about shifting responsibility for the IPEDS Academic Library Component to IMLS, such a change would not happen before 2025.

The following principles guide the work of the Advisory Task Force:

- The Advisory Task Force works to ensure that IPEDS Academic Library Survey data will be collected in a way that is not overly burdensome to library staff who report the data.
- The revised definition(s) and FAQ will yield data that are useful for benchmarking among academic libraries.
- The resulting data will be useful for parents and students conducting college comparisons and research into institutions of interest.

Name, Charge & Tasks

- Name: ACRL/ALA/ARL IPEDS Advisory Task Force
- Charge: To continue efforts to bring the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) Academic Libraries Component up to date and in line with current library practices. To make recommendations regarding definitional issues and responses to questions raised by the academic library community in the 2021-24 survey cycles; to address definitional issues surrounding the nuances of shared print and electronic collections; to publicize changes to the IPEDS Academic Library Component to the academic library community on a regular basis.

Membership

- ACRL and ARL will appoint co-chairs to lead the Advisory Task Force. There will be no vice chairs or past co-chairs.
- The Advisory Task Force has 12 members including ARL and ACRL staff liaisons, the IPEDS Academic Libraries Component director, the director of the ALA Library and Research Center, and six additional members, three of which will be appointed by ACRL and ARL, respectively.
- The senior director of research and analytics will serve as the ARL staff liaison.
- Advisory Task Force co-chairs and members are selected through a combination of purposeful selection of representatives from all Carnegie classifications and subject matter experts in the focus area of the task force and in response to a call for interest issued by ACRL and ARL, respectively.

Terms

- The Advisory Task Force is renewable at the conclusion of year three.
- Co-chairs and Advisory Task Force members serve three-year terms.
- Staff liaisons from ACRL and ARL serve on the committee.

Timeline for completion of work

- Date interim report is due: 2023 ALA Annual Conference (June 2023)
- Date final report is due: 2025 ALA Annual Conference (June 2025)

Action Recommended

That the ACRL Board of Directors approves the extension of ACRL/ALA/ARL IPEDS Advisory division-level task force through 2025 with the updated charge to reflect the extended time period.

Board of Directors Action Form

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: Dissolving the Michigan MLA Chapter

Submitted by: Lauren Carlton, Program Officer ACRL, lcarlton@ala.org

Date submitted: June 8, 2022

Background

The representative of the Michigan MLA Chapter reached out to staff to request the designation of their chapter. The rep stated in a December 2021 email: "Michigan has 2 chapters (one through MLA since 1974, and one through the Michigan Academic Library Association – MiALA since 2015). This seems very duplicative, and we recognize that MLA has not been an active chapter for some time. We want to make sure that the work of the ACRL chapter is accomplished based on your guidelines/by-laws/duties, and we believe that MiALA is the best organization for this work."

We are requesting that the ACRL Board vote to dissolve the ACRL Michigan MLA Chapter.

According to ACRL's Guide to Policies and Procedures, Chapter 5.1:

"A chapter's affiliation may be dissolved at its request by the Board and its affiliation will be dissolved if the chapter becomes inactive or fails to comply with bylaws provisions regarding chapters. (Source: ACRL Board, June 1998)"

Chapter 5.3 Retaining chapter affiliate status, also has relevant information:

"ACRL chapters are completely autonomous. They may (1) adopt bylaws governing officers, membership meetings, committees, and other matters; (2) develop and implement their own programs, requesting assistance from the ACRL Executive Director; (3) establish criteria for dues and membership; or (4) develop a newsletter or engage in other activity in order to improve communication within the membership. Chapters shall either incorporate or belong to a state association that is incorporated within one year of their recognition by ACRL."

Stakeholders

Deborah E. Mikula, Executive Director, Michigan Library Association, advised that the Michigan Library Association board of directors voted in December 2021 to approve the dissolution of the ACRL Michigan

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder in hard copy.

MLA Chapter. Mikula stated that MLA would like to notify MiALA of the dissolution pending ACRL Board approval.

Fiscal and Staffing Impact

ACRL will no longer budget annual funding for the chapter's reimbursement request, and staff time will no longer be needed to maintain the chapter records. If approved, staff will update membership materials and the online Directory of Leadership.

Action Recommended

That the ACRL Board of Directors dissolves the ACRL Michigan MLA Chapter.

Plan for Excellence

Association of College & Research Libraries

Approved April 20, 2011 — Effective July 1, 2011

Reaffirmed September 2013. Revised November 2019.

Preamble

The strengths and capacities of ACRL have enabled the association to sustain exemplary programs and results for its members and to shape policies and practices of vital interest to higher education.

ACRL's Plan for Excellence continues that path and focuses attention on four areas that capitalize on our strengths, deliver high member value, and heighten our impact:

- Value of Academic Libraries
- Student Learning
- Research and Scholarly Environment
- New Roles and Changing Landscapes

These strategic areas will be supported by financial and operational planning, and will guide the development and implementation of programs and services that target education, advocacy and member engagement.

ACRL's leadership views strategic thinking and planning as an ongoing process. Adoption of this plan for excellence affirms the general intent and direction articulated by the association's core ideology, envisioned future, shorter-term goals, and objectives. Progress will be assessed annually and will guide the operational planning process. The plan for excellence will be updated based on achievement of the goals and their continued relevance as new needs and opportunities arise.

Timeless Core Ideology

Core Purpose

To lead academic and research librarians and libraries in advancing learning and scholarship.

Core Organizational Values

ACRL is committed to:

- visionary leadership, transformation, new ideas, and global perspectives
- exemplary service to members
- equity, diversity, and inclusion
- integrity and transparency
- continuous learning
- responsible stewardship of resources
- the values of higher education, intellectual freedom, the ALA Ethics policy, and "The Library Bill of Rights"

Core Commitment

ACRL is dedicated to creating diverse and inclusive communities in the Association and in academic and research libraries. This core commitment permeates the work of the Association, cutting across all ACRL sections, committees, interest and discussion groups, and communities of practice. The Association will acknowledge and address historical racial inequities; challenge oppressive systems within academic libraries; value different ways of knowing; and identify and work to eliminate barriers to equitable services, spaces, resources, and scholarship.

Long-term Envisioned Future Vision

Academic and research librarians and libraries are essential to a thriving global community of learners and scholars.

Vivid Description of a Desired Future

ACRL elevates the position, recognition, and impact of all academic and research libraries and librarians as catalysts in exceptional research and learning. Academic libraries play a critical role in building diverse, welcoming, and equitable communities; developing inclusive organizations, spaces and services; guarding against policies and practices that intentionally or unintentionally create racial inequalities; embodying diversity in the profession; and creating conditions so that all users are respected and supported in their intellectual dialogues and pursuits. Librarians and their colleagues design services that provide scholars and learners the unfettered ability to create, access, evaluate, and use knowledge. College and university students are information literate, informed scholars and citizens who value the opinions, perspectives, and experiences of others. Facile use of information sources and discovery techniques enables them to succeed in their coursework and future careers preparing them to lead new national and global initiatives. Partnering with academic librarians to collect and organize research data, faculty break new ground in their respective fields. Academic libraries, constantly transforming to meet the evolving needs of their campuses, are central to educational and research efforts.

Board of Directors Action Form

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: ACRL Diversity Alliance program updates

Submitted by: José Aguiñaga & Annie Bélanger, co-chair, ACRL Diversity Alliance Task Force

Date submitted: May 19, 2022

Background

The ACRL Diversity Alliance Task Force (DATF) was charged with identifying “criteria and process for Diversity Alliance membership in the absence of a residency program” (Charge item 6). To this end, the DATF investigated options that might expand membership beyond large R1 institutions that have the capacity to offer Diversity Residencies. The Diversity Alliance Membership Levels (Doc 7.1) proposes one Foundational Commitment Level for institutions who are working to build an inclusive culture, and two Bridge Commitment Levels: Pre-Career BIPOC experiences (Practicums) for MLIS/MLS graduate students and Early Career BIPOC experiences (Diversity Residencies).

The membership proposal should be considered in relation to the future of the Diversity Alliance governance.

See accompanying proposal ACRL DA Membership Levels Proposal (Doc 5.1) and updated Letter of Commitment (Doc 5.2).

If approved, staff will update the Diversity Alliance membership with the following goals, which reflect the values of the proposed levels and letter of commitment:

In order to unite academic libraries committed to racial equity in their hiring and retention practices of qualified and talented individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups, the Diversity Alliance fosters the:

1. Increased adoption of inclusive employment and onboarding practices
2. Development of inclusive healthy workplace cultures that support BIPOC colleagues
3. Creation of paid positions with no required years of experience through early career diversity residencies and graduate student practicums

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder

4. Advancement of career path development of BIPOC early professionals
5. Building of professional network connections for BIPOC individuals
6. Retention of BIPOC librarians and archivists in the profession
7. Commitment of library leaders to the advancement of inclusive leadership and access to the profession

At the April 6, 2022 ACRL Spring Board Virtual Meeting, the DATF co-chairs, Aguiñaga and Bélanger, met with the Board to seek feedback on the proposed levels. Overall, the Board supported the proposed membership levels and expressed appreciation for the increased accountability.

Stakeholders

The task force was involved in the development and review of the proposed membership levels and updated letter of commitment. Based on a recommendation from the ACRL Board, feedback on the proposed levels was sought from non-R1 library workers.

Fiscal and Staffing Impact

If approved, staff will update the Diversity Alliance website and membership materials to reflect the new levels and to include the update letter of commitment. The two levels have the potential to expand the program to include institutions who previously were unable to commit to a full-time diversity resident. The proposed structure has a $250 membership fee for the Foundational Level and $500 for the Bridge Level.

Action Recommended

That the ACRL Board of Directors approves for the ACRL Diversity Alliance two new levels, Foundational and Bridge, and an updated Letter of Commitment.

ACRL Diversity Alliance (DA) Membership Proposal

March 18, 2022

Supported By ACRL Board: April 2022

Guiding Question

Hosting a Diversity Residency may only be possible for large institutions. How could smaller institutions participate in the Diversity Alliance?

Program Revision Goals

- Honor original intent of the DA while responding to ACRL Board request
- Limit duplication of effort across ACRL/ALA groups
- Limit additional investment of time/effort/workload on the part of DA members
- Build off the Residency Interest Group (RIG) Toolkit, the DA libguide, and existing resources
- Expand access to DA for a wider group of libraries
- Expand pre-career and early career work opportunities and development for BIPOC at a wider range of libraries

Recommendation Contingency

In order to accomplish the goals of the Diversity Alliance and ALA, activities require oversight, accountability, and support for the leaders who are committing to active progression towards an inclusive culture and BIPOC pre-career/early career work experiences. The DA Membership proposal should be considered in conjunction with report recommendations that the DA shift to a standing body to ensure consistent, stable governance for Diversity Alliance activities.

Glossary of Terms

Organizational Climate: Organizational climate is the perception of employees towards the formal policies of their employer and informal practices of their leadership; how employees within an organization experience the organization's culture

Organizational Culture: The collection of values, expectations, and practices that guide and inform the actions of all team members.

Inclusion: An environment in which all individuals are treated fairly and respectfully; are valued for their distinctive skills, experiences, and perspectives; have equal access to resources and opportunities; and can contribute fully to the organization's success. ### Request to Establish an ACRL Standing Committee

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: Request to establish the ACRL EDI Committee

Submitted by: José Aguiñaga & Annie Bélanger, co-chair, ACRL Diversity Alliance Task Force

Date submitted: June 3, 2022

Background

The ACRL Diversity Alliance program unites academic libraries committed to increasing the recruitment and retention of qualified and talented individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups. Established in 2017, the program has been overseen by two consecutive task forces, which are time-limited in nature. As membership has grown alongside the need to move from reflection to action in terms of inclusive cultures, the current Taskforce believes that an ACRL division-level standing committee is required to ensure oversight, developmental support, and accountability for member institutions' leaders and program coordinators.

Proposed Charge & Tasks

Charge:

The Diversity Alliance Committee oversees the ACRL Diversity Alliance program and works closely with ACRL staff to regularly evaluate program goals and materials; cultivate community and development among residency coordinators; foster engagement and support for residents in conjunction with the ACRL Residency Interest Group (RIG). Oversee and ensure accountability to Diversity Residents and for host institutions, their leaders, and their residency coordinators. Provides a reservoir of expertise and a knowledge base for diversity residents and institutions on relevant issues. Leverages a resident-centered frame in its work.

Specific Tasks (optional)

- Regularly reviews program goals, objectives and materials (including the Letter of Commitment, toolkit).

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder in hard copy.

- Provides and recommends up-to-date content and resources for residency coordinators. Works with staff to distribute new information through ALA Connect and/or the ACRL Diversity Alliance LibGuide.
- Assists staff in identifying current diversity residents to be shared with RIG for the purpose of outreach, sharing of resources, and to offer support
- Develops a process and works with staff to implement program assessment.
- Develops a process and works with staff to implement a plan of action for members who break their signed Letter of Commitment.
- Provides a reservoir of expertise and a knowledge base for diversity residents and institutions on issues such as best practices, inclusive hiring, onboarding, retention, inclusive leadership, and inclusive meeting facilitation.
- Develops and delivers professional development related to issues such as best practices, inclusive hiring, onboarding, retention, inclusive leadership, and inclusive meeting facilitation.
- Liaises with the ACRL Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee.

Proposed Membership

Specific Requirements of Membership Composition (optional):

- 1 Chair
- 1 Vice-Chair
- 2 members from the ACRL Residency Interest Group, who also act as Liaisons to RIG; will be made in consultation with RIG
- 1 ex-officio member who is a current member of the ACRL EDI Committee
- 1 Board liaison
- 1 Staff liaison
- Additional appointments at the discretion of the Vice-President/President-Elect and Appointments Committee.

It is desirable when feasible that a variety of institution types are represented on the committee, such as:

- 1 R1 Diversity Alliance member
- 1 non-R1 medium or large library Diversity Alliance member
- 1 non-R1 small library
- Representation from The National Associations of Librarians of Color (NALCo)

Stakeholders

The Diversity Alliance Task Force members reviewed and made recommendations on this request. The ACRL Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee was consulted on the structure and agreed the proposed committee should be its own standing committee. We recommend a strong liaison between the two committees.

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder

If approved, staff will update the ACRL Directory of Leadership and ALA membership materials. Staff will update the online appointments system to ensure members can volunteer in the next cycle (tentative launch date: December 2022). As this committee is being proposed mid-cycle, the ACRL President will complete appointments in summer 2022.

Board of Directors Action Form

To: ACRL Board of Directors

Subject: Cultural Proficiencies for Racial Equity: A Framework

Submitted by: Elizabeth Burns, ACRL Standards Committee Chair

Date submitted: May 18, 2022

Background

In September 2019, the American Library Association's Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS); Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL); Association of Research Libraries (ARL); and Public Library Association (PLA) announced the formation of the Building Cultural Proficiencies for Racial Equity Framework Task Force. The task force was charged to create a framework for cultural proficiencies in racial equity that can be used in public and academic libraries through: scanning the environment, including review of relevant documents (such as ACRL Diversity Standards: Cultural Competency for Academic Libraries) to identify literature and similar statements and frameworks related to racial equity; drafting the framework; seeking comment from stakeholders and the library community on the draft; and revising as needed.

The task force developed a logic model, with facilitation by Katherine Skinner, executive director of the Educopia Institute. In May 2021, Christina Fuller-Gregory, assistant director of libraries at the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities, joined the task force to build on the logic model, as well as an environmental scan and findings from a cross-sector survey, to lead the framework development. As a result of this process, the task force developed an initial draft framework that includes an introduction, four frames, a glossary, and resources for further reading.

Status updates on the development of the draft framework were held at the ACRL 2021 Virtual Conference in April 2021 and at the ALA Annual Virtual Conference in June 2021.

Electronic submission is preferred for all Board actions. If electronic submission of the entire document is not possible, please send the Action Form to ACRL Program Officer Allison Payne electronically at apayne@ala.org and the remainder in hard copy.

A final draft framework was made available for public comment through a Word Press CommentPress installation in January 2022. The call for comments was promoted through ACRL Insider, social media, the ACRL Update newsletter, and through an ALA press release. The other partner associations additionally promoted the call through their channels. Additional details on the feedback process are available in the attached Standards Transmittal Form.

Following the close of the comment period, the task force reviewed and incorporated feedback for the final draft framework. Now that the framework is finalized, it will go through the approval process for adoption by the four organizations, ACRL, ARL, ALA, and PLA.

The Standards Committee approved the final framework in May 2022 and recommends that the Board of Directors rescind the 2012 “Diversity Standards: Cultural Competency for Academic Libraries” as part of the approval process. While the new “Cultural Proficiencies for Racial Equity: A Framework” document wasn’t developed as a linear one-to-one revision of the “Diversity Standards,” it represents an updated approach to the same topics.

Addendum 2: Glossary & Resources for Further Reading

Introduction: This framework has been developed as a tool both theoretical and practical in its orientation, as a guide for developing personal, organizational, institutional, and systems-level knowledge and understanding of the nature of racism and its many manifestations. Racism results in differential, inequitable, and devastating impacts on Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) in the library and information science (LIS) sector, the communities libraries serve, and beyond. The framework is not intended to be liberatory practice in itself,--an instrument or agent that will abolish racial inequity or a step-by-step guide--but, rather to provide the grounding needed to effect change in thinking, behavior, and practice that will lead to better outcomes for racialized and minoritized populations. Therefore, while the framework offers examples of implementation, these are not meant to represent an exhaustive list. Although the LIS sector cannot, on its own, solve the problem of racism in society, it can acknowledge the role it has played in contributing to and sustaining systems of inequity and oppression of communities of color, and own the responsibility for countering its effects, both historically and today. And while we acknowledge the global impacts of racism, for the purposes of this framework, we will specifically address the impacts of racism in both the United States and Canada.

We acknowledge that Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) -centered language is frequently evolving and rooted in identity to include intersecting identities.

The primary focus of this framework is on racial inequity, but it would be remiss to neglect the ways in which white supremacy works based on interlocking systems of oppression, such as sexism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia, and others. These systems work in tandem to create intricate layers of oppressive tactics; as such, in order to be fully committed to racial equity, it is necessary to understand the intersectionality of these systems and to address them while working to enhance racial equity in libraries.

The authors of this framework aim to use language that is as universal as possible, but EDI-centered language in particular is frequently evolving and rooted in identity. As such, disagreement on language usage is natural. In many ways, the language that is used in this framework reflects the unique positionalities of the people who are writing it as well as the contemporary moment in which it is written. This framework is intended to be a living document with language updates made as necessary- at a time and by individuals to be determined by the sponsoring organizations.

1. Addressing and Interrogating How White Supremacy, White Privilege and Racism Show Up in Libraries.

Engaging in antiracism is multifaceted. Understanding core ideas around racial equity is one of the first steps to laying a strong foundation for racial equity work and allows us to take individual actions into a holistic practice.

1.1 Understanding Historical Inequities

The phenomenon of racism is not new, but rather is rooted in an historical trajectory of oppression and discrimination (based on racial/ethnic identity) that has its roots in imperialism and colonialism, and which has been supported by policies, misleading science, laws, norms, and religion for centuries. In order to understand the degree to which racism and white supremacy are embedded in contemporary systems, it is necessary to understand how systems of inequity have created and sustained disadvantage for BIPOC populations while rewarding those who identify as majority, or “white” with often unrecognized, unearned advantages. This system of white supremacy is rooted in a fabricated hierarchy of human value based on race and manifests even within communities of color. Recognizing that institutions such as slavery and colonialism have played out differently within the US and Canada, the resulting inequities and their impacts are consistent across those borders and are evidenced by disparate outcomes for BIPOC populations as they navigate threats to their survival via social systems (healthcare, education, criminal justice, housing, etc.).

Framework Implementation Example: Employees and patrons of a public library system in Ontario participate in the KAİROS Blanket Exercise to gain greater understanding of the history of oppression and genocide experienced by Indigenous populations in Canada.

1.2 Methodologies for Self Assessment - Fundamental (Adjacent to Historical Inequities)

Including self-assessment in antiracist work is critical to the success of antiracist practice. Because society is built upon systems that work to minoritize many people, individuals have been conditioned to practice implicit, internalized forms of racism that we need to address. Including self-assessment allows us to identify power and privilege in the LIS profession.

Framework Implementation Example: Library staff can take any of the Implicit Association Tests (IAT) related to race/ethnicity provided by Project Implicit at Harvard University. Please note that the purpose of IAT is to measure associations, both positive and negative, toward specific groups and identities. It is not intended to predict behavioral bias. More information can be found on the IAT's website listed in the resource section.

1.3 Libraries & Racial Equity

The history of Libraries and the LIS profession cannot be told without acknowledging and addressing an origin story that was built on a foundation of exclusion, not inclusion, homogeneity, not diversity. Reverberations of these inequities must be acknowledged as BIPOC individuals continue to experience the residual harm of this past. Even as physical structures in the early 20th century were built to provide library services to People of Color, the “Separate but equal” doctrine was applied at whim in tandem with governmental policies of the time that segregated, excluded, and harmed these communities. As LIS workers, our foundational growth is strengthened by an ability to identify and acknowledge ways in which whiteness and white supremacy have impacted the field of librarianship. Beyond this, Libraries and LIS workers must actively engage in practices that address and redress these inequities.

Framework Implementation Example: Conduct a policy audit to gauge whether your library’s policies are having a differential impact on communities of color. While outside of the LIS field, the City of Seattle’s Race and Social Justice Initiative developed a toolkit that outlines a process for assessing whether a potential policy will have negative effects on BIPOC communities. The toolkit can be easily adapted for the LIS profession.

I.4 The Language of Racial Equity & White Supremacy

The process of learning, understanding, and thinking critically about EDI terminology creates a consistency around shared language. Developing a common understanding of core constructs such as racial identity, systemic racism, structural racism, equity, inclusion, diversity, and social justice- along with internalized oppression and antiracism, is a necessary step in advancing racial equity.

Framework Implementation Example: Host a forum in your library where employees research glossaries from anti-racist organizations to develop a list of terms and phrases related to racial equity and build consensus around those definitions for the community.

I.5. The Competency Continuum

Libraries should approach racial equity and other types of EDI work not as an end but as a practice, understanding that racial equity work is an iterative process during which we are re-learning, re-envisioning, and rebuilding. As understanding evolves and contexts and vocabulary change, libraries must reassess and revisit their practices to ensure they remain relevant, fulfill their objective, and do not cause harm. To this end libraries need to have a clear and realistic plan to evaluate cultural competencies* within their organizations and must demonstrate openness to critically look inward and make the necessary changes. Libraries must actively interrogate their practices at all levels (individual, interpersonal, organizational, structural), and continually explore how power is held and granted within their organizations to ensure an equitable distribution.

This process is reflected in the competency continuum illustrated in Figure 1, below. The diagram shows four broad categories for approaching the work moving from an awareness of the concept of racial identity (its historical, social construction, its development as a strategy to divide cross-racial alliances who were organizing for labor solidarity in colonial times), to understanding the contemporary manifestations or realizations of racism (e.g. anti-Black racism, mass incarceration, Indigenous invisibility). From understanding of how racism shows up historically and contemporaneously, we move to analyze the profound impacts of racism on communities of color, e.g. in disparities in access to quality healthcare, the “achievement gap” in education, the lack of generational wealth for communities of color, or the lack of representation in the library sector. Once we fully understand these principles, we can begin to explore the strategies--the behavioral, policy, and systems changes--that will bring about greater racial equity.

* Please note that “competency” in this context does not mean that there is an ending to this process. The medical field has coined the term “cultural humility” to reflect an ongoing commitment to life-long learning, acknowledging and accepting our own limitations to cultural sensitivity, and recognizing power imbalances that exist in institutions and systems. The term “competency” is used above, with acknowledgement of both its ubiquity and its limitations.

Framework Implementation Example : Develop strategies that support your organization in moving beyond cultural competence (attending a single training, or reading a few journals/articles that discuss EDI) to cultural fluency (an on-going, sustained process that allows for continued growth and deeper understanding).

2. Accountability, Assessment, and Implementation

In order to engage in antiracist practices, libraries and library workers must hold themselves accountable individually, organizationally, and structurally. Effective accountability uses assessment methods to evaluate and guide where resources and energy should be directed.

2.1. Antiracist Objectives and Organization Strategies for Libraries

Libraries, their workers, and the communities that they serve are all unique, as are their needs. It is for this reason that there is not a singular plan or path that all libraries and library workers can use for assessment and accountability. Each individual, organization, and library must do the work to map out how assessment and accountability works best in their contexts. While there is no singular path forward, there are components each individual and organization should consider in order to implement change. Below are a set of key components needed for successful assessment and accountability measures.

Framework Implementation Example: Start by assessing your organization's understanding of EDI by reviewing and completing the 2021 Equity Scorecard for Libraries and Information Organizations.

2.2 Hiring, Retention, and Advancement

For decades, the library profession has viewed and used “diversity” or “minority” recruitment as the principal strategy for addressing the lack of representation of minoritized racial/ethnic populations in the profession. Numerous library associations (i.e. the American Library Association and the Association of Research Libraries), as well as several library and information science programs throughout the US and Canada, have long histories of hosting recruitment and career developmental programs which, in spite of some valid critique in the literature, have yielded some benefits to the participants in the programs, the associations that host them, and the profession at large. However, with rare exception and in spite of millions of dollars of investment over time, these programs have done little more than maintain stasis with respect to representation of BIPOC individuals in the LIS workforce. Strategies to retain BIPOC employees are anecdotal and are not readily found in the literature. To some degree, advancement has been addressed—at least in the academic library sector—through leadership development programs for early- and mid-career librarians, but participation in such programs is mostly limited to employees of well-resourced institutions. Libraries, library organizations, and the profession at large must remain committed to collecting demographic information about the workforce, but must also adjust categories as constructs change with respect to racial/ethnic identity. Additionally, the LIS profession must develop systematic approaches to measuring the climate of the workplace for employees from minoritized populations. This requires the disaggregation of data and the ability of leaders and managers to accept feedback without judgment, defensiveness, or retaliation, and that they act on the input provided by measuring climate systematically (at regular intervals) and creating interventions that will improve the experiences, engagement, and the sense of belonging for employees from racialized identities. Evaluation, retention, or advancement processes should include the consideration of whether such policies have greater differential impact (short- or long-term) on employees of color than on those from majority populations.

Furthermore, data must be collected and tracked concerning the opportunities for leadership and development that are provided to library employees from minoritized groups in order to identify access gaps and uncover opportunities for improvement within organizations. Processes must be employed to help managers and supervisors analyze and track bias when assigning leadership tasks, stretch assignments, or other career-enhancing opportunities. The LIS profession must track the representation of minoritized individuals in leadership and managerial roles, whether titular roles in organizations (managers, directors, supervisors, team-leaders, etc.) or comparable roles in civic organizations, associations, professional communities of practice, and other contexts where communities of color have not had, historically, access to power, resources, or opportunities to advocate for themselves or for other marginalized people.

Framework Implementation Example: Move beyond traditional evaluative methods used for all staff to develop specialized 'temperature check' opportunities for BIPOC staff. Offered in the form of safe space conversations or anonymous surveys, temperature check questions and conversations should be used to inform and improve policies and practices that prevent BIPOC staff from finding earned success in their roles.

2.3 Strategic Planning

The work of racial equity requires that individuals and organizations not only examine the past and understand the degree to which policies and practices have created and sustained an inequitable present, but also create strategies for reenvisioning and creating a more equitable future. Traditional strategic planning processes often do not accommodate full integration of goals and objectives that advance racial equity without the explicit naming of it as an organizational and/or institutional priority. Therefore, strategic planning must articulate the development, implementation, iteration, and measurement of changes to policies, procedures, and behaviors that specifically address racial equity. Strategic plans that center racial equity are rooted in accountability and marked by an actualization of successful processes and outcomes. Conversely, a failure to identify racial equity as an organizational priority may be ineffective in creating change.

Framework Implementation Example: Strategic plans shouldn't be developed in a silo. Find ways to include the perspectives of BIPOC staff in the development of an inclusive strategic plan. If your staff is largely homogenous, find ways to turn outward and engage community members in the planning process.

2.4. Policies, Procedures, and Norms

Many of the policies, procedures, and norms employed and enforced in libraries are rooted in white supremacy, and are often exclusionary to BIPOC individuals. This stems from the fact that in most settings, including libraries, cultural practices associated with “whiteness” are normalized and considered the standard or expected behaviors. As a result, policies, procedures, and norms meant to fix a problem or improve access and service, can cause harm for BIPOC communities. While not necessarily intentional, this harm emerges as a result of organizations implementing policies without considering how they will affect the different and diverse populations they serve.

Examples include:

- Both physical police presence and internal policies that negatively impact patrons;
- Inconsistent policies around library spaces that may consciously/unconsciously create barriers to service for BIPOC communities;
- Descriptive/metadata practices that use offensive or pejorative/outdated terms;
- Library Fines & Fees;
- Requiring ID in order to access library services;
- Overemphasizing academic credentials in the hiring process.

Therefore, libraries must assess policies and procedures through a lens of racial equity to identify if and how they are causing harm to BIPOC patrons and employees. To this end, they should always consider the possible unintended consequences or adverse impacts a policy, procedure, or norm could have, which racial or ethnic groups could be affected by it, and what can be done to minimize or prevent negative consequences or impacts.

Framework Implementation Example: Before implementing new policies, procedures, and norms, administrators would consult with a diverse group of stakeholders to assess any potentially harmful consequences.

2.5. Sharing the Work: BIPOC Communities and Allies

The burden of equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) work, including racial equity, often falls on members of minoritized communities: Black, Indigenous, and People of Color, people with disabilities, and members of the LGBTQIA2S+ community. While it is important to have members of these communities engaged in the work of EDI committees, working groups, or task forces, they should not be the only ones in them. Trying to ease the burden on minoritized communities by having only allies work on these groups is also faulty as it does not take into account the perspective of these communities. Therefore, successful, useful, and equitable racial equity work requires participation by BIPOC individuals and their allies. In addition to easing the burden off BIPOC employees, mixed participation ensures buy-in from multiple sectors and a sense of collective ownership, accountability, and responsibility.

Framework Implementation Example: Coalition building is central to moving the work forward. Examples of this include REFORMA, BCALA, and APALA statements in support of Black Lives Matter and their work speaking out against violence being perpetuated against Asian communities.

2.6 Accountability in Racial Equity Work

Racial equity working groups, committees, or task forces must have a clear scope and mandate as well as accountability mechanisms to ensure equity, transparency, and trust within their organizations. They must also employ equitable practices in areas like decision-making (e.g. consensus building), discussions (e.g. adjusting to different styles of communication), membership composition, and duration of terms.

Regardless of the composition of the committee, working group, or task force, it is imperative that proper compensation is offered to the members. Compensation can take different forms, including financial compensation, promotion, or a redistribution of responsibilities to provide those working in EDI with the time and space they require to do the work. This not only removes the burden of EDI work and makes it equitable, it also denotes that the organization considers the work as necessary as all the other duties and responsibilities that help the organization meet its strategic goals.

Framework Implementation Example: Organizations structure racial equity and EDI committees using the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committees: Getting Started Guide—UBC Equity & Inclusion Office.

2.7. Solidarity and Librarianship

The act of solidarity requires moments of stasis and movement. The practice of solidarity in libraries can be characterized by acknowledging the ways in which library policies, programs, services, and internal structures cause harm to BIPOC communities, and by actively identifying systems and structures for mitigating these harms. Solidarity in libraries is also circumstantial, requiring organizations to develop action plans in support of when and how to act as a vocal amplifier for underrepresented or minoritized voices. It is equally important that within the scope of these considerations, libraries understand when to remain silent, effectual listeners who recognize and respect the importance of providing space for BIPOC stakeholders (internal and external) to speak, be heard, and guide conversations. Of critical importance is the understanding that solidarity is not performative, experimental, or rooted in expectancy; rather, it is the sincere demonstration of libraries' authentic interest in protecting BIPOC communities.

Framework Implementation Example: Commit to providing space in conversations (whether casual, in the workplace, etc.) where the voices of BIPOC people are centered and prioritized.

This includes listening for and amplifying those messages that may be hidden, ignored, or suppressed.

2.8 Power Relationships Within the Field

Racial equity can only be realized when power differentials between BIPOC and white individuals are equalized and when communities of color have the agency, rights, opportunities, and access to resources to ensure that they can thrive. Historical and systemic inequalities exist and must be deliberately addressed and remedied. This process is facilitated by ceding power and providing opportunities for BIPOC individuals to develop and cultivate power. This can only be accomplished by guaranteeing that minoritized populations will have a significant role in envisioning and implementing their desired future if they so choose. Ways in which power differentials show up in everyday practice and which must be countered at a systemic level include:

- Power structures within work distribution (ability to work from home);
- Overrepresentation of people from majority cultures/identities in manager roles;
- Examining what is considered “canon” in material resources;
- Power one holds in deciding whether to commit to equity work (it's a luxury for some).

Framework Implementation Example: Do not be complicit in the silencing of BIPOC cohorts. Use your power and privilege to amplify and give credit to the work of BIPOC contributors.

3. Building Cross-Sector Cultural Proficiency- Influencing and Affecting Change in Other Professional, Civic, Political Spheres.

Libraries, archives, museums, and other cultural heritage organizations do not operate in a vacuum, or in silos. They are inextricably connected to communities whether neighborhoods, schools, colleges and universities, corporations, civic entities and beyond. They serve as microcosms of broader systems and structures and, therefore, can and should serve as models for developing and implementing transformative policies and practices that will lead to greater racial equity.

3.1 Civic

Public libraries, for example, can serve as models for civic entities with respect to the hiring and retention of a diverse workforce. Academic libraries can take the lead on campuses for developing transformative practices in climate assessment, as well as analysis of institutional policies for their impact on minoritized employees. Moreover, libraries and adjacent professional sectors should seek out opportunities to collaborate with other professional sectors such as corporations, K-12 education, health and human services sectors, and governmental agencies to develop strategies for addressing inequities, whether that be in employment opportunities, representation in collections and programming, or other intersecting domains. Cross-sector collaborations will have greater impact on communities of color and will develop champions for the LIS profession from a broad range of stake-holder groups.

Framework Implementation Example: Public libraries provide a space and resources for community discussions on racism and racial equity, inviting civic leaders, K-12 educators, religious leaders, those from the health services sector, and others who serve communities of color.

3.2 Information

As leaders in collecting, storing, and disseminating information, librarians and library workers must support all patrons by building inclusive collections, classifying materials appropriately by centering minoritized communities, and disseminating useful information to under-resourced communities. This set of best practices, however, must also be proactively shared and encouraged among other sectors.

Framework Implementation Example: Libraries of all types are developing and conducting diversity audits to ensure that their collections or resources represent a broad range of authors from diverse racial/ethnic identities. Numerous library workers are conducting these audits in tandem with analysis of subject headings and metadata to ensure that resources are classified appropriately.

3.3 Corporations

Libraries and library consortia spend millions of dollars on services and products provided by vendors. Libraries can use their purchasing power to promote cross-sector collaboration in racial equity by refusing to engage in business with companies whose practices are antithetical to racial equity.

Examples of this include:

- Vendors profiting from the work of incarcerated or detained individuals.
- Companies that engage in user surveillance.
- Businesses whose products could cause harm to BIPOC individuals (i.e. artificial intelligence solutions that are mainly “trained” with white individuals).

Framework Implementation Example: Libraries can create and apply ethical and sustainable vendor guidelines and checklists when deciding to purchase new products and services.

4. Antiracist Leadership

Libraries and archives have an opportunity to serve as exemplars to other professions in building and sustaining antiracist climates, cultures, and practices, but must commit to the work of internal and systems change in the process. Antiracist leadership acknowledges the degree to which white supremacy culture is embedded in every aspect of our profession, and works deliberately and constructively to question dominant cultural norms and counter them when they are negatively impacting or harming communities of color. Leaders must understand that differential outcomes for BIPOC individuals are not a product of inherent deficits to those communities, but rather are an outcome of problematic systems that create a legacy of advantage for people from majority cultures and identities, or for those who acquiesce to the phenomenon of assimilation. Leaders who are committed to social justice work- create environments where minoritized communities have agency to realize their full potential, countering--if not working to eliminate--oppressive systems and practices. Anti-racist leaders both outwardly and behind the scenes encourage and support equity efforts from groups and individuals within their organizations, and champion efforts even in the face of controversy. Moreover, leaders committed to racial equity recognize that solutions to systemic problems require proximity to and strategies that are focused on the challenges at hand. Effective leaders should acknowledge the importance of intersectionality and realize that coalescing around an antiracist agenda will have benefits for other marginalized groups and society at large. In addition, leaders must cultivate a comfort level with controversy so as to support the challenging conversations that are unavoidable when one is committed to antiracist work. Transformative leaders cultivate and sustain the work of collective action, building alliances with other groups, organizations, and sectors committed to racial equity. (Museus)

4.1. The Interconnectedness of Libraries and the Larger Institutions of ALA/ARL

The American Library Association (ALA) and the Association of Research Libraries (ARL), have long espoused commitments to equity, diversity, and inclusion. Within the last 25 years, millions of dollars of US federal grants have been secured by these and other organizations, and individuals, corporations, and institutions have committed significant funding to largely support diversity recruitment efforts. Significantly fewer resources have been dedicated to leadership development efforts for BIPOC populations in LIS. In addition, library and archive associations have convened numerous events- conferences, webinars, and other professional development and community-building activities – as well as published a great deal on the topic over the last several years, but particularly since May of 2020. While some progress has been realized through these efforts, the profession has not seen substantive change as evidenced by demographic statistics (i.e. higher BIPOC representation) within the workforce. Core to the challenge is that libraries, whether public, academic, school, or special, are situated within larger structures founded upon principles and histories of white supremacy with generations of policies and practices that were exclusionary in their intent. Often library boards, university boards of trustees, and other leadership entities articulate values in support of antiracist or EDI agendas but fail to set policy, fail to allocate resources, or otherwise display behaviors and actions that are inconsistent with those commitments. An additional challenge is that no library type or category is monolithic; each organization or institution is unique with distinct missions to diverse stakeholders and, therefore, strategies for addressing racial inequity must be customized and be responsive to those needs. Conversely, messaging and approaches are often inconsistent and diffuse, without a collective voice or a common vision. Developing consistency in vocabulary, communication, strategies, and vision will help to establish universal goals that have the potential to create deeper and enduring change for the profession.

Libraries operate independently and are not accountable to one another or to larger institutions like ALA/ARL. As such, these and similar associations lack the ability to mandate wide-spread change in the field. However, there are other ways in which larger associations can model commitment to anti-racist work, influence organization and policy, and provide mechanisms to support collective action. In this way, organizations large and small can explore what contributions they can make that will advance racial equity within their communities. While anti-racist leadership can and should come from anywhere within an organization, professional associations like ALA and ARL greatly influence the LIS sector's attitudes, priorities, and behaviors and can lead as they set policy and model efforts to advance racial equity.

Framework Implementation Example: Associations could begin by collecting and publishing relevant statistics (e.g. disaggregated demographic data, equity audits of collections, retention statistics of BIPOC employees) or include racial equity as a component of accreditation rubrics.

4.2 . Role of the Member- Advancing Member Impact

In order to benefit from participation in ALA/ARL, and other library associations, it is imperative that library workers understand that while these larger institutions often influence and inform our work, we should not be solely reliant upon them to move this work forward. The responsibility for educating ourselves about racial equity and upholding systems of accountability falls on us as individuals and as a collective, with deep implications for the workplace and our communities. It is important to remember that each person, regardless of title or position, has the power to influence their community by modeling antiracist practices, advocating for BIPOC communities, and becoming actively involved in committee work, leadership, and governance of library associations.

Framework Implementation Example: When voting for new leadership members can choose to prioritize candidates from minoritized communities or those whose candidate statements clearly mention racial equity and EDI as a priority.

Addendum 1: Background of the Framework

In September 2019 the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL), along with ALA's Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS); the Public Library Association (PLA); and the Association of Research Libraries (ARL) formed the Building Cultural Proficiencies for Racial Equity Framework Task Force with the goal of developing a cultural proficiencies in racial equity framework.

As a result of extensive planning and research, including an environmental scan, development of a logic mode, and cross-sector survey, the CPRE Task Force has developed the Building Cultural Proficiencies for Racial Equity framework. The framework is designed to provide a comprehensive set of steps and best practices that inform EDI-centered library work. Rooted in an approach that engages institutions of all types, the framework provides action steps for coalescing EDI engagement, whether those efforts are informal grassroots, formal initiatives, or in the initial planning stages.

Glossary

Anti-Racism

"The work of actively opposing racism by advocating for changes in political, economic, and social life. Anti-racism tends to be an individualized approach, and set up in opposition to individual racist behaviors and impacts." (Race Forward 2015)

Antiracism is an approach to racial equity that begins with the assumption that all races are equal and not in need of development as a whole. It suggests that racial injustices are a result of racist policies, intentional or unintentional, and that racial equity can only come through deliberate changes in political, economic, and social structures. Antiracism implies something beyond being "not racist," and requires a more active opposition to racist structures through action.

Anti-Racist

"An anti-racist is someone who is supporting an antiracist policy through their actions or expressing antiracist ideas. This includes the expression of ideas that racial groups are equals and do not need developing, and supporting policies that reduce racial inequity." (Racial Equity Tools 2020; summarized from Kendi 2019)

Colonialism

Colonialism refers to domination through economic, political, and social policies or ideologies, especially by a non-indigenous people over indigenous, minority, or marginalized populations.

"Colonialism is a practice of domination, which involves the subjugation of one people to another." (Kohn and Reddy 2017)

"Colonialism can refer to a transnational process of domination, the policies by which it is carried out, and the ideologies that underwrite it." (Ramanath 2012)

In the Americas, colonialism refers to the invasion and large-scale theft of Indigenous lands by European powers, and the continuing domination of those lands and peoples through economic, political, and social policies or ideologies (adapted from Waziyatan 2014)

Diversity

Can refer to a range of differences between people that may include race, gender, sexual orientation, class, age, education, religion, language, culture, and physical or cognitive abilities. It may also include different ideas, perspectives, and values. In the context of institutions, organizations, or communities, it may refer to representation of these differences within the group, the active presence of different voices and perspectives, or the valuing of these differences as part of the culture. It is a necessary, but not sufficient step towards "Equity."

Equity

"Equity means fairness and justice and focuses on outcomes that are most appropriate for a given group, recognizing different challenges, needs, and histories. It is distinct from diversity, which can simply mean variety (the presence of individuals with various identities). It is also not equality, or "same treatment," which doesn't take differing needs or disparate outcomes into account. Systemic equity involves a robust system and dynamic process consciously designed to create, support and sustain social justice." (Race Forward 2015)

Imperialism

A system of oppression that relies on nations exerting power and dominion over another nation or group either by direct territorial acquisitions or indirectly by exerting control over their political, economic, or cultural life.

Inclusion

"Inclusion means an environment in which all individuals are treated fairly and respectfully; are valued for their distinctive skills, experiences, and perspectives; have equal access to resources and opportunities; and can contribute fully to the organization's success. (Adapted from Society for Human Resources Management, Hewlett Packard, and Ferris State University)" and (Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services 2017)

"Being included within a group or structure. More than simply diversity and quantitative representation, inclusion involves authentic and empowered participation, with a true sense of belonging and full access to opportunities." (Race Forward 2015)

Internalized Racism

"Internalized racism is the situation that occurs in a racist system when a racial group oppressed by racism supports the supremacy and dominance of the dominating group by maintaining or participating in the set of attitudes, behaviors, social structures, and ideologies that undergird the dominating group's power. It involves four essential and interconnected elements:

1. Decision-making - Due to racism, people of color do not have the ultimate decision-making power over the decisions that control our lives and resources. As a result, on a personal level, we may think white people know more about what needs to be done for us than we do. On an interpersonal level, we may not support each other's authority and power – especially if it is in opposition to the dominating racial group. Structurally, there is a system in place that rewards people of color who support white supremacy and power and coerces or punishes those who do not.
2. Resources - Resources, broadly defined (e.g. money, time, etc), are unequally in the hands and under the control of white people. Internalized racism is the system in place that makes it difficult for people of color to get access to resources for our own communities and to control the resources of our community. We learn to believe that serving and using resources for ourselves and our particular community is not serving "everybody."
3. Standards - With internalized racism, the standards for what is appropriate or "normal" that people of color accept are white people's or Eurocentric standards. We have difficulty naming, communicating and living up to our deepest standards and values, and holding ourselves and each other accountable to them.

4. Naming the problem - There is a system in place that misnames the problem of racism as a problem of or caused by people of color and blames the disease – emotional, economic, political, etc. – on people of color. With internalized racism, people of color might, for example, believe we are more violent than white people and not consider state-sanctioned political violence or the hidden or privatized violence of white people and the systems they put in place and support." (Bivens 1995)

Liberatory Practice

Liberation is the act of freeing people from forms of oppression on the individual and societal levels resulting in "relationships, societies, communities, organizations, and collective spaces characterized by equity, fairness, and the implementation of systems for the allocation of goods, services, benefits, and rewards that support the full participation of each human and the promotion of their full humanness." (Love, DeJong, and Hughbanks 2007). According to Paulo Freire (2000), liberation is not an end but "a reflection and action directed at the structures to be transformed."

Liberatory practice and work then represent the process of reflection and action combined with engagement in concrete liberation-inducing or liberatory behaviors that lead to societal and individual transformation (Love, DeJong, and Hughbanks 2007).

LGBTQIA2S+

Acronym for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and/or Questioning, Intersex, Asexual, Two-Spirit, and the many different affirmative ways in which people choose to self-identify.

Minoritized

"The term, 'minoritized,' unlike 'minority' calls attention to the institutional processes through which religious, racial, and cultural groups are rendered into a minority rather than presuming this status based on prior or inherent identity." (Shalabi 2014)

Minoritized refers to "the social construction of underrepresentation and subordination in US social institutions." . . . "Persons are not born into a minority status, nor are they minoritized in every social context (e.g., their families, racially homogenous friendship groups, or places of worship). Instead, they are rendered minorities in particular situations and institutional environments that sustain an overrepresentation of Whiteness" (p.9). (Harper 2012)

Racial Identity

Racial Identity is the psychological sense of belonging perceived by oneself and others based on membership in existing racial categories. Racial identities often involve a sense of shared culture and history with others from a particular racial group, although this is not a necessary condition for all forms of racial identity.

Racial identities function at both the individual and the societal levels. For individuals, racial identities often provide a sense of group belonging as well as shared cultures and beliefs. When individuals talk about their racial identity, they often are referring to some level of connection, shared experience, and/or commonality between themselves and other members of their racial group. It is the perceived connection between members of the racial group that forms the content and meaning of racial identities ("Racial Identity" 2012).

"Racial identity is externally imposed: 'How do others perceive me?'. Racial identity is also internally constructed: 'How do I identify myself?' (National Museum for African American History and Culture, n.d.)

Racialized/Racialization

The social construction of race. To be racialized is to be defined by one's race. A social construction of races as "different and unequal in ways that matter to economic, political and social life" ("Racialization" 2008; Ontario Human Rights Commission, n.d.).

Racism

Generally means believing that a person's behavior is determined by stable inherited characteristics deriving from separate racial stocks; each of these distinctive attributes is then evaluated in relation to ideas of superiority and inferiority. This implies that there is a social construction in which certain groups of people are superior to others. This social construction is the result of social, economic, and political factors that have ascribed power to some groups, while leaving others powerless ("Racism" 2008).

"a doctrine that holds that the world's human population consists of various "races" that are the primary determinants of human traits and capacities. This doctrine typically regards one's own race as superior to other races" (Pettigrew 2020)

Social Justice

Social justice focuses on power dynamics among different groups of people while acknowledging historical and institutional inequities. It has a vision of a society with equitable distribution of resources, in which "all members are physically and psychologically safe and secure, recognized, and treated with respect." (Adams, et al. 2016)

“Researching and addressing the distributions of the social common good through the lens of historical power structures and social norms. Promoting just and equitable outcomes.” (University of Minnesota College of Education and Human Development n.d.)

Structural Racism

“A system in which public policies, institutional practices, cultural representations, and other norms work in various, often reinforcing ways to perpetuate racial group inequity. It identifies dimensions of our history and culture that have allowed privileges associated with ‘whiteness’ and disadvantages associated with ‘color’ to endure and adapt over time. Structural racism is not something that a few people or institutions choose to practice. Instead it has been a feature of the social, economic and political systems in which we all exist.” (The Aspen Institute n.d.)

“the historical and contemporary policies, practices, and norms that create and maintain white supremacy” (The Urban Institute n.d.)

Systemic Racism

In some cases, systemic racism is used interchangeably with structural racism or institutional racism.

“Systemic racism includes: recurrent individual mistreatment; exclusionary or harmful institutional policies and practices; and broader societal and intergenerational injustice.” (Sheppard, et al. 2020)

“societal or organizational structures and policies that privilege one race over another” (Nelson 2021)

White Supremacy

White supremacy is a term used to characterize various belief systems central to which are one or more of the following key tenets: 1) whites should have dominance over people of other backgrounds, especially where they may co-exist; 2) whites should live by themselves in a whites-only society; 3) white people have their own "culture" that is superior to other cultures; 4) white people are genetically superior to other people” (Anti-Defamation League n.d.).

A historically based, institutionally perpetuated system of exploitation and oppression of continents, nations, and peoples of color by white peoples and nations of the European continent, for the purpose of maintaining and defending a system of wealth, power, and privilege (Martinez 1998).

Whiteness

The result of a social and cultural process that situates White people in a place of power and privilege because of their skin color and White racial identity...There is more to whiteness than White identity and racial privilege, however; it relates to a system and process that keeps those who are in dominant positions from recognizing or understanding how inequalities and racism operate in society ("Whiteness" 2008).

Though the term invokes ideas related to skin color, whiteness refers more specifically to a structural position—that is, to a racialized social identity that is positioned as superior relative to other "races" within a system of racial hierarchy. Indeed, because race is socially constructed—and not biological—whiteness can be understood as the result of social and cultural processes, rooted in a global history of European colonialism, imperialism, and transatlantic slavery, and maintained today through various institutions, ideologies, and everyday social practices (Cancelmo and Mueller 2019)

ACRL FY23 Budget Overview

The FY23 budget (Doc 9.1) was developed by staff based on the FY23 budget assumptions (Doc 11.0) that were reviewed and approved by the ACRL Budget & Finance Committee and ACRL Board of Directors in Fall 2021. The Board and Budget & Finance Committee typically review the preliminary budget in January and take action at ALA's Annual Meeting. The Board and B&F will review at Annual and have the option to postpone taking action until late summer. Please note that after Budget and Finance and the Board had reviewed the preliminary budget, and after all ALA had units submitted their budgets, ALA requested that units deduct discretionary expenses so that the ALA budget showed a slight surplus. ALA directed ACRL to deduct $219,438. Some of these deductions are mentioned below.

ACRL's finances are treated as a two-year cycle: even-numbered fiscal years are expected to have some deficit (some of which covers the planning expenses for the next ACRL Conference), whereas odd-numbered fiscal years would typically, but not always, show net revenues that cover all planning expenses from the previous year, as well as excess revenues to support member programs and services. It is important to note that excess revenues grew to such an extent (these operating reserves have grown to almost $4.7M in FY2018), that the Board launched a 5-year plan, where these NABs would be used to launch initiatives and to offset costs. And while the NABs exist on paper, the ALA launched a working group several years ago to examine the operating agreement between the divisions and ALA and the future of the divisions' NABs is uncertain, calling into question whether or not we can draw on NABs to cover deficits. Budgeting for FY23 is further complicated because it is difficult to predict how major revenue streams, such as the biennial conference, will perform.

Net Asset Balance

As mentioned above, to better situate a discussion of preliminary FY23 revenues and expenses, let's consider the FY23 ending net asset balance (NAB), which is also called the Operating Reserve. These funds represent budget surpluses that have accumulated over the years. These surpluses arose from successful biennial conferences, from frugality brought on by the Great Recession of 2008, and from other savings measures. In the preliminary budget the opening net asset balance is $1,844,017, which is $957,701 above the mandated operating reserve<sup>1</sup>. The projected NAB is considerably less than FY18's $4,687,946, which reflects the board's decision to spend down the NAB to fund programs and initiatives (see below). The Board and Budget and Finance Committee have practiced careful financial stewardship by reviewing the budget annually and by having more fulsome discussions during the spend-down years.

Prior to spending down the net asset balance, ACRL had kept a larger beginning balance. ACRL did this primarily for two reasons: 1) it provides flexibility and gives the Board resources to tap into to support the development of new initiatives and 2) should there be an extraordinary event, such as an ACRL Conference cancellation or major disruption to attendance, there would be money on hand to sustain the organization. Members need to be clear that the biennial conferences represent our largest risk. Due to savvy planning by our conference team of Margot Conahan and Tory Ondrla and assistance from ALA's lawyers, we were able to avoid substantial penalties in moving the 2021 Seattle conference to an online venue. Such penalties typically run into the high 6 figures and this does not include lost revenue, staff time, etc. Conference insurance can sometimes ameliorate this risk but few insurers will be covering pandemics moving forward. The past two years have underscored this risk.

Investment Budget History

After reviewing the FY15 net asset balance the Budget & Finance Committee, Board, and staff agreed that more of this money needed to be put to work investing in programs and services that meet member needs, as well as setting some aside in ACRL's Long Term Investment (LTI - endowed funds held by ALA) to increase that particular revenue stream. Over the last few years, ACRL put that money to work investing in programs, such as a research agenda on the value of academic libraries, services/education (including developing a database/sandbox) around use of the new Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education; development of a research agenda for scholarly communications; investment in Project Outcome for Academic Libraries and in Benchmark, two programs shared with the Public Library Association; developing curriculum for RoadShows; investments in scholarships to ACRL professional development events (in addition to those donated by individuals); investments in ACRL's LTI; and a transfer to CHOICE to support the development of new products. To spend down ACRL's net asset balance, the Board has approved the Budget and Finance Committee's recommendation for a deficit budget since FY18.

---

<sup>1</sup> 1998 ALA policy requires an average of one-quarter of the last four year's expenses and while it is not clear if this policy is still in force, ACRL adopted its own policy to the same effect. Source: ACRL Board, July 1986, January 1991, revised June 1997. One quarter of the average for expenses FY18-FY21 is $886,316.

As we look at FY23, let's first consider ACRL's three standard revenue streams:

- Membership

- In recent years, the number of ACRL members has been in a steady decline despite efforts at retention. Personal memberships in FY2023 are expected to increase over the FY22 level by 1.54% to 7,626 (of which 7,432 are paying members). ACRL has historically increased dues as guided by the Higher Education Price Index (HEPI). Budget and Finance had suggested a $2 increase (based on a HEPI inflation that was calculated in the fall of 2021). Due, in part, to the higher inflation rate that was evident in Feb 2022 and the impact that this would have on members, the board voted to increase dues by just $1.

- Publications:

- Publications are budgeted as increasing slightly (4%) from FY22. We hope to continue to increase publications revenues to return to pre-pandemic levels; however, some shifts in purchasing trends may be longer term. Choice, C&RL News, C&RL, Non-Periodical Publications, and Statistics all show increases. The exception is the journal, RBM, which we expect will see about a 35% drop from FY22 to FY23 due to falling subscriptions.
- At Midwinter 2020, the Board approved the transition of C&RL News to an online-only publication model beginning with the January 2022 issue. The cessation of print had budgetary implications, as described below.
- In FY19, ACRL recategorized its advertising revenues to distinguish between those that appear in a publication that is a perquisite of membership and those that do not. The policies between ALA and its membership divisions (aka the "operating agreement") allow division journal advertising that is included in a membership publication to be free of overhead payments. Most of ACRL's advertising is online in an open access format and does not qualify for this exemption from overhead. For C&RL News alone that adds an expense of over $65,000 to the budget to pay ALA overhead on the many online opportunities that we have created to support advertising.
- Because of the sustained stronger than expected ALA JobLIST classified ad sales in FY22, staff have projected an $80K increase over FY22.
- Due to client feedback, ACRL Benchmark underwent a wholesale revision in FY22, as we moved services provided by the vendor Counting Opinions into a new format. We continue to revise that format, making revenue projections difficult to predict. The preliminary budget saw an expected increase in FY23, with $216,000 versus $193,036 in FY22 budgeted for subscriptions. These improvements continue to attract customers and that increase now stands at $228,299. As we consider potential revenue factors, such as possible licensing agreements, it is hoped that we will be able to increase this amount in a future iteration of the budget.
- Project Outcome revenues had originally been forecast to increase to $16,125 in FY23 versus $6,750 in FY22. That revenue projection now stands at $13,685.

- Education:

- ALA launched a new education platform in Nov 2021 and the results of this change are still being evaluated. When compared to FY21, education revenue is budgeted to more than double but that is premised on an in-person meeting in 2023 (the biennial meeting is classed under education). Overall, like with other revenue streams, it is expected that education will see gradual growth to rebuild to pre-pandemic levels. FY23 assumes a transition to safe travel and group gatherings (with no vaccination requirements, which are expensive to enforce), but with reduced demand and budget for in-person events and increased demand for online events. This resumption of safe travel is assumed for our Road Shows and for our Immersion programs.

- Staff are reviewing ACRL eLearning webcasts and online courses. The new ALA pricing structure where we lost our $295 group rate, where our ALA and Nonmember rates were reduced due to the standardized pricing, and where bulk purchase discounts became effective with two registrants, has us budgeting some $32K less revenue than FY22. Once we receive some updated performance reports for FY22, we may revise these revenue numbers.

It is evident how dependent ACRL is on revenue from its professional development programs, especially its biennial conferences. To offset dependency on a single revenue area, ACRL must continue to seek for ways to diversify its revenue. ACRL looks to expand newer revenue streams in areas such as licensed workshops, consulting, and digital advertising in the forms of sponsored e-blasts, digital ads, etc. as well as identify new products and services needed by the profession. ACRL has always benefited from the in-kind donations of time and talent from its membership, which make it possible for ACRL to offer such a wide array of programs and services. As ACRL carefully considers expenses for FY23, the Board and Budget and Finance Committee should also keep in mind possible future discussions on membership participation and financial support in regard to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Preliminary FY23 Expenses

In this preliminary FY23 budget, ACRL hopes to continue to spend down the net asset balance. ACRL may not be able to continue to fund as many new ideas as it has in the past or to continue projects past an initial pilot year.

The FY23 budget provides support for many of these initiatives:

- $88K to support the Research and Scholarly Environment goal which includes $2K for 1 OpenCon scholarship, and approximately $25K to pay for ACRL's membership in other organizations. Due to budget constraints, we are proposing elimination of ACRL's membership in the Library Copyright Alliance ($28,000);
- more than $100K is budgeted to further ACRL's Value of Academic Libraries initiatives, which includes more than $92K for Project Outcome;
- more than $200K is budgeted for initiatives around student learning (most of the expenses in this figure are related to the various immersion programs which are offset by the projected registration revenues);
- More than $20K is budgeted to support ACRL's new roles and changing landscape initiative.
- $99K is budgeted for scholarships, which includes support for the RBMS Conference, and Immersion program, as well as $14K to support three Spectrum Scholars and $3K to support three ALA Emerging Leaders;
- Over $54K of direct expenses to support ACRL's Core Commitment to Equity, Diversity and Inclusion. Additional support for EDI is included in other projects throughout the budget. For example, scholarships for underrepresented groups are included in the scholarships project. We are confident that the total amount spent on EDI will meet or exceed the $150K goal set by the Budget and Finance Task Force, which made this an objective;
- More than $7K is budgeted to support the creation of new roadshow curricula.

Salaries & Benefits

As standard ACRL practice, in the initial fiscal year budget, all general administrative and staff salaries, as well as related costs, are recorded on a separate line. During the year, ACRL staff maintain records of their daily use of time. The resulting percentages are used to allocate salaries, benefits, and general expenses such as telephone, postage, reprographics, etc. At the end of the year, these costs are distributed to each individual project.

Salaries/benefits must be no more than 45 percent, and total administrative costs no more than 60 percent of the total operating budget, not including Choice (ACRL Guide to Policies and Procedures 6.26.4 Staff/administrative costs). ACRL FY23 budgeted salaries are 24% of an average of the last two-years of expenses.

Choice FY23 Budget Reconciliation Memo

To: ACRL Budget and Finance Committee

From: Rachel Hendrick, Interim Choice Editor and Publisher

Date: 20 May 2022

The Choice FY23 budget anticipates a decline in subscription and print advertising revenue and an increase in revenue from webinars, newsletters, and sponsored content. This year we will launch a new content vertical around the subject of technology in libraries, a content area that will open Choice up to new audiences and new advertisers. Due to budget constraints we have elected to put most of our meager funds for this project ($19,480) towards content creation rather than infrastructure. The expected advertising revenue is $15,000. This content vertical will lean on our strengths—ad sales and digital publishing—while we continue to attempt to offset our weaknesses.

REVENUE

Choice continues to find success in our digital advertising and sponsored content programs and revenue for FY23 is budgeted $103,259 more than FY22. In the coming year this program will be bolstered by a new content stream scheduled to launch in the fall. Subscriptions for all our products (Choice magazine, Choice Reviews, and Choice Reviews on Cards) continue to decline while our remainder book sales and other miscellaneous income also took a hit during the pandemic. Income from royalties remains relatively flat. Overall, we forecast revenue to be better than the FY22 budget with most of this growth coming from digital advertising, sponsored content, and webinars.

Item	FY23B	FY22B	Var
Subscriptions Revenue	900,041	1,010,750	(110,709)

Misc Sales Revenue	12,200	14,500	(2,300)

TOTAL REVENUE	2,251,395	2,246,444	4,951

EXPENSES

At Choice we continue to watch expenses and look for places to save money. Last year our part-time copy editor retired and we elected not to rehire that position, relying instead on freelance help. Choice cut a further $9,532 in discretionary expenses (travel and professional services), which is reflected in this budget. We expect to transfer $35,697 from our endowment in FY23 (reflected in indirect expenses).

SUMMING UP

Although Choice continues a program of austerity and cost cutting, subscription revenue from our review products continues to decline and is not entirely replaced by the advertising revenue increases in digital and sponsored content. We are hopeful the launch of our new content vertical will help us to make up that revenue deficit. Despite our financial worries, Choice is budgeted to contribute $323,810 to the ALA general fund on top of the cost of maintaining a separate office space in Middletown, Connecticut.

FY2023 Budget Assumptions

ACRL develops budget assumptions annually to guide staff in preparing annual project budgets. ACRL's budget is mission-driven and should provide sufficient revenues to support the strategic initiatives outlined in the ACRL Plan for Excellence, including initiatives related to its Core Commitment to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI). This is accomplished through a blend of programs and services, some of which generate net revenues, e.g., ACRL professional development, especially its biennial conference, and others that the association expects to support, e.g., advocacy, member services, etc.

The ACRL Budget & Finance Committee will discuss the draft assumptions on November 2, 2021, and any recommendations will be incorporated before they are sent to the ACRL Board. The full Board will have an opportunity to give asynchronous input and the Executive Committee will review, suggest revisions as needed and approve the assumptions below at its 2021 Fall Executive Committee Meeting on November 9, 2021. Based on the approved budget assumptions, ACRL staff will prepare the preliminary FY23 budget for review by the Budget and Finance Committee at their winter meeting (anticipated near or during the 2022 ALA's LibLearnX, January 21-24).

General Overview: The economic climate and U.S. higher education

As ACRL begins to prepare its FY23 budget, the economic outlook is still largely influenced by the effects of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. During April to June 2020, the US economy took one of its worst downturns at a rate of -32.9%<sup>1</sup>. For the year over year comparison in 2020, the US and world GDP's decreased by 3.5%<sup>2, 3</sup>. The economy began to rebound from this initial shock in late 2020 and continues to rebound in 2021. Global GDP growth is projected by the International Monetary Fund at 5.9%<sup>4</sup>, World Bank at 5.6%<sup>5</sup>, and Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development at 5.7%<sup>6</sup>. This projected turnaround is partly due to a global response by the World Health Organization, as well as legislation, such as the US's CARES Act and Canada's COVID-19 Economic Response Plan. Despite global inequities for vaccine access, with a 3.07% vaccination rate in low-income countries versus a 60.18% in high-income countries, more than 5.5 billion doses have been administered worldwide.<sup>7</sup> As the global pandemic continues into its second year, it is expected that its effects will be longstanding and a full recovery may take years, and will depend on a number of factors, such as the potential proliferation of new variants and the global response to supply chain disruptions.

Like the world economy, higher education is rebounding but not without uncertainty. To fully understand higher ed's economic rebound, one must look at the pre-pandemic numbers. Before the pandemic, state spending on public colleges and universities was already well below historical levels prior to the Great Recession of 2008-09.<sup>8</sup> Insider Higher Ed reported that, "State funding nationwide is nearly 9 percent below pre-Great Recession levels and 18 percent below where it was before the 2001 tech bust."<sup>9</sup> Although "most Americans believe state spending for public universities and colleges has increased or at least held steady over the last 10 years," in fact, "states have collectively scaled back their annual higher education funding by $9 billion during that time, when adjusted for inflation."<sup>10</sup> Despite public perception, it is estimated that, "the financial impact of the pandemic on students and institutions would total at least $120 billion."<sup>11</sup> Higher ed is considering and has implemented a number of cost savings measures, including tuition discounts to increase student enrollment and overall revenue, borrowing from endowments, and seeking additional federal and state funding.

It should be noted that, unlike after previous economic downturns, state spending on higher education did not bounce back after the 2008 recession.”<sup>12</sup> In the last ten years, state funding has decreased by $9 billion when adjusted for inflation, and “state appropriations per full-time student have fallen from an inflation-adjusted $8,489 in 2007 to $7,642 in 2017.”<sup>13</sup> Decreased state funding is a trend, as funding for public two- and four-year colleges remains well below pre-recession levels in almost every state and in the school year ending in 2018, funding was more than $7 billion below its 2008 level, after adjusting for inflation. Without considering inflation, state fiscal support for higher education grew by just 1.6 percent in 2018, according to the most recent Grapevine survey which noted that the level of support is “down sharply from a 4.2 percent increase last year and represents the lowest annual growth in the last five years.”<sup>14</sup> “In only six states have higher education budgets returned to or surpassed their pre-recession levels; in 19 states, expenditures per student are at least 20 percent lower than before the recession.”<sup>15</sup> To cope with these cuts, institutions have raised tuition and made deep cuts to programs and services, reducing access to college education for some and calling into question the quality of the program remaining.<sup>16</sup> Financial challenges face higher education as public investment and tuition revenue are on the decline while labor and facility costs continue to rise<sup>17</sup>. Further complicating state funding decreases is the America’s College Promise Act of 2021, which proposes free community college for more than nine million students. If this legislation is passed, many states will need to increase institutional funding in order to participate in the program.<sup>18</sup> In the coming year, there will be a greater need for coordinated advocacy from ALA, ACRL and other higher education associations for funding at the state level for public institutions.

Enrollment data during the pandemic is pending, but total enrollment in degree-granting postsecondary institutions decreased by 5 percent from 2009 to 2019, from 17.5 million to 16.6 million students.<sup>19</sup> Between 2019 to 2029, the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) projects that enrollments will increase 2.64%, from 16.6 million to 17.0 million.<sup>20</sup> These numbers are somewhat disjointed with high school graduation rate projections, which show the number of high school graduates peaking at 3.9 million in 2025, then declining to 3.5 million in 2037.<sup>21</sup> Further analysis on higher education trends is needed to understand NCES's projected increase against decreasing high school enrollment data.

Economic climate and academic libraries

Before and during the pandemic, ACRL membership numbers have been on a slow but steady decline, which is in part due to the closing of institutions that have an impact on both ACRL's organizational and personal members. According to NCES data, 53 postsecondary institutions closed in 2020, 236 in 2019, 86 in 2018, 112 in 2017.<sup>22</sup> The pool of potential academic librarians as evidenced by MLIS degrees awarded drastically declined 37%, from 7,729 in 2011 to 4,843 in 2017, but has since increased slightly at 6.63%, from 4,843 in 2017 to 5,164 in 2019.<sup>23</sup> Of the placements between 2013 and 2019, the number of placements in academic libraries decreased from 347 to 206, or by 41%.<sup>24, 25</sup> The decline during and after the 2008 recession may be stabilizing, as the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics projects a 9% increase job outlook, which is in line with the job outlook for all occupations.<sup>26</sup> Another factor that could influence the size of ACRL's membership is whether academic libraries are requiring those they hire to hold MLIS degrees. Anecdotally, we are hearing that, especially at large research libraries, subject specialists, and other professional staff (IT, HR, development, marketing, etc.) are being hired to do work that once required an MLIS. A recent study of ARL directors found that while 1/3 of ARL directors did not perceive the MLIS as necessary, 42% did and it is these directors who will hire the next generation of those working in academic and research libraries.<sup>27</sup>

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

Fewer financial resources may also have contributed to the consolidation of vendors in the library marketplace.<sup>28, 29</sup> Fewer vendors will mean a smaller pool of companies to provide sponsorships, rent exhibit space, and support library and association programs. Because "the current model of large publishers dominating scholarly publishing and inflation grinding down library budgets continues,"<sup>30</sup> tighter library budgets could mean less funding for staff development (e.g., association membership, continuing education) or sponsorship of library association programs.

The impact of the pandemic, along with the pre-pandemic trend of the continued state of lower funding and a consolidation in the marketplace, will affect ACRL's FY23 budgeted revenue expectations. We expect that library budgets and individual spending will continue to be reduced and thoughtfully considered. Gross revenues for consulting were below budget due to fewer than expected clients in the 4th quarter of FY19, but the 1st quarter of FY20 was off to a busy start. In FY19, webinar revenues exceeded budget in part due to a successful multi-part series. Revenues from licensed workshops were below budget. In September 2020, the ACRL 2021 Conference planned for April 2021 was canceled as an in-person event and was held as a virtual conference around the same dates. Based on FY21 reports, the virtual ACRL 2021 Conference was a programmatic and financial success, with the project net performing better than budget. This performance is due to online conferences paying half the overhead rate per the ALA Operating Agreement (50% rather than 100%), as well as cost savings for meal functions, transportation, equipment rental, and other expenses associated with an onsite event.

The FY23 budget will include traditional revenue streams (e.g., non-serial publications, ad sales, webinars). ACRL staff will continue to adapt to a post-pandemic environment by further exploring virtual offerings, when needed, for in-person events (e.g., ACRL Conference, RBMS Conference, RoadShows). ACRL staff will continue to look for new entrepreneurial ideas and revenue streams and consider cost savings throughout the year. As part of ALA's five-year pivot strategy<sup>31</sup>, FY23 is planned to be the second net neutral year for the organization. Strategies for ALA to achieve a net neutral by FY23 include a new revenue stream (date services), the rollout of the LibLearnX event, and testing public markets for Annual Conference.

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

In recent years, ACRL has been tasked by its Board and Budget & Finance Committee to spend down its net asset balance, and to look for appropriate opportunities to spend a portion of this net asset balance in strategic programs and services that benefit membership. Recent examples of such investments include the promotion of Project Outcome, research grants to practitioner-scholar academic librarians to carry out research identified in the 2019 research agenda, and digitization of past issues of C&RL News. Through careful stewardship, the net asset balance, which had grown to $5,002,115 at the beginning of FY16, has been reduced to $3,247,098 (FY21 August preliminary close) through investments in strategic initiatives.

Even though the preliminary FY21 results are showing strong performance, it still should be expected that, going forward, the ACRL Board and Budget & Finance Committee will need to take a much harder look at any proposed new expenditures, as ACRL would need increased revenue streams (e.g., more members joining, increasing book sales, or projected growth for conference and professional development registrations) to support potential requests for increased or new expenditures. Our goal is to moderate many operational expenditures to be more in-line with current revenue expectations while aligning the budget to support the Plan for Excellence and the Core Commitment to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion through strategic investments from ACRL's net asset balance and the annual endowment transfer. It is important to note that the net asset balance (beginning reserve level for FY23 is expected to be $1,520,188 per the FY22 budget) is moving closer to the mandated operating reserve amount of $952,599. Ensuring that the net asset balance stays within the mandated operating reserve is another motivating factor for the Board and Budget Committee to carefully monitor expenses in FY23.

Because ACRL works to stay above the mandated operating reserve while still investing strategically in member programs and services, it will cease transfers to its long-term investment fund. If the Board and Budget Committee would like to resume these transfers in future years, there is a two-year notification requirement by ALA if ACRL wants to transfer more than $50,000 to its LTI; transfers below $49,999 do not require the two-year advance notification. Per the 2005 ACRL Board recommendation, the ACRL budget includes an LTI interest transfer (Project 3200) up to the maximum allowable amount. In FY19, ACRL transferred $125,000 for FY19 and $135,000 in FY20 in appreciation from its LTI to its operating budget to support strategic initiatives. Due to the outstanding performance of the virtual ACRL 2021 Conference, ACRL did not take the budgeted LTI interest transfer in FY21. The FY23 budget will include an interest transfer of $135,000 from the endowment to the operating budget.

Choice FY23 Budget Assumptions

Business Environment

The changing character of Choice is something that has been liberally remarked upon in previous budget assumption documents, but the topic bears briefly revisiting here as so much of our budgeting is based on our evolution as a publishing unit.

Over the past decade the historical core of Choice's publishing program—reviews of new academic monographs—has gradually eroded as the use of reviews in the collection-development process succumbed to the twin forces of technological innovation and the tightening of materials budgets. Indeed, the collection-development function itself no longer occupies the central position it once commanded in many academic libraries. As a result, since 2009, combined circulation of Choice magazine and Choice Reviews has declined by almost 60%, from 3,500 the year of the Great Recession to 1,525 today, an average (CAGR) of about 7% a year. Latterly, the COVID-19 pandemic has exerted accelerating downward pressure on circulation and revenue. By the end of FY21, Choice magazine earned income was off 27% from a year ago; cards, 14%; and Choice Reviews, 5%. Compare these, then, to the more typical year-over-year declines of 10%, 7%, and 4% from FY18 to FY19.

The decline in the use of reviews has affected other parts of our business as well. Choice reviews generate two other streams of revenue: in-publication advertising and royalties from the licensing of reviews to publishers, aggregators, and purchasing platforms. These too are under stress. Since fiscal 2013, in-publication revenues—space ads in the magazine and banner ads in the database—have shrunk by 70%, while royalties have declined by a statelier 22%, from $640K in FY13 to about $500K in this year's budget.

Recognizing these trends, in recent years we have been vigorously working to create alternate sources of revenue, based not on reviews but on sponsorships of newsletters, podcasts, and webinars and the underwriting of white papers. During the same period that traditional advertising was shrinking by almost three-quarters, these sponsored-content initiatives grew steadily, from a scant $70K in FY13 to a budgeted $560K this year. Webinar sponsorships alone have generated gross revenue of over $1.3MM since the inception of the program in FY13.

The rise in sponsorship revenue is an important indicator of a larger trend at Choice: the development of an audience outside of the collection-development space, an audience eager to consume Choice content in formats and on platforms far removed from reviews. While review-based readership has fallen, we have been amassing a readership of far greater size and diversity around our media-intensive sponsored programs. Consider these engagement figures from the year just finished:

- Choice360 page views: 352,768
- Choice newsletter subscriptions: 19,435

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0
(Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- Unique newsletter subscribers: 7,903
- Webinar registrants: 48,145 (43 webinars)
- Webinar attendees: 24,063
- Webinar screenings on the Choice Media Channel (YouTube): 173,905
- The Authority File podcasts: 15,633 downloads
- White paper downloads: 6,296 (cumulative, 8 reports)

So, as fiscal 2022 gets underway, Choice presents two faces to the outside world: the one, as a publisher of workflow tools supporting the traditional collection-development process; the other, as a producer of a media portfolio engaging an audience of approximately 60,000, roughly five times as large as that for its traditional products. Herein lies our dilemma. Despite the phenomenal success of our media program (a success admittedly contingent upon the business plans of our advertisers and sponsors), the former remains the mainstay of our business, bringing in $1.7MM, or 76% of budgeted FY22 unit revenues. The sponsored-content/media portion of the business will generate only 24% of that, some $525K.

PROQUEST: Leaving aside these broader market trends, perhaps no single factor has the potential to influence budget planning for FY23 and beyond as much as the impending $5.5B (!) acquisition of ProQuest by Clarivate. ProQuest is a major contributor to all three revenue streams at Choice: subscriptions, through their co-publication of Resources for College Libraries; royalties, through four separate agreements for the licensing of our content on ProQuest platforms; and advertising, for their robust participation in our webinar program. (In FY21, ProQuest sponsored thirteen webcasts, 30% of our total program.) Over the past three years, revenue from these sources has averaged almost $600K a year, about 24% of our total annual revenue.

With so much of our business in thrall to a third party, any changes in the ownership of that party have the potential to have a serious impact on revenues. It is far too early to know in what direction the acquisition will take ProQuest. Clarivate is heavily invested in the sciences, with research and scientific publishers as major players in its ecosystem. ProQuest's business is squarely directed toward academic libraries. Will the "merger" strengthen both vectors or deflect one in favor of the other? Will a singular strategic focus and the anticipated $100MM in cost synergies drive the removal of properties deemed "non-core"? What impact will the acquisition have on ProQuest's major competitor, EBSCO, with whom we enjoy a lesser but still important business relationship? Facing the enormous concentration of discovery and workflow tools represented by the deal, and its implications for further consolidation of the content and enterprise software industries, EBSCO might well be looking for a strategic buyer itself. Way too soon to tell, although each of these issues has the potential to disrupt Choice. (A useful first take on the acquisition can be found in Roger Schonfeld's comments in The Scholarly Kitchen (<https://scholarlykitchen.sspnet.org/2021/05/18/clarivate-to-acquire-proquest/>)).

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

The timing of the acquisition is also an issue. As of this writing, the deal is still under pro forma review at the FTC, which will probably delay the close until at least the end of the calendar year (<https://www.publishersweekly.com/pw/by-topic/industry-news/industry-deals/article/87120-clarivate-purchase-of-proquest-extended.html>). Even then, a wholesale pivot in business strategy or significant changes to organizational structures at the unit level are unlikely to be implemented during the remainder of our fiscal year, and obviously, in the midst of a $5.5B acquisition, the vicissitudes of a $600K relationship with a small library publisher will not be on anyone's radar, at least at first. But given our level of dependence upon ProQuest, we will be watching carefully throughout the next twelve months for clues as to changes in their plans.

* * *

Given these environmental factors, below please find a discussion of major revenue and expense assumptions for FY23.

Strategic Realignment

In response to the problems in our traditional business, Choice is now pursuing a strategic realignment of its publishing program, the goal of which is to reduce our dependence upon reviews and to allocate greater resources to the creation of new, more timely and important content. This new content will consist of a congeries of articles, blogposts, topical newsletters, webinars, and podcasts organized around topics, or, as we like to say, distributed among “content verticals.” The content will be made available on Choice360, will be largely supported by corporate underwriting, and will be directed toward a broad readership consisting of library professionals, scholars, instructors, and researchers—in short, the entire academic library community.

The undertaking is more than simply a plan. March of 2021 saw the launch of the first of these content verticals, Toward Inclusive Excellence™ (TIE, <https://www.choice360.org/toward-inclusive-excellence/>). Under the general editorship of Alexia Hudson-Ward, Associate Director for Research and Learning at the MIT libraries, the program explores issues of equity, diversity, and inclusion, particularly, though not exclusively, as they affect the academic library community. As of mid-October, we have published thirty blog posts on such disparate topics as trans-inclusion in DEIA, medical experimentation on people of color, and critical race theory. In addition to this, we have hosted interviews with Martha Jones on the history of banned books in the United States and with Steven S. Jones on his A Letter to My White Friends and Colleagues. Earlier in the summer, Hudson-Ward joined a panel of her colleagues in the first TIE webinar, a discussion of equitable staffing models in the post-pandemic landscape.

Budgeting for this and future programs currently under discussion is now grouped under a new budget project, 3919, with underwriting revenues charged to Advertising (line 4143) and expenses (editor and contributor honoraria) to Professional Services (line 5110). See below s.v., Choice360 for more information.

Subscription Products

NATIVE CHOICE PRODUCTS: Yet despite tectonic shifts in our business environment, our native subscription products, reviews of new academic monographs, continue to form the core of our publishing program, providing over a million dollars annually in subscription revenue. During FY21 year-over-year cash receipts fell 29%, 33%, and 10% for the magazine, cards, and database, respectively, provoked in part by cuts to library budgets in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. Of course, these declines are not fully reflected in the performance reports, as the finances of any subscription business are governed by the rules of accrual accounting, in which revenues are recognized (“earned”) when a good or service is delivered rather than when cash is received from the subscriber. For accounting purposes, our subscription revenues are recognized in one-month increments over the term of a twelve-month subscription. The result is to effectively “buffer” even a sudden downturn in renewals, as revenue continues to be recognized at a constant rate (1/12th) for subscriptions acquired prior to the downturn. But of course, a sharp year-over-year fall in cash such as we saw in fiscal 2021 will inevitably be reflected in revenue performance further down the road, as the earned income figures in the Business Environment section above attest, and thus is a critical factor in our assumptions around the FY23 budget.

Far and away the majority of our subscriptions come from one subscription agent, EBSCO, which brings us a large number of batched subscriptions in November and December of each year and hence a large infusion of cash. Typically, these account for between 30% and 33% of total annual cash received for Choice Reviews and some 55% to 60% of Choice magazine subscriptions. So it is the November and December cash receipts that will provide us with our first real look at subscription revenues over the next year or so. From these we will be able to make a more informed judgment about calendar 2022, as renewal rates are a reliable indicator of future revenue.

For its part, our Reviews on Cards continues to generate high-margin income despite its admittedly anachronistic format. That said, Card subscriptions have not been immune to the historical trend. Circulation was down 22% in FY21, and we expect continued declines of this magnitude in FY23.

RESOURCES FOR COLLEGE LIBRARIES: Subscription revenue from Resources for College Libraries arrives quarterly as a percentage (30%) of sales made by our partners at ProQuest, and since we are effectively the “author,” not the publisher, of the work, that revenue is considered earned when we receive it. But as the putative “author,” we have little visibility, and even less influence, over RCL sales, which are handled by a dedicated sales force at ProQuest. For FY21, the Choice portion of subscription revenues fell to an estimated $110K, attesting to the fact that declines in subscription revenue are not unique to Choice.

Writing in October of 2021, we await the possibility that RCL sales will rebound this year with the relaunch of ProQuest’s Bowker Book Analysis System (BBAS), in which RCL data plays a major role and for which we receive the standard revenue share of 30%. If it does, that growth will be reflected in the FY23 budget.

CCADVISOR: Launched in September of 2017, ccAdvisor was our attempt to enlarge our readership base by publishing high-quality, peer-reviewed reviews of digital resources, and to do so on a scale and with a depth of coverage not possible in the format of Choice. For this we partnered with The Charleston Company, the highly respected publisher of The Charleston Advisor in print, in the shared conviction that the creation of a companion digital product, built on the infrastructure of Choice Reviews and offering all the benefits of a continuously updated database, would lead to a migration of print subscribers and overall growth in both circulation and revenue. Under our agreement, Choice and The Charleston Company share both revenue and expenses equally.

Now, after four years of publication, it has become clear that the anticipated growth in circulation has not—and will not—take place, nor have advertising revenues performed at projected levels. Even the outsourcing of the sales effort to the large and highly professional sales team at EBSCO three years ago failed to yield significant new business. Overall, 85% of CCA revenues derive from a single consortial subscription with the Center for Research Libraries. As a result, and following discussions with The Charleston Company, as of October of this year we are no longer accepting new or renewal subscriptions for ccAdvisor. The existing subscriptions, all but one of which expire by the conclusion of FY22, will continue to be supported through the end of the fiscal, after which the site will be depreciated. The fiscal 2023 budget, therefore, will contain no revenue or expenses for this product line, and any remaining undepreciated capital expenses will be written down.

Third-party Licenses

Our licenses with the major platform providers and aggregators provide us with a fairly reliable stream of income. In recent years ProQuest, the largest of our licensees, has been regularly reducing the amount it is willing to pay for using Choice reviews in Books in Print and Syndetics, and those losses, along with the loss ($108K) of the ProQuest Intota license when that product failed in the marketplace, account for the lion's share of the decline in royalty revenue since 2013. We see no losses on that scale from other sources in the near term.

Nonetheless, it is worth pointing out that these assumptions do not include drastic, unanticipated losses in royalty income that might yet result from the COVID-19 pandemic. While COVID has certainly subjected subscription revenues to additional stresses, it would take cancellations on the part of hundreds of libraries to equal the loss of even one major licensee. The probability of this type of sudden, wholesale loss is small and has not been factored in our assumptions for FY23, but it cannot be ruled out entirely.

Advertising and Sponsorships

TRADITIONAL ADVERTISING. We have already noted the precipitous decline we are seeing in traditional advertising, with several publishers openly stating to us that they will no longer produce print advertisements. Advertising in Choice magazine, which in FY13 brought in over $430K (net), fell to an estimated $128K last year (FY21) and is running at 69% of last year's performance thus far in FY22, well below budget. This trend, and its much smaller analogue in banner advertising in Choice Reviews, appears irreversible.

WEBINARS. Now in its ninth year, the Choice/ACRL webinar program is well established and continues to draw large and enthusiastic audiences, with lifetime-to-date registrations approaching 175,000. Early concerns about the limited life-cycle of our program seem premature at best, in part because the professionalism of our productions and the guidance we provide at every step of the process have made our webinars a trusted source of information for librarians and an attractive platform for sponsors, who increasingly look to us for support in approaching the academic library market. No better example of this is ProQuest's (ProQuest again!) decision to have Choice produce a special live event, "When You Picture a Scientist, What Do You See?" a panel discussion on advancing diversity and inclusion in STEM, featuring Dr. Jennifer Doudna, biochemist and Nobel Prize-winning co-inventor of CRISPR technology. The event drew 9,079 registrations and 4,674 attendees, brought us $20,500 in gross revenue, and was deemed so successful that ProQuest has scheduled other such premium events on our platform.

During FY21 gross webinar revenue came to $299,450 (15% of which was paid to ACRL), and scarcely over a month-and-a-half into FY22 we have booked $204,500 in contracts through the end of the fiscal year. So, we are forecasting revenues equal to or better than those of FY21 in both FY22 and FY23.

PODCASTS. During this past year Choice media staff hosted and produced 64 episodes of The Authority File, grossing $36,550 in sponsorships. Thus far in FY22 full-year podcast bookings are already at 85% of budget, so we are confident that we will meet or exceed budget. Since in producing 64 episodes in 52 weeks we are already running at 125% of our once-a-week production schedule, there is little room for further growth with current staffing. For FY23, then, we will again budget $35,000 as our "baseline" figure.

CHOICE RESEARCH. Our white paper program, more labor- and time-intensive than either webinars or podcasts on a unit basis, is growing more slowly, restrained both by resource issues at Choice and by sponsor participation. The longer sales cycle this project entails, and the scant staff resources available to produce the studies, are serving to limit the number of publications we publish to two a year. For FY23 we will assume two white papers, with gross revenue of $40,000.

CHOICE CUSTOM PUBLISHING: New this fiscal year is the Choice custom publishing program, a series of sponsored case studies highlighting library solutions to operational problems. The first such study, in which representatives of five academic libraries describe how they implemented service and policy adjustments in response the COVID-19 pandemic, launched in August, and for FY22 we have budgeted for two more studies at $10,000 each. Our working assumption is that the program will be a success, and failing evidence to the contrary we shall budget similarly for FY23.

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0
(Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

CHOICE360: Central to our planning for the redesigned Choice360.org was the decision to use the site as the platform for publication of our content verticals, effectively making C360 a revenue-generating “product.” Revenue and expenses for the product are captured in project 3919, new to the Choice budget in FY22. As discussed above, the content verticals are supported by corporate underwriting, and income from them will thus be recorded here as advertising revenue. Choice360 is budgeted to break even in FY22, with net revenue of $33,425 ($23,875 of it from TIE) and $32,564 in expenses (comprising contributor honoraria, web operations costs, and ALA overhead). As of mid-October we have already booked $25,300 in advertising revenue in this project, and our operating assumption at this point is that we will budget along equal or better lines for FY23.

Expenses

For payroll, we have assumed no layoffs, no reductions in force, and a continued 2% salary adjustment annually, and we have used pre-furlough salaries as the base. These are best-case assumptions that may not survive the budget-making process. Because of our success in reducing expenses—$362K in direct spending reductions between FY15 and FY19—payroll now accounts for roughly 65% to 70% of our direct spending. Aside from staffing, then, there are few remaining areas to cut without cutting revenue as well.

For all other direct expenses, we have taken FY22B as the base and subjected it to an annual increase of 3% (meaning a 1% drop in inflation-adjusted wages . . .). This assumption is subject to restatement as we receive further data regarding the anticipated stabilization of inflation rates. ALA overhead has been calculated using the current rate of 13.25% (per the operating agreement, the division rate on publishing revenue is 50% of full rate applied to education and other non-dues revenue). Obviously, an increase in that rate as the result of ongoing discussions at ALA about revising the operating agreement will further burden Choice.

With these points in mind, Choice pro forma assumptions regarding the FY23 budget can be found on pages 23-24.

ACRL General Assumptions

LLX22 Note: corrections made between fall 2021 and LLX 2022 are indicated with track changes.

Basic Budget Assumptions

1. All ALA and ACRL fiscal policies will be followed in the development of the budget.
2. The mandated reserve (as set by the ACRL Board, following ALA policy) for ACRL and CHOICE will be maintained.
3. Professional development offerings must be operated on a full cost-recovery basis.
4. Non-serial publications must be operated on a full cost-recovery basis.
5. Salaries and benefits for division staff will be equal to or less than 45% of the total operating budget using a 2-year average to match the swings in the operating budget.
6. Total administrative costs for the Division will be equal to or less than 60% of the total operating budget using a 2-year average to match the swings due to the ACRL Conference.
7. New projects that don't generate revenue will be charged to the membership services category.
8. Personnel allocations for salaries, benefits, and other related costs and office services, such as postage, copying, telephone, etc., will continue to be charged to the various programs as a percentage of the time spent on the programs.

Modified accrual accounting

ALA uses accrual accounting, a method which recognizes revenues and expenses at the time the event is held, or product delivered. This method ensures that revenues are on hand for refunds should said event or product not be delivered. However, ACRL has requested that ALA continue to "recognize" the expenses leading up to the conference/event as they occur so that staff can monitor expenses and adjust as needed. Should ALA be able to develop easily obtained reports detailing expenses, ACRL would consider switching to a full accrual system. At this time, however, we are "paying as we go" and earning the revenues only after we deliver the product, e.g., the publication, the conference, etc.

Given that FY22 is a non-conference year, ACRL would expect to generate a negative year-end net. Looking ahead to FY23, due to past investment of ACRL's net asset balance in strategic initiatives, absent significant new revenue streams, the association will need to reduce expenditures substantially, which may result in disruption to member services. The Budget & Finance Committee and staff will closely monitor the deficit budget to ensure that ACRL's net asset balance remains above the mandated operating reserve (i.e., one-quarter of the average of the last four years of expenses).

Revenues

- + Primary sources of revenue will be education (e-learning, institutes, pre-conferences), publications (including advertising and sponsorships), dues and donations.

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- + At least $25,000 will be budgeted for donations to ACRL Friends (pending further discussion by the Board as to the type of campaign to launch for FY23).
- + The Colleagues program has been a strong source of revenue for ACRL programs and special activities in past years. Although fundraising has gotten more difficult, dedicated member leaders continue to exceed expectations in the fundraising for the ACRL Conference. Other programs have been slightly more challenged, e.g., awards, as sponsors continue to look for more engagement with customers in return for their sponsorship. Staff will budget conservatively for donations related to specific projects. (Projects 3206, 3800, 3833, and 3835).
- + An estimated $135,000 in income from the ACRL long-term investments will be recognized in the draft operations budget (final amount will be derived in consultation with ALA Finance staff to ensure that will be the eligible expected earnings) (Project 3200).

Expenses:

- Travel and communication costs will continue to increase and will be carefully monitored (all projects). Travel and administrative expenses were reduced based on prior year actuals.
- All current staff positions will be included in the budget. As of September 2020, ALA policy does not allow for the majority of vacant positions (possible exceptions: grant-funded, executive directors) to be filled, and if applicable, any vacancies will be a cost savings. Some funds will be budgeted for interns and temporary help.

Assumptions by Strategic Goal

Goals are listed in the order in which they appear in the ACRL Plan for Excellence.

The program will break even or net a small profit. All Immersion programs will be offered on a cost-recovery basis. Because of its proven-track record of drawing a consistent number of participants, registration revenues will be budgeted at 95%. (Project 3830)

- + $10,000 in partial revenue for subsidized RoadShow (Project 3402).

Expenses

- $1,000 will be budgeted for potential EDI activities in consultation with the chair of the EDI committee (Project 3402).
- $1,500 in ongoing costs to support the ACRL Diversity Alliance (Project 3402).
- $14,000 will be budgeted to support two ALA Spectrum Scholars. The B&F Committee and the Board recommended increasing support from one to two Spectrum Scholars. The Board approved at its 2018 Fall Meeting. (Project 3838).
- Bulk of expenses paid for subsidized RoadShows to HBCU, tribal colleges, and other minority-serving institutions. After a two-year pause, offer ACRL licensed workshops with up to five subsidized versions on a partial cost-recovery model. Delivery to five locations means an estimated direct cost of $16,750 total: $9,250 travel = (2 presenters x 5 workshop locations) *

($450 flight + $300 hotel ($200 * 1.5 nights) + $100 2 days per diem + $75 ground transportation) and $7,500 honorarium ($750 x 2 presenters x 5 locations) (Project 3402).

Enabling programs and services: Member Engagement

The following budget assumptions are presented by enabling programs and services areas so that we continue to think of resource allocation aligned with the strategic plan.

Membership Services

Revenues

- + These are preliminary estimates based on partial FY21 data, and we are still waiting for more up-to-date info from ALA Membership, as well as tactics to grow membership. Membership revenues will be budgeted by first looking at FY21 July actual, the most current membership data available, then adjusted to reflect a small increase in FY22 (a non-conference year) and adjusted for an expected increase in FY23 (a conference year). As FY23 will be a conference year for ACRL, historically membership increases by 1.54%. Therefore, FY23 membership will be budgeted at a total membership of 8,340 paying members (and 8,523 total members). This reflects the 10.3% membership decrease in FY20, projected membership decrease of 6.1% decrease in FY21, and 1% increase in FY22 as ALA simplifies membership categories. ACRL may increase dues slightly in FY23 (if the Board implements an increase based on a possible change to the HEPI index). The initial personal membership dues rate for FY23 will be based on FY22 HEPI. Staff will continue to adjust this recommendation based on the monthly membership reports and quarterly HEPI forecasts.

Expenses

- Membership benefits and support for member services will be strategically reviewed by the Board and Budget and Finance Committee in light of decreasing revenues and absent net asset balance spend down. (Project 3200)
- ACRL will budget $3,000 to sponsor three ALA Emerging Leaders. (Project 3200).
- Leadership Council catering for Annual Conference split between 3200, 3201, 3250, 3275. Budget based on average of previous years: $5,000
- Reduced to $15,000 from $25,000 for as yet unidentified strategic initiatives will be budgeted. (Project 3200-5350)

Board and Executive Committee

Expenses

- Funds will be budgeted to support a suite for the ACRL President at Annual Conference—typically about $340/night/5 nights. As ALA sunsets MW and business meetings do not take place in conjunction with the new LibLearnX event, a suite will not be budgeted (Project 3201).

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- Funds estimated at $63,022 will be budgeted for a FY22 Board Strategic Planning and Orientation Session (SPOS). Funds will be budgeted to include senior staff participation in the Strategic Planning Session as well as chairs/ vice-chairs of the four goal-area committees and the EDI Committee (Project 3201).
- Leadership Council catering for Annual Conference split between 3200, 3201, 3250, 3275. Budget based on average of previous years: $5,000/4 (Project 3201).

Advisory services and consulting

Revenues

- + Consulting will continue to recover costs and yield a modest net of $7,300. (Project 3203)

Discussion Groups

Expenses

- No funds beyond staff support will be budgeted as discussion groups do not receive a base funding allocation.

Awards

Expenses

- Donations to support awards will be recognized and staff time, administrative fees, and direct expenses will be budgeted to support the awards program. (Project 3206)

Chapters

Expenses

- Per member allocations to ACRL Chapters will be funded at $1.00 per ACRL member residing in the state or region but budgeted based on historic usage of these funds which is below the maximum funding allowed. As ACRL looks to reduce expenses this area of expense reimbursement merits examination. Less than half of the chapters avail themselves of this funding. (Project 3207)
- Funds will be budgeted to support the ACRL Chapter Speakers Bureau program, which funds ten visits to ACRL chapters by ACRL officers. (Project 3207)
- Because no chapter has ever requested funds under this program since its inception, no funds will be allocated in the FY22 budget to implement the Board's policy to give $10 to chapters for each new member of ACRL in the chapter's geographic region who joined in the previous fiscal year after chapters document membership campaign activities focused on recruiting to ACRL national. If a chapter did undertake this activity, ACRL could fund this from the net asset balance.

Committees

Expenses

- Committees are allowed up to $150 each. Based on historical requests, $600 will be budgeted.
- Leadership Council catering for Annual Conference split between 3200, 3201, 3250, 3275.
Budget based on average of previous years: $5,000/4 Sections and Interest Groups.

Sections

Expenses

- Expenses for sections will be budgeted using the section funding formula in place, a base allocation of $1,000.00 with an additional $0.75 per section member over 400 (as of August 31).
- Interest Groups are allowed up to $150 each. Based on historical requests, $1,500 will be budgeted.
- Leadership Council catering for Annual Conference split between 3200, 3201, 3250, 3275.
Budget based on average of previous years: $5,000/4

Liaisons to Higher Education Organizations

Expenses

- See Advocacy section.

Special Events

Expenses

- In recent years, the number of ACRL section and interest group special events at conferences has averaged 16 per year. With the reorganized Midwinter Meeting starting in 2021, the average number of events per year may drop to 12 as fewer units meet onsite. (Project 3833)

Government Relations (Project 3704)

Expenses

- $15,010 for Library Copyright Alliance ($15,010 shown in Scholarly Communication Project 3702)
- $4,000 will be budgeted to cover the costs of the officers (or other leaders) attending ALA's Legislative Day in Washington, D.C. (Project 3704).
- $2,000 for general travel to support legislative and policy advocacy (Project 3704).

Scholarships

Expenses

- Funds for scholarships shall be budgeted as follows, although these amounts may be reduced as the budget gets assembled (Project 3838):
  - ACRL 2023 scholarships @ $50,000, divided among in-person and virtual attendees and in addition to Friends fund donations supporting conference scholarships
  - 2022 RBMS Conference scholarships @ $18,000 reduced to $13,000
  - Immersion Programs @ $12,000; reduced to $10,000
  - E-learning scholarships @ $1,000
  - Support for 2 ALA Spectrum Scholars @ $14,000
  - Miscellaneous @ $3,000; eliminated

Annual Conference Programs

Expenses

- Financial support for ACRL's ALA Annual Conference programs will be a total of $7,150. (Project 3835)
- The President's Program budget will be $6,500. (Project 3835)
- Funds of $200 will be budgeted for a front and back flyer that includes the award winners for the ACRL President's Program. (Project 3835)

Enabling programs and services: Publications

Non-periodical publications

Revenues

- + In FY23, non-periodical publications will be able to recover costs and net a small excess total revenue based on the current list of books in progress and expanding backlist. (Project 3400)
- + ACRL should see continued robust sales and royalties from EBSCO and ProQuest for institutional e-book sales in FY23. (Project 3400)

Expenses

- Expenses will be budgeted higher than in previous years to account for increased costs of warehousing and fulfillment, production, costs of sales, etc. as the new title count and backlist continues to grow. (Project 3400)

Library Statistics (Project 3202)

Revenues

- + FY22 saw the launch of the redesigned ACRL information service Benchmark: Library Metrics and Trends. Net revenue is projected to be $62,153 and will be budgeted in 3202.

Expenses

- We will budget $21,000 in depreciation costs and $21,500 as repayment to PLA to cover ACRL's share of the rebuild cost in FY21. (Project 3202)

Standards and guidelines (Project 3204)

Revenues

- + Sales of print standards fell off to zero during the pandemic. Anticipate very negligible sales to continue in FY23 as well, unless there is a bigger than anticipated economic rebound and/or RoadShows move back to an in-person model (RoadShows IUT costs of booklets for programs back to this line).

Expenses

- There should be no, or very limited, printing expenses in FY23 due to current inventory and lack of sales in FY20, FY21, and most likely FY22.

C&RL (Project 3300)

Revenues

- + Online advertising revenues for FY23 are projected to remain at FY22 budget levels. (Project 3300)

Expenses

- Online hosting and labor expenses should remain steady with FY21 actual/ FY22 budget. (Project 3300)

C&RL News (Project 3302)

Overview

- C&RL News will become an online-only publication beginning with the January 2022 issue. FY23 will be the first full year that the magazine is not printed.

Revenues

- + Subscriptions: No subscription revenue in FY23 due to transition to online-only model during FY22.
- + Print product ads: No print ad revenue in FY23 due to transition to online-only model during

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0
(Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

FY22.

- + Online product ads: Revenue from banner ads on the C&RL News website and table of contents alert sponsorships should hold steady at FY22 budget levels.
- + Online ads: Online advertising on which we pay overhead, including eblasts and newsletter sponsorships, are projected to increase from $90,000 to $110,000 due to advertisers shifting to digital ads from print along with current FY22 demand.
- + Classified job ad revenues will be budgeted with a significant increase over FY22, back to the levels seen in the years prior to the pandemic. Job advertising recovered much more quickly and strongly than anticipated following the abrupt dive to record lows in 2020, returning to “normal” pre-pandemic levels by the spring of 2021. Job ad sales grew steadily from 2010 through 2017, then declined slightly in 2018 and 2019 as the job market plateaued. ALA JobLIST maintains high awareness in the LIS niche and is a uniquely powerful recruitment tool for the profession. But an uncertain economic environment and policies supporting ALA’s mission and values that restrict the ads JobLIST will publish—restrictions JobLIST’s for-profit competitors don’t have—potentially threaten its future performance. Online job ad revenues and expenses are split with American Libraries 50/50 through operation of the ALA JobLIST online career center. (Project 3302)

Expenses

- A small amount of funds will be budgeted to support marketing initiatives for the online career center, ALA JobLIST. (Project 3302)
- $14,000 will be budgeted to contribute to HRDR for operating costs of the ALA JobLIST Placement Center at ALA MW and AC. (Project 3302)
- $18,000 will be budgeted for ALA JobLIST’s ongoing operating expenses, a monthly fee to the platform provider. (Project 3302)
- There will be no printing or mailing expenses in FY23 due to transition to online-only publishing model during FY22. (Project 3302)
- Online hosting expenses are anticipated to remain steady at FY21 actual/ FY22 budget levels. (Project 3302)

RBM (Project 3303)

Revenues

- + Subscriptions continue to decline by approximately 20-25% per year with a similar decline anticipated for FY23 over FY21 and FY22. Small annual subscription price increases have been implemented which will partially offset smaller number of subscribers.

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- + Print advertising revenue is projected to decline from $8,000 in FY22 to $6,000 in FY23 due to long-time advertisers retiring or closing shop. Online advertising revenue is projected to decline from $1,500 in FY22 to $1,000 in FY23.

Expenses

- Online hosting expenses will remain at FY21 actual/ FY22 budget levels following the transition to Open Journal Systems in FY17. (Project 3303)
- Increases in printing and postage are anticipated but have the potential to be volatile depending on whether paper shortages and USPS turmoil continue. (Project 3303)
- Page counts should remain at FY22 levels. (Project 3303)

CHOICE

Keeping in mind the points made in the overview section, here are the following pro forma assumptions regarding the FY23 budget, subject to change as we go further into FY22. (All percentages are to FY22 budget unless otherwise noted):

CHOICE Revenue

- + Choice Reviews subscription revenue will fall by 5%.
- + Choice magazine subscription revenue will fall by 20%; Reviews on Cards, by 15%
- + Subscriptions to Resources for College Libraries will be marginally higher than in FY21, at around $125,000. RCL licensing will remain at $10K for the use of RCL content in ProQuest's eBook Central, with an additional $10K credited to Choice (3902) for OAT matches.
- + ccAdvisor will be depreciated at the close of FY22.
- + Advertising net revenues should increase by 2%-3%, with declining magazine advertising offsetting gains in sponsored content:
  - Choice magazine: 120,000
  - Choice Reviews: 35,000
  - Case studies and white papers: $60,000
  - Podcasts: $40,000
  - Newsletters and eblasts: $225,000
  - Choice360 (including TIE): $50,000
  - Webinars: 262,500
- + Royalties from licensing of Choice Reviews will remain at or slightly below current levels, to perhaps $490K.

CHOICE Expenses

- Choice will budget salary, benefits, and overhead according to the directives of ALA Finance.
- All other direct expenses, with the exception of amortization of capitalized expenses, will remain consistent with FY22B, adjusted upward for 3% inflation.

CHOICE Bottom Line

- Revenues will be down approximately 4%.
- Assuming no furloughs, expenses will rise 3%
- For FY22, net revenue may be as high as (-$290K), requiring a further draw-down from the Choice reserve fund, currently at about $2.8MM thanks to an infusion of cash from the federal COVID bailout.

Enabling programs and services: Education

ACRL 2023 Conference (Project 3801)

Revenues

- All revenues pertaining to ACRL 2023 will be recognized in March 2023 after the conference is held.
- FY23 is an ACRL Conference year so total ACRL revenues will be approximately $1.5 million to $2.0 million dollars more than FY22 total revenues.
- ACRL 2023 is being planned as a hybrid conference with approximately 50-60% of attendees attending in-person and approximately 40-50% participating remotely. We anticipate the total number of paid registrants around 3,000, which is an 8 percent decrease from the average of the past four conferences which was 3,243.
- We will set the F2F and virtual-only registration fees in order to cover expenses and to have a budget with a projected net revenue similar to the FY19 net.
- ACRL 2023 exhibitor revenues will be budgeted with a modest decrease from 2019 (the last in-person ACRL Conference). The number of booths has been dropping since 2013 (327 booths actual 2019, 375 booths actual 2017, 386 booths actual 2015, 398 actual 2013), with a fairly large 48 booth drop from 2017 to 2019.
- ACRL 2023 sponsorship revenues will be budgeted around $150,000-200,000 which is a 20-40% decrease from the usual $250,000 goal. We expect fundraising to be challenging as we recover from the pandemic, as well tight budgets and ongoing company mergers.
- Because conference revenues have consistently met or exceeded budget for at least the last ten conferences, 100% of revenues will be recognized.

Expenses

- Staff are taking active steps to find cost-savings and reduce expenses when possible.
- The ACRL 2023 conference budget will include a modest amount of funds for “innovation” and/or new programs/services/accessibility which will enhance the hybrid conference experience.

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- Scholarships will be budgeted as a “contra-expense” transfer from ACRL’s scholarship project and/or Friends Fund rather than shown as revenue.

Preconferences and workshops

Revenues

- + Revenues generated from registration fees will cover the costs for one Annual preconference, as the event is budgeted to at least break even. We will budget attendance conservatively to minimize the possibility of having to cancel due to low registration numbers. (Project 3811).
- + The RBMS 62nd Annual Conference will be held in FY22. Revenues and expenses for this program will be set to break even. (Project 3800)

Expenses

- Sections sponsoring conferences (e.g., RBMS) in FY22 may participate in the program to share net revenue with ACRL, which is spent from the fund balance in FY23. (Project 3275 and 3838)

Online learning (Project 3340)

Revenues

- + E-learning webcasts and courses will be developed and offered in FY23. Since FY23 is an ACRL Conference year, we don’t anticipate an increase in the number of offerings from FY22 levels. We anticipate total revenues will be even or a little down from FY21 actuals due to the implementation of standardized online learning pricing being implemented across ALA . (Project 3340)
- + ACRL and CHOICE will split revenues and expenses (15/85%) for the ACRL/CHOICE sponsored webinars and will budget approximately 30 of them in FY21.
- + ACRL will continue to offer group registration discounts for e-Learning webcasts and special pricing for webcast series. (Project 3340)

Expenses

- ACRL will continue to provide two complimentary e-Learning webcasts to ACRL chapters per fiscal year.

Licensed workshops (Project 3341)

Revenues

- We expect to resume licensing of full-day in-person workshops to institutions, chapters, and consortia upon request, though at reduced numbers from FY20. Seven available workshops will cover these topics: the Standards for Libraries in Higher Education, Scholarly Communication, Assessment, Open Educational Resources and Affordability, Research Data Management, the Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education, and the Scholarship of Teaching and

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

Learning. These programs will be offered on a cost-recovery basis and should generate a modest net. (Project 3341)

- ACRL will continue to offer virtual “Off-RoadShow” offerings based on the current workshop topics, developed in FY21/FY22. We project this to be a popular option for institutions and organizations unable to host an in-person workshop and to generate a modest net, making up for the reduced number of in-person workshops. (Project 3341)
- $10,000 in partial revenue for subsidized RoadShows to HBCU, tribal colleges, and other minority-serving institutions shown in the EDI section.

Expenses

- ACRL will continue to cover travel costs for new presenters to shadow workshops. With the expectation that ACRL will develop at least one new workshop and hire new presenters in FY23, ACRL will budget for 3 new presenters to shadow one workshop each in FY22.
- $15,000 to support curriculum development of new workshops and curriculum refreshes of existing workshops, up from a reduced $7,500 in FY22 but below pre-pandemic budget of $20,000/year.
- Subsidized RoadShows to HBCU, tribal colleges, and other minority-serving institutions shown in EDI section.

Enabling programs and services: Advocacy

Strengthening partnerships with other organizations (Project 3501)

Expenses

- $15,000 will be budgeted to support the work of ACRL’s External Liaisons Committee (formerly Liaison Coordinating Committee) through its grants working group. (Project 3501).
- ACRL will continue organizational support Project COUNTER, CHEMA, EDUCAUSE (dropped EDUCAUSE Dues from draft budget saving $2,000), FTRF, American Council of Learned Societies, National Humanities Alliance, and CNI. (Project 3501)
- Modest funding to support additional visits (as opportunities arise) to higher education organization conferences and meetings and those of information –related organizations will be included in the budget. (Project 3501)

Communication on major issues and trends in libraries and Higher Education

Expenses

- Continue membership in Library Copyright Alliance at direct cost of $30,020 plus staff time. (Projects 3702 and 3704)

ACRL AC22 Doc 11.0 (Also ACRL LLX22 Doc 11.0)

- Funds will be budgeted to support ACRL's advocacy efforts to influence legislative and public policy. (Projects 3702 and 3704)
- The full Board will participate in a virtual spring meeting but $4,000 will be budgeted to cover the costs of the officers (or other leaders) attending ALA's Legislative Day in Washington, D.C. (Project 3704)

Project Outcome (Project 3712)

Revenue

- + Project Outcome offers fee-based group accounts for consortia that may bring in revenue. Fees range from $600 to $5000 per group, depending on the number of institutions. There are likely to be fewer than 2 groups added in a year.
- + Revenue from training workshops will be budgeted at $1750.
- + Revenue for sponsored webinars will be budgeted at $5,000 ($2,500 each for two webinars)
- + Revenue for new options (e.g. training kits, external partnerships, toolkit "resale")

Expenses

- $60,550 will be budgeted for monthly web maintenance costs for the ACRL Project Outcome toolkit. This includes $250/month for Amazon Web Services, $50 for Civilized Discourse Construction Kit, and $225/month for Digital Divide Data Ventures. Community Attributes is paid monthly for maintenance and ad hoc troubleshooting (estimated at $3000/month).
- ACRL staff time of at least 15 hours/week to: provide customer service and technical support for Project Outcome users, act as staff liaison to the Project Outcome for Academic Libraries Editorial Board and organize new online learning opportunities.

Operations

Operational activities relevant to the quality of ACRL's strategic and enabling programs and services are reported below.

Staff and office

Expenses—ACRL

- ACRL's staff budget will include full staffing at FY22 level.
- $2,500 will be budgeted for temporary staff as needed. (Project 0000)
- Staffing costs for existing staff will be budgeted as directed by ALA Finance. (Project 0000)
- Costs to provide professional development opportunities for staff will be budgeted. Budgeted funds for professional development and membership, business meetings, and general operational costs reduced.
- Removed Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) membership $370.

Expenses—CHOICE

- See Choice expenses.

ALA Relationship

Overhead—ACRL

- ACRL’s general overhead payment to ALA will be budgeted at FY22 levels as policy requires, currently estimated at about $464,132 (FY21 final actual).

Overhead—CHOICE

- CHOICE’s general overhead payment to ALA will be budgeted at approximately $297,654 in FY23, based on FY22 budgeted OH.

Dear colleagues,

Below are the Executive Board updates from May and April meetings. We are just shy of one month before our June meetings. In June, we will be preparing the next preliminary or draft FY23 budget. Please let me know if you have any questions. In addition, the Operating Agreement Work Group is focused on wrapping up their work regarding how we update how we work as a unified association to achieve our mission.

I hope you are attending the Annual Conference either in-person or virtually. Please take care of yourselves and loved ones as we navigate the health and social justice issues of our society.

Maggie Farrell
ALA Treasurer and Executive Board Liaison

Key highlights from the May 17, 2022 Executive Board conference call:

- ALA Treasurer and Operating Agreement Working Group Update
  - ALA Treasurer reported that they are currently working on the upcoming June financial meetings which will consist of a FY22 update, results of LLX, FY23 budget planning and details of contributed revenue. A second iteration of the FY23 budget will be reviewed in June, the goal is to achieve a surplus.
  - Co-chairs of the Operating Agreement Working Group are meeting with Divisions and Round Tables leadership. There is support in updating the policy in removing the overhead, but there are questions around the budget process to fund member value services.
  - EB Member Neal noted the concern from the PLA Board about the long-term investment allocation at 5% which has been allowable in the operating budget or back to endowment, but for FY23, divisions were told to put into the operating budget. Treasurer Farrell and EB Neal will connect about this.
- ALA Branding Work Group Update
  - President-elect Pelayo-Lozada noted that ALA's consultant, Mission Partners, are narrowing down options to replace Libraries Transform campaigns. They will do targeted listening sessions in order to refine prior to presenting to the Board for approval. Past President Jefferson noted this endeavor can be a game changer for the association.
- Unite Against Book Bans Update
  - 25+ national partners joined ALA in Unite against Book Bans campaign and there has been good coverage in the media. The campaign was well received at the recent American Writers Festival.
- ALA Annual Conference Update

  - Averaging 300 registrants per week, which should get us to our registration target
  - The scheduling feature should be available in the next few days and the mobile app will be live by June 9.
- Board Member Onboarding Plans
  - Governance Director Reyes shared the schedule for the New Board Member orientation, which will continue virtually again this spring. This will occur in four

- There will also be future orientation and onboarding opportunities throughout the summer and fall.
- Draft Council Agendas for June
  - Director Reyes shared and outlined draft Council agendas for Annual Conference in June, which reflect committee action items and/or requests to speak. The agendas are subject to changes as further committee updates or resolutions arise.
  - President Wong asked any other requests or suggestions be sent to Director Reyes, copying President Wong and Council Secretariat Burgess.
- Emerging Issues
  - President-elect Pelayo-Lozada reminded Board Members to share any requests regarding 2022-23 liaison assignment with her by the end of week.

Key highlights from the April 19, 2022 Executive Board conference call:

- Preparation for Board Onboarding Strategies Discussion, *Board members
  - President-elect Lessa Pelayo-Lozada emphasized the importance of onboarding new Board members and opened discussion on how to improve the experience and possible agenda items.

Key highlights from the April 8-10, 2022 Spring Executive Board meetings:

- Membership Dues Adjustment & Discussion, EBD #12.31
  - Membership growth and recovery are slow, but ALA still has ambitious targets and is committed to membership growth as outlined in the pivot plan
  - An update on the dissolution of ASGCLA and a Board concern regarding available accessibility resources. Staff outreach will continue and a future hire of an Accessibility Officer to help build these efforts in ALA.
- ALA Branding Working Group Update / Communication & Marketing Office (CMO) Report EBD #12.30
  - Working hypothesis is that library users and self-identified library lovers would be interested in a relationship with ALA. The subcommittee selected Mission Partners as the firm to help with the discovery and feasibility.
  - Success of the campaign would amplify our message, increase engagement, and raise money for our libraries. This campaign is meant to take the place of “Libraries Transform”. Final recommendations will come in June.
  - CMO highlighted National Library week efforts
- Information Technology Report, EBD #12.32
  - Provided FY22 and FY23 IT staff project updates
  - Currently, IT has 5 staff members, with some consultant support. HR has indicated that hiring more IT staff, including the CIO position, is a priority. Chair Seymour is on the search committee for that position. The goal is to fill 8-9 positions by FY23.
  - Work around ITAC reporting and effectiveness will be visited by the incoming 2022-23 committee.
  - The request for more information and committee efforts around the website redesign was discussed.
- Publishing & Media Report EBD #12.30
  - Highlighted FY22 first quarter results, goals, trends and opportunities in publishing, and the work of the Publishing Committee. The Board requested a demo of the new CE system at a future meeting.
  - American Libraries is 17% above its budgeted revenue, mainly due to JobList. February hit a high mark of $118,826, the most in the history of JobList
  - BookList signed an agreement with Zinio to host the digital magazines on Overdrive, Scribd, Amazon and other services.
  - Pushing high demand titles to more of the niche groups in responses to needs by the book bans and intellectual freedom resources
  - Publishing Committee is revising the charge and rethinking composition/work of committee
- Public Policy and Advocacy Office (PPA) Report, EBD #12.30
  - As of March of 2022, 105,000 student loan borrowers identified for $6.4 billion in forgiveness under the limited Public Service Loan Forgiveness waiver which is set to expire October 31. COL will continue our work with the PSLF coalition and remain active on the issue of student debt forgiveness
  - Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) got an $11 million increase, but the Library Services Technology Act (LSTA) support did not increase and remained at $197.4 million

- WIOA reauthorization (Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2022) introduced in March. The reauthorization bill builds on work that ALA did to include libraries in the 2014 WIOA Act
  - ALA is a founding partner in the Airwaves for Equity Coalition which was publicly launched in February. The New America Foundation is leading the coalition and other partners include the schools, health and libraries broadband coalition (SHLB.) It also includes Consumer Reports, Commonsense and the Benton Institute for Broadband Society
- Transforming ALA Governance (TAG) Update, EBD #10.10
  - TAG's proposals consist of three action items: (1) Size and composition of the Council and Executive Board (2) Creation of the TAP mechanism for getting member feedback (3) Establishing an agenda committee
  - Gathering input from Council via information/feedback sessions in March-May 2022. Board feedback was shared on the agenda planning committee, effectiveness, and sharing resolutions to the appropriate committees well in advance.
- Conference Services Report & Discussion, EBD #12.30
  - Annual Conference
    - In February, registration, marketing and promotion for the Annual Conference launched.
    - There will be a digital experience option for those who are unable to participate in person, with access to a curated selection of live main stage and educational sessions.
    - Current revenue at 60% to the overall goal. The attendance goal is 7,000 which includes virtual attendance.
  - LibLearnX
    - The Conference Committee is reviewing the attendee survey.
    - 2023 is planned for in person in New Orleans. Considering governance correlation. Constitution & Bylaws and Policy Monitoring Committees have expressed concern on how to revise and include this versus Midwinter currently in policy and bylaws.
- Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services (ODLOS) Report, EBD #12.30
  - Unit goal is to strengthen the value proposition of ALA as a leading provider for CE on EDI. ODLOS is connecting folks to our EDI Speakers Bureau, which is like a clearing house for EDI experts
  - First ever Disability Inclusion Institute happening May 3-4 & 24-25. This is an opportunity for all ALA staff and additional constituents to participate in this two-day, six-hour training facilitated by our consultant, Access Living, which is a disability led and run organization.
- Executive Committee Report
  - ALA moved to platinum status on April 5 on Guidestar, placing ALA among the top 1% of nonprofits registered with Guidestar in terms of transparency and governance
  - Plans to create a task force that would focus on election and campaign clarifications
  - For the 150th anniversary, there will be interviews of past presidents to help capture ALA's history
- ALA Division Updates, please click here to see PowerPoints.
- Executive Director Report, EBD #12.30
  - The newest impact stream, Data, Research and Design (DRD) is housed in the Center for the Future of Libraries with two fellows funded by Mellon grant funds

- The Continuing Education unit formed officially at the beginning of FY22 in order to coordinate CE at ALA-wide level and to provide a synergy in new product development and standardization. Built a new ALA CE website with all of ALA's content in one place where it is marketed, cataloged and executed. Response to the site is very positive, internally and externally
  - The work of the Development office includes processing donations and support of fund-raising efforts for ALL units, as well as to foster internal and external relationships, and to create a culture of philanthropy. Contributed income goal this year of $3,085,000, and currently at $2,164,000 or about 70% of our goal. The plan is to begin recruiting a Director of Institutional Advancement at the end of FY23
- Equity, Diversity, Inclusion & Social Justice (EDISJ) Updates
  - Budgeting and pivot plan include EDISJ, and new data and research practices will include EDI through the work of the new fellows.
  - Committee on Accreditation is including EDISJ into the LIS-wide survey. The survey is broken out into open comment form for feedback on revisions of the 2015 standard, as well as reflecting that EDI is built into the revision as an improvement.
- Operating Agreement Workgroup (OAWG) Discussion, EBD #10.9
  - Sought board feedback on the OAWG proposal to remove the overhead rate from Divisions. This will not eliminate the revenue, but rather it will be an internal overhead accounting exchange at about $2 million for divisions. Overhead pays for central services like HR and IT, and supports member value services, such as OIF and PPA.
  - Division feedback via PBA and other means seems to indicate an interest in moving this forward. The change would be implemented in FY24, and OAWG will likely recommend another group look at the actual implementation steps. The Board agreed that a more tangible outline from staff on what would be required to implement would be beneficial, or possibly a mock budget process for the upcoming year.
- Budget Analysis Review Committee (BARC) and Finance & Audit Report, EBD #3.23
  - Discussed transforming ALA governance (TAG) task force. There are some concerns with the financial implications of proposals, and BARC will reach out to meet with TAG prior to Annual Conference.
  - Two actions: approved the annual increase in personal member dues for FY23 in alignment of three-year average of the national CPI of 3.6% and approved preliminary FY23 budget
  - Also discussed BARC liaison program and connecting with Divisions EDs about the impact of BARC liaison
  - In 2017, the Board approved a strategic investment plan for three years, and BARC and F&A will update member about the outcomes of this investment at Annual Conference
- Budget Update
  - FY2022 Q1 Financial Results, EBD 3.20
    - Strong financial position, not only the statement of activities but also the statement of financial positions
    - Revenue totals $11.6 million, with the general fund contributing 63% of that total, divisions at 24%, grants at 8%, long-term investment at 4%, and round tables at 1%

- Balance sheet also improved, with loan balances significantly decreased due to forgiveness of the PPP loans
- FY2023 Preliminary Budget & Annual Estimates of Income
  - Assumptions:
    - 2% salary increase
    - no furlough days for staff
    - overhead will remain the same at 26.5%
    - continued freeze of net asset balance transfers to endowment
    - contingency amount
  - Gap between expenses and revenues was initially $4 million, with no restrictions and no constraints. Employed the strategies to address the gap.
- Endowment Trustee Report, EBD 13.2
  - Book and Market value has been decreasing. Market value at $63 million and book value at $12 million
  - Two trustees have indicated interest in reappointment, which will be presented to F&A and Board for approval
  - Meeting in person on May 23 & 24 in Chicago at ALA headquarters
- Executive Board Liaison Update & Emerging Issues
  - The Joint Conference of Librarians of Color (JCLC) conference registration should be opening soon for October 5-9 in Saint Pete's Beach, Florida. Please consider donating to the conference, and merchandise will be available for purchase.
  - The Rural, Native and Tribal Libraries of All Kinds committee is reassessing its charge and the needs of the populations it serves.
  - Our Annual Conference exhibits are now the largest aggregation of publishers and vendors promoting literature in the country. There might be a possibility for a post-conference public exhibits event that looks more like the Frankfurt Book Fair or Guadalajara Book Fair. Board members discussed the possibility, noting there is strong potential for this, which could be financially sustaining for ALA.
  - Clarification around Annual Conference registration/attendance projections is requested. Additional efforts will be made to be clear and communicative regarding conferences.

Workshopping is a staff review of questions -- edits, revisions, etc. This is an iterative process involving three or four drafts. This is internally focused -- reviewing language, double barreled questions, questions too specific to type of school; too jargony, etc. The new IL module is an optional add-on to the survey. DRAFT OF MOTIONS:

The ALA Executive Board to vote that commercial posts for paid programs or services are prohibited on the ALA Connect platform

The ALA Executive Board to vote that job postings are restricted to a singular opt-in community on the ALA Connect platform.

DATE: Wednesday, March 23, 2022

BACKGROUND:

Updated report on activity for commercial and job postings on Connect since Code of Conduct change in June 2021 and how this has impacted engagement.

ATTACHMENTS:

Updated report on activity for commercial and job postings on Connect since Code of Conduct change in June 2021 and how this has impacted engagement.

Recent Background:

The ALA Code of Conduct Working Group presented EBD #12.46 to the ALA Executive Board in June, 2021 which included an ALA Online Code of Conduct to apply to all online platforms used by ALA in a consistent and transparent manner.

Per the minutes from this meeting, the ALA Executive Board approved the adoption of the ALA Online Code of Conduct with one amendment. The Amendment was to remove the following clause "Don't spam the community with paid products, events, services, or job posts. If you'd like to reach all ALA members and others in the profession with your career-related opportunities, you can use JobLIST career center or Core Jobs Service."

As a result of this change, all commercial posts and job postings are allowed on all communities on Connect. This has impacted Connect in the following ways:

- Given competitors the ability to promote their products directly to our members (two recent examples are this January post and this June post). This contrasts with ALA's practice of limiting direct access to members and instead encouraging paid advertising or sponsorship.
- Decreased replies to posts in the ALA member community by 82% with smaller decreases in our divisions and round tables (data for the largest two divisions and round tables is in Exhibit A).
- Increased the number of job postings on Connect which may be outside of ALA's JobLIST platform and therefore not vetted for compliance with legal requirements and best practices and resulting in the majority of posts some days on the daily digests.
- Increased the number of messages members receive through Connect.

In the January 2022 Board Meeting and in a subsequent conversation, it was discussed that there are two distinct components of this conversation – commercial postings and job postings.

Commercial Postings:

ALA extends numerous opportunities to those wanting to increase visibility of their products to ALA members. A few of these include purchase of the membership print mailing list, exhibiting at an ALA or division conference, purchasing advertising on American Libraries or other platforms. While many of these opportunities include member discounts, they are all paid opportunities for exposure.

Association best practice is to exclude commercial posts from community platforms and direct users to the paid opportunities that the association provides.

Historically, promotion of free events, call for proposals, and surveys have been allowed on Connect as a value of membership and it is recommended that these continue.

ALA JobLIST and Job Postings:

JobLIST generates more than $800,000 in revenue annually (typical non-pandemic years) and is visited by library and information science professionals at least 70,000 times per month. JobLIST is also free to all job seekers.

In reviewing best practices of other Higher Logic users, job postings are either explicitly prohibited, or channeled into one community specifically for job seekers. This community could also be open to the public, but users would need to opt into the community manually versus being auto enrolled. This approach would allow for non-ALA job postings to be promoted on Connect so further research would need to be done to distill the impact to JobLIST revenue and organizational membership revenue as discounted job postings is one of the primary drivers of this membership.

To continue this research, Core and ALA staff worked together to activate a pilot using the Core community. Effective, February 1, 2022, a new community called "Core Library Jobs" was activated and job posts were no longer permitted in Core communities. Core Library Jobs is now a community of 94 members and has had approximately 40 posts about jobs. This has also created a space for more conversation and engagement on the Core Member Community.

This pilot has only been in place for less than 60 days, so additional observation is required. It is important that we do not create a shadow job board that directly competes with JobLIST as well.

We also know that any changes to the Code of Conduct on job postings will need a thoughtful communication plan to accompany it.

Alongside, ALA staff is working to prominently feature JobLIST on the ALA member community using banner ads and job widgets. These are other opportunities to increase exposure of an ALA product while also creating space for job postings.

Goals of Connect:

Per the ALA Connect Roadmap, the Connect community was created with the primary objective of providing members with one centralized place to do their ALA work and connect with other members around issues and interests relevant to the profession. Connect was designed for peer-to-peer connection within our membership.

Participation on Connect is one of the few exclusive ALA member benefits. Most membership benefits are available to the public at large, but most Connect member communities are a privilege of membership. At the ALA level, both the ALA Member Community along with the Student Community (launching January 2021), are limited to current members.

ALA Connect costs ALA $42,172 annually in licensing fees.

Industry Best Practices with Community Platforms:

Per the Membership Marketing Benchmarking Report, over 50% of associations offer an online community for their members and the Higher Logic software is the most used platform. These branded professional communities differ from other social platforms such as LinkedIn or Facebook because they are moderated spaces where users should feel a sense of comfort about their privacy. Branded communities such as ALA Connect, are designed as safe spaces where people are comfortable asking questions and can showcase their expertise. The content shared should be creating an informal body of knowledge to increase the value of membership.

According to industry best practice, online communities that are built for engagement require moderation of content. Per the 7 Do's and Don'ts of Online Community Moderation, posts that hinder community discussion should be excluded from online platforms. This includes promotions from vendors soliciting products and can include job postings.

Since ALA Connect is a benefit of membership, increasing engagement on Connect is a direct contributor to membership retention and to the ALA Pivot Plan. Per the Higher Logic 2020 Engagement Report, members will remain within the communities once they are participating and finding value so we need to be intentional about what content is being posted within our communities and tracking engagement.

A second factor that leads to retention is keeping members engaged enough to regularly read posts from Connect. In November 2021, a member of Core would have had to read through a minimum of 170 messages from Connect (more if they're members of interest groups and sections), compared to only 88 in April. In addition to doubling the number of messages, the additional posts consist of commercial content, job ads, and calls for proposals. This additional content can make it difficult for members to find the messages where peers are posting requests for help and sharing information.

We seek to define sharing information on Connect in six distinct ways:

- 1) Peer-to-Peer discourse as replies to Discussion posts, along with the utilization of curated content in ALA main communities,
- 2) relevant discourse and curated content in designated spaces on Division main homepages and Division Communities,
- 3) relevant discussion and passion-driven collaboration in Round Tables communities,
- 4) sharing key resources through discussion posts and with collaboration through Committee spaces,

Data shows that use of Connect is growing, and we should take this opportunity to realign our strategy for it with Online Community Best Practices, our ALA Connect Roadmap and ALA Business strategy/needs to increase value for members.
